WELCOME AND USER GUIDE

Welcome to the 2015 Journal of the Baltimore-Washington Conference (231st Annual Session). This is the official record adopted by the Annual Conference held on May 28 - 30, 2015. Let us know your reactions, concerns and suggestions after using this resource. Please contact Kayla Spears at kspears@bwcumc.org with comments and suggestions.

HOW TO NAVIGATE

Start with the Table of Contents on the first page. Click on any link to be taken to that section (for a full listing of the entire Journal, click on “Journal Table of Contents.”) You can click on any of the Journal items to go directly to the page where that item is found. You must select the “hand” tool to enable using links on the Table of Contents page. This tool is located at the top left of your screen and you’ll know that you have it when the image of a small hand appears as your cursor.

Once you enter the Journal, at the bottom of your screen, there are blue arrows to move you from page to page, as well as a “back” button that will take you back to the previous page. If you get lost, use the scroll bar on the right to take you back to page 1. The plus (+) and minus (-) signs in the upper tool bar help you enlarge or shrink the page.

To copy text from this version of the Journal, click on the “Select Text” tool in the top left corner of the page, then click on and drag over the text you’d like to copy. Release the mouse, right click in the highlighted text and select “copy to clipboard.” Next, open the application you want the text placed in (such as a Microsoft Word document), and go to “Edit” at the top and “Paste” in the drop down menu.

Please note that links are disabled when you are using the “Select Text” tool. To allow links to work again, you must re-select the “Hand” tool. If you try to use a link while using the “Select Text” tool and come up with an error message, click the green “Back” arrow at the bottom of the page and then click the “Hand” tool.

To search the Journal for all instances of a name or word, go to “Edit” at the top of the page. Click on “Search” in the drop down menu. A box will appear at the right. After clicking “Search,” it will find all instances of that sequence of letters. Remember that if you are searching for a pastor, they are listed by last names first.

III. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

TWO HUNDRED THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL CONFERENCE

All reference to recommendations and reports can be found in this Journal in the reports section.

Clergy Executive Session

Marriott Waterfront, Baltimore

Wednesday May 27, 2015 | 2 p.m.

The clergy gathered to the singing of “O How I Love Jesus,” and “Blessed Assurance.” Bishop Marcus Mathews pounded the gavel officially calling to order the 231st session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. After the opening prayer, the Rev. Sarah Dorrance read Matthew 14:22-36. The Conference Worship Team led the singing of “When Waves Are Crashing,” followed by the Prayers of the People and a rousing rendition of “Leaning on the Everlasting Arms.”

Bishop Peggy Johnson of the Philadelphia Area greeted us. Then the Rev. Charlie Parker, chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM), made the organizational motion. The Rev. JW Park, the Dean of the Cabinet, gave the response to Question 17. Question 18 was voted on and approved. Question 21.a and b, those approved and appointed as full-time and part-time local pastors, was approved by the body. Question 25 listed those from other denominations who have been approved to serve within conference bounds. It was approved. The affiliate members without vote listed in Question 26.b were approved by a two-thirds vote.

The Rev. Stacey Cole Wilson introduced those to be approved as Provisional Members. Each came forward and gave his/her name and ministry context. The body approved them by a two-thirds vote. The body also approved as Provisional Members four people from other denominations. Those names are listed in Question 30.a. The Rev. Steve Robison then read the names of the candidates for Full Membership, who were to be ordained as Deacon or Elder. Each came before the body. When each had left the room, one or two clergy said a few words of affirmation about the candidate. All were approved by a two-thirds vote for Full Membership and Ordination (Questions 32.a and b, 33, and 34).

The body then approved Questions 42.b and 43.a. Likewise, the clergy approved Questions 45, 46.a, 50.a.(1) and (3), and 52.

The names and dates of those who are retiring were then read:

Deacon: Susan Carns; Elders: Ann V. Atkins, Janet Lee T. Becker, Kiyul Chung, Mary W. Conaway, Kenneth R. Fell, Susan Halse, Howard E. Moore, Richard J. Mortimore, Nancy S. Nedwell, Louis Shockley, Mark L. Smiley, Edwin H. Welch, Sr., and David M. Wentz.

The voting continued with the approval of Questions 64, 73.a and b, 77.c. The bishop asked those serving in Extension Ministries to come forward. Each gave his/her name and ministry context. The Rev. Allen Stewart offered a prayer on their behalf. Rev. Parker made a motion that the entire report be approved. The motion passed. NOTE: The details of the report, including those questions that were informational only, and the names of those listed in the questions voted upon, can be found in the Business of Annual Conference section of this Journal.

Those celebrating 25 or 40 year anniversaries of their ordinations were recognized. Those present to receive their certificates were:

Forty years: Lynn D. Cairns, George Glover Earle, Jr., Nancy Susan W. Nedwell, Edward Allen Stewart, and Kenneth Steven Valentine.

Twenty-five years: Kevin Michael Baker, Kathleen Frances Cheyney, Clarence Davis, Dennis E. Dorsch, James Martin Miller, Moses Sangha, and Evan DeZelle Young.

Rev. Parker then recognized and thanked all the BOOM and District Committees on Ministry (DCOM) members. He also thanked Debbie Albrecht, administrative assistant to the Episcopal Office, for her terrific work on behalf of BOOM. The bishop also thanked Parker and the Rev. Ianther Mills for their work and leadership on BOOM.

Those candidates for clergy delegates to General and/of Jurisdictional Conference came forward and introduced themselves. Dr. Helen Fleming offered a payer on their behalf.

Laity Session

Wednesday, May 27, 2014 | 7 p.m.

The Laity Session opened with a spirit-led worship that included the singing of “Blessed Assurance,” “Open Our Eyes,” and “Leaning on the Everlasting Arms.” Conference Lay Leader Delores Martin then greeted those present. When Bishop Matthews addressed those assembled, he said, “You bless us in so many ways.”

Moses Kumar, General Secretary of the Council on Finance and Administration, challenged those gathered to “dare to believe” in their local churches. “Help your congregation dare to believe,” he said, “When they do, they can and will accomplish much.” He thanked the Conference for paying 100 percent of its General Church apportionments every year since 1999.

Knowing that a picture is worth a thousand words, Kumar showed several slides of missions around the world that have benefitted from apportionment giving. Kumar also introduced VANCO, a tool to help the local church move to electronic giving. Available through GCFA, it will also track statistics.

The Rev. Erik Alsgaard, BWC Communications editor, narrated a brief but very informative presentation about the history of our Conference.

The presidents or representatives from the United Methodist Women, the United Methodist Men, the Conference Council of Youth Ministries, the Young Adult Council, Campus Ministries, and the Discipleship Council gave reports. Sandra King-Shaw introduced 10 new people who are studying to become Certified Lay Ministers.

Annual Conference First Plenary Session

Marriott Waterfront, Baltimore

Thursday, May 28, 2014 | 8:30 a.m.

Lay and clergy members of the Baltimore-Washington Conference assembled to the singing of “Blessed Be the Name of the Lord,” “There’s Something about That Name,” and “I Love You, Lord.” Bishop Marcus Matthews led in a time of prayer and then called the session to order. After another prayer, we viewed the video, “Dare to Believe.” Then we sang together, “And Are We Yet Alive.” The conference secretary, the Rev. Mary Jo Sims, made the Organizational Motion, which was approved. She then gave a report on the Judicial Council decisions regarding two questions of law presented at last year’s Annual Conference Session. The first case questioned whether the voting on certain resolutions was legal since the body did not have the opportunity to offer amendments. The Judicial Council ruled that the vote “was lawful and did not violate the Discipline.” The second case involved a request for a ruling to determine if the resolution, “Agree to Disagree,” violated the Discipline or conflicted with the decisions of the Judicial Council. In its ruling, the Judicial Council upheld Bishop Matthews’ ruling that the resolution did not violate the Discipline or conflict with Judicial Council decisions.

Cynthia Taylor then made a motion to suspend the rules so that we could engage that evening in a time of Holy Conferencing, using the Circles of Grace process. The Rev. Deb Scott seconded the motion, which passed. Matthew Sichel then made a motion to table all petitions and resolutions before the Annual Conference in favor of discussions to help the people of the City of Baltimore. The Rev. Laura Schultz seconded the motion. It did not pass.

The Revs. Charlie Parker and Ianther Mills gave the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM) report. The candidates for full membership came forward. The bishop asked them the historical questions, which are asked of all those about to be ordained. Afterwards, the body affirmed with applause those to be ordained on Saturday. Mills also introduced those whose orders will be recognized on Saturday. Then the lay candidates for delegates to General and/or Jurisdictional Conferences were introduced. The Rev. Maidstone Mulenga explained the voting process using the electronic keypads.

Opening Worship

Thursday, May 28, 2014 | 10:00 a.m.

During the Processional Hymns, “Standing on the Promises” and “Marching to Zion,” representatives from the eight districts of the Baltimore-Washington Conference processed in with banners representing the ministries of each district. After the Call to Worship and Opening Prayer, the Revs. Tony Love and Mandy Sayers read from Psalms 27 and 91. The Gospel reading, Matthew 14:22-36, was presented with spoken word, music and movement led by the Rev. Wanda Duckett and Bresean Jenkins.

In his sermon, Bishop Marcus Matthews reminded us that even in times of turbulent and troubled waters, such as what has been experienced recently in the City of Baltimore, we should not be afraid. Very often, Matthews said, “our capacity to recognize Jesus . . . will be tested by the turbulent waters of our lives.” He said that true faith can never be real until, or unless, it is tested. Jesus understands our fears, the bishop proclaimed. Jesus wants us to know that we are not alone. It’s because of Jesus’ presence that we have the audacity to believe where we have not yet seen. The bishop said that he was now in the City of Baltimore to proclaim that because of the power of Jesus Christ a new day appears to be dawning. The bishop asked the churches in the Conference to engage in three aspects of ministry: reflection and daily prayer, service to our neighbors, and, through our witness, bringing one person to Jesus Christ in the coming year.

The Service of Holy Communion followed the sermon. After the Benediction, the congregation joined in the singing of “We Are Marching in the Light of God.”

Second Plenary Session

Thursday, May 28, 2015 | 2:00 p.m.

The Rev. JW Park, Dean of the Cabinet, led us in prayer as we began the afternoon session. On the first lay ballot for delegates to General Conference, Delores Martin was elected. She will chair the delegation. No one was elected on the first clergy ballot. The Rev. Rebecca Iannicelli offered a prayer for Delores.

Park then introduced our guests from Korea, who greeted us. They presented Bishop and Mrs. Matthews with gifts. The Episcopacy Committee presented Bishop Seung Chul An with gifts.

The Rev. Cynthia Moore-Koikoi, superintendent for the Baltimore Metropolitan District, introduced Baltimore City Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake, who thanked The United Methodist Church for our leadership in the recent weeks following the riots throughout the city, which were touched off by Freddie Gray’s death. “It is in the tradition of our Methodist social action that I saw so many of you show up for us during the unrest to address the challenges that our residents face,” she said. “I’m letting you know,” she continued, “that I’ll be calling on you again because there are bridges that need to be built that can’t be done without the faith community.” Both the bishop and Superintendent Moore-Koikoi thanked the mayor and assured her of the church’s continued efforts on behalf of the City of Baltimore. In the same spirit, the Rev. Joan Carter-Rimbach rose to make a motion that the Conference designate Sunday, June 7, 2015, as “Dare to Believe in Baltimore City Sunday” and invite each local church to take a special offering for the Dare to Believe: Stronger Churches, Stronger Relationships, Stronger Communities Campaign for the rebuilding and ministries of the six United Methodist churches in the Sandtown-Winchester and Harlem Park communities. The motion was seconded and approved unanimously. In the midst of our concern for Baltimore, we lifted up one of its pastors, the Rev. Bruce Haskins, in prayer, led by the Rev. Stephen Tillett.

Accompanied on stage by the Rev. Susan Henry-Crowe, General Secretary of the General Board of Church and Society; the Rev. Alfred T. Day III, General Secretary of the Commission on Archives and History; Daniel Fisher, Chair of Conference Commission on Archives and History; and Robert Chamberlain; the Rev. Emora Brannon, conference historian and president of the Conference Historical Society, made the motion that we approve The United Methodist Building on Capitol Hill as a United Methodist Historic Site and that we recommend the Building to the General Commission on Archives and History as worthy of designation by the General Conference as a United Methodist Heritage Landmark, as expeditiously as possible. Those gathered approved the motion. Henry-Crowe thanked us for what we had done and said that she was taking monies out of her discretionary fund to support the Baltimore Sunday resolution we had unanimously passed. She talked about the various aspects of the Board of Church and Society and its work in advocacy, education and organizing.

The Rev. Jim Miller introduced the Episcopacy Committee and gave a report of their work during the past year. Charlie Moore announced the creation of an initiative for an offering to Africa University that will honor Bishop and Mrs. Matthews as our bishop prepares to retire at the end of this quadrennium. The Rev. Maidstone Mulenga presented the bishop with a banner celebrating the support of our conference for Africa University. The Episcopacy Committee presented Bishop and Mrs. Barbara Matthews with gifts of appreciation. Elizabeth Stemley, UMW president, also presented Mrs. Matthews with a gift.

The Rev. Ann Laprade, Chair of Conference Council on Finance and Administration, reviewed the finances of 2014. Apportionment giving was the highest in a decade, she said. This, while also meeting the $2.1 million goal for the Imagine No Malaria campaign. Looking ahead, the 2016 budget would raise $14.3 million in apportionment giving. Non-apportioned income should add another $2.8 million to the budget. The Rev. Jim Johnson, Chair of the Commission on Equitable Compensation, recommended the minimum salary for full-time clergy be raised 1.75 per cent, to $41,473. The housing allowance of $19,866 would remain unchanged. The Rev. Jackson Day presented the recommendations from the Conference Board of Pensions and Benefits, including the Resolution Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the Conference. Laprade moved for acceptance of the budget and the above mentioned recommendations and resolution. The body overwhelmingly voted its approval.

Pastor Gay Green-Carden, Chair of the Conference Nominations Committee, gave the Nominations report, which the body affirmed. The Conference Secretary, the Rev. Mary Jo Sims, announced the nominations of Cynthia Taylor as Conference Secretary Designate and the Rev. Daryl Williams as Statistician. They will assume office beginning January 2017.

Third Plenary Session

May 28, 2015 | 7:00 p.m.

When the body had reassembled, balloting for lay delegates to General Conference resumed. Jen Ihlo was elected. Clergy then cast their ballots for clergy delegates to General Conference. The Rev. Terri Rae Chattin was elected.

Twenty-one youth members at large led spirit-filled worship in preparation for the Circles of Grace. They opened with the lively worship song, "Every Move I Make," followed by a reading from Mark 12:27-32. They then led us in a heartfelt singing of "Amazing Grace, My Chains Are Gone." After a reading from 1 Corinthians 13:4-7, the service ended in prayer. The worship set the tone for the evening.

Bishop Matthews told the assembly that the Circles of Grace process is a way of practicing Holy Conferencing. He said, "We're going to continue to model how we can be the people of faith, the people who dare to trust each other and people who have come together to talk together and to prayerfully move God's church forward." Bishop Matthews then introduced Stephanie Hixon, a representative from JustPeace, a United Methodist center that prepares and assists leaders and faith communities to engage conflict in constructive ways, who gave instructions on the Circles of Grace process. Conference members sat in groups ranging between 6 and 12 people, each with a trained facilitator. The conversations focused on three questions: (1) What do you perceive as the impact of this resolution on the BWC in particular and The UMC in general? (2) Where do you see God in this resolution and (3) How do we continue to show God's love as we discuss this resolution?

The Circles discussed and prayed over four proposed petitions to the 2016 General Conference:

- Regarding Human Sexuality
- To Revise the Book of Resolutions (BOR): Resolution 1027. God's Creation and the Church
- To Revise the Book of Discipline (BOD): The Social Principles paragraph 164: V. THE POLITICAL COMMUNITY C)
- To Revise the BOD: Social Principles paragraph 160: I. THE NATURAL WORLD F), Science and Technology.

Using a toy boat as a "talking stick," which they held during their time of speaking, each person had an opportunity to voice his/her thoughts and feelings about the proposed resolutions. At the close of the discussion time, members used electronic keypads to vote on the four proposals. The results of the voting were announced the following morning.

Bible Study

Friday, May 29, 2015 | 8:00 a.m.

Inspired by the Matthew 14:22-36 passage that set the "Dare to Believe" theme for our Conference, Bible Study leader, the Rev. Laurie Haller, challenged us to become water-walkers. Haller, the co-senior pastor of First UMC in Birmingham, Michigan, quoted T. S. Elliot, "Only those who will risk going too far can possibly find out how far one can go." She told us that water-walkers dare to believe by having the courage to get out of the boat.

Haller pointed out that right before the disciples saw Jesus walking on the sea, Jesus had gone up the mountain by himself to pray. She asked if we too sometimes need to be by ourselves with God. She said that the power of our ministries as clergy and lay is dependent on our commitment to take care of ourselves. The same is true for our local churches.

When the disciples see Jesus walking on water, they are afraid. This was no ordinary storm; the fishermen among them would not have been scared of such a storm. "This is the big one." But Jesus tells the disciples not to be afraid. Such words appear often in the Bible. "Why, then, are we still so afraid? Afraid to dare to believe? Afraid to risk? Afraid to trust those who don't believe exactly like we believe? Afraid to take a stand? Afraid to accept those who don't look act, dress, smell or like us?"

When Jesus bids Peter come, Peter walks on the water. Does Jesus tell Peter to get out of the boat, or does Jesus dare Peter to get out of the boat? Who's in charge of the water-walking, Jesus or Peter? "Whether Jesus makes the first overture to Peter or not, the reality is that water-walkers dare to believe and are willing to risk because water-walkers are on a mission from God." Quoting John Ortberg, Haller said that "Getting out of the boat was Peter's great gift to Jesus; the experience of walking on water was Jesus' great gift to Peter."

She said that Jesus calls each of us as individuals to dare to believe that we can do far more than we think we can. And, it's the same with our churches. "We have the ability to be the ears, eyes, hands, feet, voice and heart of God by embodying Christ's love in all that we do." She asked why couldn't we "move out of the boat of the church into our communities and world? What's holding us back? Why do we so often play it safe?"

Then Haller told us about baby elephant syndrome. In Africa and India, baby elephants are tied securely to trees to prevent them from roaming. They soon learn they cannot break free. As adults, they are capable of freeing themselves from the ropes, but by then they have stopped trying. They remain stuck where they are. Do you and/or your local church have baby elephant syndrome, Haller asked. If we want to experience God's power, "we have to dare to believe, to break the rope, and to take the first step." She closed by reminding us that "If you want to walk on water, you've got to get out of the boat." She asked, "How is God calling you to dare to believe?"

Fourth Plenary Session

Friday, May 29, 2015 | 9:00 a.m.

The Rev. Joe Daniels, superintendent for the Greater Washington District and senior pastor of Emory UMC, offered the morning prayer. Bishop Matthews introduced the Rev. Laurie Haller, the Conference Bible Study leader, to the body.

The bishop then announced the results from the voting of the petitions to the 2016 General Conference considered the previous evening in the Circles of Grace:

1. Regarding Human Sexuality: Yes: 539; No: 234
2. To Revise the BOR: Resolution 1027, God's Creation and the Church: Yes: 642; No: 127
3. To Revise the BOD Social Principles ¶ 164. V. THE POLITICAL COMMUNITY, C): Yes 370; No: 403
4. To Revise the BOD Social Principles ¶ 160. I. THE NATURAL WORLD, F) Science and Technology: Yes: 330; No: 438.

NOTE: The Conference Secretary will forward the first two petitions to the 2016 General Conference.

Charlie Moore was elected as a lay delegate to General Conference on laity ballot #3.

Jen Ihlo, Chair of Conference Rules Committee, moved the adoption of the Resolution to Amend the Rules of the Session to codify the "Circles of Grace" process for consideration of certain resolutions during Annual Conference. Matthew Sichel, a lay member from Wesley UMC, Hampstead, made a motion to amend the resolution in the following way: line 16 after the word "authorized" to add "by two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference in session;" line 17 after the word "than," insert the word "solely"; to create a new item H., that would read, "The process will move to standard 'debate' time as outlined in ¶L, subject to Section ¶I of this section;" and then to make the current ¶H into a new ¶I. The motion was seconded. Sichel then spoke in favor of his motion, pointing out that there is no way to "perfect" resolutions in the current Circles of Grace process. The Rev. David Simpson raised a Point of Order stating that while the Judicial Council ruled the Circles of Grace process was "legal," it did not "endorse" the process. There were three speeches against and three speeches in favor of the Sichel amendment. The vote was then held over to a later time.

Bishop Matthews then introduced Bishop L. Jonathan Holston, presiding bishop of the South Carolina Conference, who was the guest preacher at both the Service of the Saints and the Ordination Service.

Service of the Saints

Family and friends of the departed saints were gathered at the front of the Grand Ballroom as the familiar opening words of the Call to Worship greeted the congregation: "Dying, Christ destroyed our death. Rising, Christ restored our life." Following the singing of "For All the Saints," Bishop Matthews led the Litany. The Scripture readings came from Revelation 21:1-6 and Matthew 4:12-23. Between the readings was a musical interlude, a piano and violin duet, offered by two members of Eden Korean UMC.

Using Matthew 6:12-23 as his text, Bishop Holston preached on "An Offer You Cannot Refuse." He said that those we remembered during the service had given themselves to God and to ministry in ways to which we pay homage. "Your loved ones' lives are calling you to follow Christ," the bishop said. "When Jesus called his disciples, he made them an offer they could not refuse. We're here today because your loved ones accepted that call." He told those present that we've come to be the people of God and that "If God could use fishermen, God can use you." In closing, Bishop Holston reminded us that we are children of the King and that we should never forget who we are and whose we are.

Conference Secretary, the Rev. Mary Jo Sims, then read the names of the bishops who had died during the previous year. We remembered with thanksgiving and in celebration the following:

Bishop Reuben Job Bishop Martin D. McLee Bishop Hermann L. Sticher

After a quiet musical interlude of “Come and Fill Our Hearts (Confitemini Domino),” Sims read the names of the clergy who had died during the last year:

Rev. Daniel Andrews	Rev. Lea Elisabeth Austen
Pastor Merle Barmoy	Rev. Ralph Barrett
Pastor Ronald Brown	Rev. Elizabeth Pate Smith Carlson
Rev. Ronald Carr	Rev. Dr. John H. Coursey
Pastor Erma Dyson	Rev. Charles Donophan
Rev. Paul L. Grant	Rev. Dr. Andrew Leigh Gunn
Pastor James Harrison	Rev. Phillip Kemper
Pastor Howard Kent	Rev. Ira Clay Keperling
Pastor Gil Lockwood	Rev. Lewis McDonald
Rev. Dr. Buddy Rogers Pipes	Rev. William E. Polk, Jr.
Rev. Ramon Frederick “Ra” Reno	Pastor Holly Elaine Slauch
Pastor Lewis Smith	Rev. William Bell Spitzer
Rev. Dr. Paulette Stevens	Pastor Marion Rochelle Suggs
Rev. Carroll G. Warner Jr.	Rev. Gerald Weiss
Rev. Lewis Wise	Rev. John Evans Wright
Rev. Dr. L. Carroll Yingling Jr.

In similar fashion, Sims read the names of clergy spouses who had passed on since the last Conference session:

Frank Conaway Sr.	Zelah Hall Conley	Janet Cox
Maria DeSilva	Dr. Mary Alice Douty Edwards	Diane Gray
Mildred Harris	Alice Knight	Alice Veselka Gibson Laeffler
JoAnn Leslie	Constance Millian	Louise Phelps
Judith Ann Rife	Joan Cobb Sampsel	Margaret Sampson
Belinda Womack	Nettie Wright

Also with thanksgiving and in celebration, Sims read the names of lay members of Annual Conference who had died during the year:

Manila H. Boyd	Otis Lee Hayes	Barbara K. Hunt
Audrey Elva Kathleen King	Dr. Joyce I. Jennings	Frederick J. Laney
Louis Lennard London

Sims also made special mention of Dr. Martin Salia.

As Sims read the names, family members or district superintendents came forward and lit candles in memory of the departed saints. Others within the congregation stood in memory as Sims read each name. At the close, Sims said that at one time or another we have all come through seasons of grief or bereavement. She invited those who had experienced such a time during the past year to stand while we observed a moment of silent remembrance.

The following persons, who have recently entered into eternal rest, will be honored and remembered at the 232nd Annual Conference:

Rev. Betty Roche	Pastor Lester W. Hall	Pastor Walter Leonard Hill
Pastor Carroll Brown	Rev. David C. Casey	Betty Agnes Jett
Ruth Dion

Bishop Matthews then offered a closing word of prayer, Bishop Holston gave the Blessing with Dismissal, and the congregation sang the Closing Hymn, “Soon, and Very Soon.”

Fifth Plenary Session

Friday, May 29, 2015 | 2:00 p.m.

Bishop Matthews reconvened the Conference and addressed those gathered. “Who knew,” he said, “that an order of the day would provide an opportunity for us to dare to believe?” During the lunch break, the bishop, Ms. Ihlo and Mr. Sichel had met. It became a time of Holy Conferencing, the bishop said. Then Ihlo and Sichel came to the podium; Sichel withdrew his amendment and Ihlo withdrew the resolution to amend the Rules of the Session to codify the Circles of Grace. “By mid-fall,” Ihlo said, “we commit to having a working resolution on the Circles of Grace and we’ll post that on the BWC website. Hopefully by Jan. 15th, we will have a resolution on the Circles of Grace that embodies the spirit of the Circles process but addresses the concern about perfecting the resolutions.” Afterwards, Ihlo and Sichel received a standing ovation. The bishop said that indicated “there’s no objection to the withdrawals.”

The laity then resumed their balloting for General Conference delegates. There was no one elected on Laity Ballot #4. Rev. Joe Daniels was elected on Clergy Ballot #4.

Conference Director of Connectional Ministries, Sandy Ferguson, greeted the assembly. With the assistance of Donovan Parris, president of the Conference Council of Youth Ministries, and Asher and Annika Rudolph from the North Carroll Cooperative Parish, Ms. Ferguson led us through some of the many ways in which there has been a dramatic expansion in connectional ministries these past three years.

Ms. Ferguson introduced Marcus McKinney, a junior at Rust College. He expressed his gratitude for the assistance of The Black College Fund and the Conference’s payment of its full apportionment to support the fund.

Bishop Matthews and Ms. Ferguson then presented the Denman Evangelism Award to the Rev. Dae Sung Park, pastor of the Korean faith community at Bethany UMC in Ellicott City. In presenting the award, Ms. Ferguson said that Rev. Park dares “to believe in a global church and a world-wide community with Christ at its heart.” Ron Deter, member of New Covenant UMC in Cumberland, was unable to be present to receive his award.

Illustrating that we believe all people are beloved children of God and play an important part in God’s family, those present viewed a video showing the church’s work with those with disabilities. Rev. Rod Miller, chair of the Conference Commission on Religion and Race, said the commission would be focusing on offering workshops on Intercultural Competency and Intercultural Communication in the coming year as a way of addressing the question: How can we build better pathways of acceptance and understanding across cultural differences?

Ramon Jackson, a member of the Conference Council on Young Adults, said that “It is time for the voice of Jesus to once again be heard from the same age group of people that represent the time his greatest ministry was executed.” Cheryl Cook, Associate Director of Young Adult and Campus Ministry, said that there is a movement in this Conference of young adults who are passionate about social justice, who want to be involved at every level from the local church to our conference boards and agencies to the global work of The UMC from Africa to Korea. “These young adults come with voices ready to be heard and hands ready to work.”

The Rev. Sonia King reported about the Healing Communities training being offered to prepare churches to receive those returning from incarceration. Becki Price then presented a video about ROCK, the Conference’s annual youth gathering in Ocean City.

Cindy Brown, director of programs at Otterbein UMC in Hagerstown, told about the Bikes for the World Program. Donated bicycles make a difference in the lives of many in the world’s developing countries.

At the conclusion of the report, Director Ferguson challenged us: “This world, this day, offer opportunities for ministry, mission and spiritual growth that are simply not to be missed. We must dare to dream. Dare to believe. Dare to act. With God's grace, let us begin."

Christie Latona and members of the Conference Communications staff told how we could access and use the new Conference Toolbox found on the Conference website.

The Rev. Tony Love, Director of Vibrant Communities, shared the several ways his office has experienced a season of discovery and discernment, a time of holding conversations and making connections. These included "Days on the Districts;" discussions with the Cabinet and travel to the General Board of Discipleship (GBD) to learn more about best practices for church development in new settings and revitalization of existing churches; and participation in seminars at the School of Congregational Development and through the General Board of Discipleship.

The laity then resumed its voting. Cynthia Taylor was elected on Laity Ballot #5. Tom Starnes withdrew his name from the list of Lay Candidates. There was no election on Clergy Ballot #5.

Those who chair and coordinate our Conference Global partnerships came to the stage. The Rev. Edgardo Rivera, superintendent for the Frederick District, introduced the Methodist Bishop of Puerto Rico, Obispo Rafel Moreno Rivas, who greeted us. The bishop's assistant, Jannette Graulau, translated for him. Symbolic of the strengthening of the new partnership between our two conferences, they presented Bishop Matthews with gifts. Then the Rev. Leo Rodriguez, coordinator of Hispanic & Latino Ministries and pastor of Salem-Baltimore Hispanic UMC, invited members from his congregation to share a time of singing and dancing.

Bishop Seung Chul An of the Korean Methodist Church also greeted us. The Rev. JW Park served as translator. Later this summer, several of the Conference young clergy will visit Korea.

The Rev. Joe Daniels updated us on our partnership with Zimbabwe, which began in 1997. Some of our pastors will again help to provide leadership for their Pastors' School this summer.

The Rev. David Simpson, coordinator of Global Initiatives, reported on the progress of the Imagine No Malaria Campaign.

Sixth Plenary Session

Friday, May 29, 2015 | 7:00 p.m.

There was no election on Laity Ballot #6. The Revs. Charlie Parker and Cynthia Moore-Koikoi were elected on Clergy Ballot #6.

Those assembled then entered into a time of prayer and reflection as we participated in A Service of Repentance, led by members of the Conference Committee on Native American Ministries. Invoking the Great Spirit, Olivia Schwartz led us in prayer. Schwartz reminded the congregation that the 2012 General Conference called for each Annual Conference to conduct an Act of Repentance within the quadrennium as a demonstration of reconciliation between indigenous people and The United Methodist Church. She asked, "But how do you repent when you have no understanding of what is wrong? ... We cannot begin to heal until we listen to those that have been wronged. Healing does not begin with agreement, but with acknowledgment." After prayer and the reading of Scripture, a worship leader stated, "We are hurt. We want healing, not a program. We want reconciliation, not apology. We want relationship and restoration; we want to be one in, and with, the body." At the close of the service, ushers passed out stones to everyone present. Folks gathered in circles and joined hands as we prayed to the Great Spirit for strength and wisdom.

The laity elected Tom Price and Ken Ow on Ballot #7. The Rev. JW Park was elected as a Clergy delegate on Clergy Ballot #7.

Baltimore Metro District Superintendent, the Rev. Cynthia Moore-Koikoi, addressed the Conference. She shared some of the ways clergy and laity in our Conference have worked to address the unrest and needs of those in Baltimore City. She introduced several United Methodist laity and clergy who live and/or pastor in the Sandtown-Winchester neighborhood of Baltimore City — Frances Meldrum, and the Revs. Rodney Hudson, Twanda Prioleau, Eric King, and Michael Parker. Each told of their thoughts, feelings, and actions during the past few weeks and how they had met the many demands of ministry during these challenging times. Parker, who was commissioned as a Provisional Elder the next day, delivered a stirring tone poem about how God’s Word can change us.

No one was elected on Clergy Ballot #8. Rev. Alfreda Wiggins prayed for those who had already been elected. The Rev. Bob Brennan then made a motion that we suspend the rules for the upcoming vote only and affirm as properly elected the top vote getter. The Rev. Ginger Gaines-Cirelli was elected on Clergy Ballot #9.

We then turned our attention to paying a well-deserved tribute to Sandy Ferguson, Conference Director of Connectional Ministries. Sandy has ministered with the Conference for 29 years. The Rev. Tony Love served as the emcee for the event. We began by singing Sandy’s favorite hymn, “Amazing Grace.” Gathered with her on the front row of the assembly were her husband, her children and grandchildren and other family members. Both Bishop Peggy Johnson and Bishop Joseph Yeakel sent video tributes lauding Sandy’s work. Vinny DeMarco, president of Marylanders to Prevent Gun Violence, shared how Sandy and he have worked together to address a number of social concerns over the years. The Rev. HiRho Park, Director of Clergy Lifelong Learning for the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, talked about Sandy’s involvement with the global church. Melissa Lauber, Director of Conference Communications, sent word through a colleague about how Sandy’s presence on Conference staff has been a ministry of encouragement and caring. Throughout the tribute, we viewed images of Sandy’s many interactions with others in such places as Zimbabwe and post-Katrina New Orleans. The Katrina Relief Team Choir, which Sandy organized, offered a musical homage to its leader. The tribute was a reflection of what all who have worked with Sandy already knew — her deep passion for social justice and her abiding care and concern for all whom she encounters. In closing, Bishop Matthews shared how much Sandy and her family have meant personally to him and his family. In responding to the many accolades, Sandy was true to form — humbly thankful for the affirmation of others and thoroughly gracious in her remarks. Afterwards, there was an ice cream social and reception for Sandy and her family.

Bible Study

Saturday, May 30, 2015 | 8:00 a.m.

In the first Bible Study Session, the Rev. Laurie Haller instructed us on “water walkers” daring to believe when they risk leaving the boat (Matthew 14:22-36). We began this session by singing stanza 1 of “Stand by Me.” Haller then shared a quote from Andre Gide: “One does not discover new lands without consenting to lose sight of the shore for a very long time,” which framed the message for today’s study—water walkers dare to believe by staying in the boat. She said that we have done a disservice to Peter in the way we have interpreted Jesus’ remark, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?” Jesus isn’t rebuking Peter; Jesus is encouraging Peter. Peter is learning to have faith; he’s learning how to have a new vision. Jesus is mentoring Peter as the fisherman turned disciple navigates the stormy waters of the early church.

Reminding us of the baby elephant syndrome, Haller asked, “Could it be that those who dare to believe are not only those who risk walking on water but also those who risk staying in the boat?” She challenged us to stay in the boat of the church and risk living with our differences. She explained that the nave of a church building is what we often call the sanctuary. Ancient churches were shaped like a cross and if one looks up at the vaulted ceilings, the ceilings look like a boat turned upside down. The word nave comes from the Latin navis, which means “ship.” The Latin word navicula means “boat.” It must have been a mere boat that the early church had in mind.

Haller pointed out that when Peter begins to sink, Jesus catches him and then they both get into the boat. She said that we dare to believe by staying in the boat of the church as much as daring to leave the boat and walk on water.

The church theologically is a boat, not a ship, Haller said. We are not on a cruise ship, we are in a boat. We are not passengers, we are crew. Like a flotilla of boats, The United Methodist Church is a diverse people. In our church, we do not even ask, “Why are you on this boat?” We don’t suggest that some folks should get off the boat and try walking on the water of another denomination. We don’t tell people they’re not welcome for some particular reason. That is not part of our theological heritage. We are determined to stick together, to dare to believe, to keep talking and honoring differences, to seek reconciliation, and to unite around our common call to make disciples of Jesus Christ. The study concluded with the singing of the Navy hymn, “Eternal Father, Strong to Save.”

Seventh Plenary Session

Saturday, May 30, 2015 | 9:00 a.m.

After the Bible Study, we resumed balloting. Having completed the voting for the 2016 General Conference, we turned our attention to electing delegates to the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The bishop explained that the first two elected would also serve as alternates to General Conference. The Rev. Carletta Allen made a motion that we see only the clergy names of those receiving 10 votes or more. It passed. The Revs. Conrad Link and Joan Carter-Rimbach were elected on NEJ Clergy Ballot #1. On NEJ Laity Ballot #1, Melissa Lauber and Kelly Robier were elected. On NEJ Clergy Ballot #2, the Revs. Edgardo Rivera and Evan Young were elected. NEJ Laity Ballot #2 resulted in the election of Chris Schlieckert and Jordan Andrian. There was no election from NEJ Clergy Ballot #3. Sherie Koob was elected on NEJ Laity Ballot #3. The Rev. Sam Marullo made a motion “to suspend the rules that require majority vote for election. Instead election is by priority of votes received for jurisdictional delegates.” The motion passed. The Clergy elected the Revs. Sarah Schlieckert and Tony Love on NEJ Clergy Ballot #4. Sarah Ford was elected on NEJ Laity Ballot #4. When NEJ Clergy Ballot #1 for Alternates was cast and counted, the Revs. Jason Jordan-Griffin, Mary Kay Totty, and Melissa Rudolph had been elected. Likewise, NEJ Laity Ballot #1 for Alternates resulted in the election of three: Mittie Quinn, Richard Wilson, and Christie Latona.

Conference Lay Leader Delores Martin gave her report. She introduced the district lay leaders who were present on the stage with her.

She challenged us to “dare to do things differently.” If we don’t dare to believe in ourselves, Martin said, who else will? She told us that dreams come true for those who dare to believe in themselves. “It is never too late to begin living your own dream,” Martin concluded. “Start right now by believing. Dare to believe! Dare to dream!”

When voting continued, first with NEJ Clergy Ballot for Alternates #2 and then with NEJ Laity Ballot for Alternates #2, there were no elections. Both Chett Pritchett and Ann Brown Birkel removed their names from the List of Lay Candidates.

The Rev. JW Park, dean of the Cabinet and Central Maryland district superintendent, gave the District Superintendents’ Report. All over the Conference region our congregations serve God and their communities in remarkable ways.

In the Baltimore Suburban District, Fallston and Mount Zion UMCs educated their congregations about ways to end human trafficking. Calvary-Centennial Cooperative Parish’s Celebrate Recovery Program and Second Street and Hope ministry touch the lives of the addicted and homeless in the Frederick District. In Washington East, churches formed partnerships with veterans around mental health concerns. Cumberland-Hagerstown District folks took God’s love into the five Maryland prisons in the region.

Eleven downtown and eastern Montgomery County churches in Greater Washington came together to pack 128,000 meals for Stop Hunger Now. The UMM of Calvary UMC in the Annapolis District purchased portable showers to assist Arundel House of Hope so that churches without permanent shower facilities can now house the homeless during the winter. And, in the Baltimore Metropolitan District, laity and clergy from nearly a dozen churches honed their urban ministry skills through quarterly learning sessions with Wesley professors. In Central Maryland, Epworth UMC in Gaithersburg partnered with the community to provide a Youth Summit where youth and police used dialogue circles to discern ways to continue conversation.

Park also reported that the groundwork will soon be laid in each district for a missional emphasis that addresses multi-culturalism, racism, and “other ills that rob people of their dignity and wholeness.” The Cabinet sees the need for mercy response in the city, for cultural awareness and sensitivity, for advocacy, and for long term “justice response.” Park ended by telling us that God is not yet finished with us.

Conference Secretary, the Rev. Mary Jo Sims, then made a motion in accordance with our Conference Rules ¶ 5410.2j that the next ballot be the last ballot and that those receiving the highest number be elected in order according to the number elected. The motion was seconded and passed. On Final Clergy Ballot for NEJ Alternates, the Rev. Marlon Tilghman was elected. On the Final Laity Ballot for NEJ Alternates, Matthew Sichel was elected. Bishop Matthews then called the entire Delegation to the stage. Bishop Holston prayed for them.

Secretary Sims then called approval of the following motion to adjourn:

“I move that the 231st annual session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference stand adjourned following the Ordination Service, today, May 30, 2015, and that all reports printed in the Pre-Conference Booklet, distributed in the Conference Packet, or posted on the Conference website, which are not otherwise acted on, be considered received by the Annual Conference, and that any unfinished business be referred to the appropriate Conference agency for consideration and action, and reported at the next session of the Annual Conference.

“Further, that the 232nd annual session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference be convened at the call of the Presiding Bishop on June 1, 2016, at the Marriot Wardman Park Hotel in Washington, DC.

“Further, that the Conference Discipleship Council, the Conference Connectional Table and the appropriate Boards, Commissions, Councils and Committees be instructed, authorized, and empowered to handle all appropriate business or emergencies between meetings of the Baltimore-Washington Conference according to the Rules and structure of the Conference, provided the requirements of the 2012 edition of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church are not violated in any given situation.”

The Rev. Jackson Day then presented two petitions two General Conference: “To Amend ¶ 806 of the BOD, Regarding Employee Disability Insurance in The United Methodist Church” and “adoption and Placement in The BOR Regarding Non-Discrimination in Disability Compensation.” The assembled Conference approved both. The Rev. Del Hinton then presented the Resolution on Renewable Energy. After some discussion, which included concern over the potential cost to churches that are currently under severe financial constraints, the resolution did not pass.

Service of Appointments

The service opened with Andrea Robinson, of St. Paul UMC in Oxon Hill, singing the Covenant Prayer as the Call to Worship. Rev. Susan Halse led the Opening Litany, followed by the singing of “Oceans (Where Feet May Fail).” After the Opening Prayer, led by Rev. Karen Weaver, Rev. Chris Owens read Isaiah 61:1-4.

In the Call to Ministry, Bishop Matthews described the ministry of all Christians and then asked those gathered, “Will you take up this ministry?” All promised they would. The dean of the Cabinet, the Rev. JW Park, addressed the newly retired pastors, thanking them for their ministries among us. The lay members of churches receiving new pastors and clergy receiving new appointments then stood. They vowed to enter into covenant with one another and to serve as partners in ministry. Afterwards, the congregation joined in the singing of “Bind Us Together.”

Bishop Matthews then recognized those who had recently completed their studies and have now received licenses to preach. The district superintendents and district lay leaders gathered with Bishop Matthews on the stage. Rev. Park affirmed that all appointments were correct as published. Asking those who serve as pastoral hires or under appointment to stand, Bishop Matthews prayed on their behalf. He then asked them if they accepted their appointed places of service to which they resoundingly answered, “We do!” The laity then promised to accept and support those now standing before them. After the bishop’s blessing, the Rev. Mark Derby led the closing litany. The service concluded with the singing of “The Spirit Sends Us Forth to Serve” and a benediction from Bishop Matthews.

Ordination

Saturday, May 30, 2015 | 2:00 p.m.

Bishops, the Conference lay leader, clergy, and candidates for commissioning and ordination processed in to the singing of “O for a Thousand Tongues.” Ordinand Sheridan Allmond led the Call to Worship and Michael Cantley led the Opening Prayer. Conference Lay Leader Delores Martin; Revs. Charlie Parker and Ianther Mills, chair and vice chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry; and Revs. Steven Robison and Stacey Cole-Wilson, registrars for Full and Provisional Membership; presented the candidates for commissioning and ordination:

- For Commissioning as a Deacon: Enger Muteteke and Leo Yates;
- For Commissioning as an Elder: Giovanni Arroyo, Andre Briscoe, Michael Cantley, Sherri Comer-Cox, Lemuel Dominguez, Kyle Durbin, Elizabeth LaMaster, Laura Norvell, Michael Parker, Jessica Statesman, Dawn Stewart, Carissa Surber, and Beth Williams;
- For Ordination as a Deacon: Angela Mary Maves; and
- For Ordination as an Elder: Sheridan Barclift Allmond, Kathy Lynn Altman, Cynthia Marie Caldwell, Andrew Scott Greenwood, Elizabeth Hiatt Jackson, Dana Lyn Werts, and George Winkfield.

Also presented were those whose orders as Elders were being recognized: Johnsie Whitfield Cogman, and Meredith Anne Wilkens-Arnold. Bishop Matthews conducted the general examination of the candidates.

The Rev. Kathy Altman read the Gospel lesson, Matthew 14:22-36, followed by Giovanni Arroyo’s reading of the epistle lesson, Romans 12:9-21. Bishop Holston gave the message. He said that he has come to understand that following God’s call is not always easy. That was certainly true for the Apostle Paul. But instead of fighting against those who seemed to distrust his ministry, Paul stayed focused on the right things and offered a message of humility, patience, and love. Answering the question posed in the lyrics of Tina Turner’s well known song, “What’s Love Got to Do with It?” Bishop Holston assured us, “Everything!” He told those gathered to love from the center of who you are and don’t quit in hard times. He challenged those present to discover beauty in everyone and “to get the best of evil by doing good.”

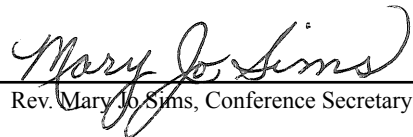

The bishops and others laid hands on each candidate to be commissioned as family and friends stood in silent prayer. One of the bishops prayed over each candidate invoking the Holy Spirit to be poured out upon them and for them to be sent to proclaim the Good News, to announce the reign of God, and to equip the church for ministry.

Bishop Matthews then examined, in turn, the Deacon and Elder candidates for ordination. He extended hands over each as he or she was ordained. Each candidate was also draped with a stole particular to his/her Order. Sponsors, district superintendents, and the other bishops also prayed with each candidate. The bishop likewise presented those whose orders were being recognized. Families and friends stood in silent prayer as each candidate was ordained or recognized.

At the end of the service, Bishop Matthews issued an invitation to those laity in the congregation who have heard God’s call to ordained ministry and desired to come forward in response. After the singing of “The Summons,” Rev. Cogman led the Closing Prayer, Angela Maves and Leo Yates offered the Dismissal with Blessing, and Bishop Holston gave the Benediction. The Clergy then processed out of the Ballroom, through the hotel, and into the streets of Baltimore to show our love and solidarity for the city’s people.

IV. THE BUSINESS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS

The Minutes of the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference held in Baltimore, MD, from May 28, 2015, through May 30, 2015, Bishop Marcus Matthews, Presiding.

Date When Organized: 1784; Number of this Session: 231st.

PART I ORGANIZATION AND GENERAL BUSINESS

17. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (§§604.4, 605.6)?

Response from the Dean and the Cabinet.

JW Park

We support and work closely with all of our clergy and congregations to assist them to become like Christ as they call, equip, send and support spiritual leaders to make disciples for the transformation of the world. Our goal, as John Wesley challenged each of us, is to move closer to perfection in our personal and professional lives all for the sake of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Through ordination, commissioning, and credentialing at various levels, the church affirms and continues the apostolic ministry through persons empowered by the Holy Spirit. Those who have sought to follow in the path of this tradition, especially as clergy in The United Methodist Church, have covenanted with each other to hold one another accountable to a lifetime of commitment and discipline.

The Bishop and Appointive Cabinet have carefully reviewed the character and conduct of the clergy of the Baltimore-Washington Conference of The United Methodist Church in accordance with paragraphs 604.4 and 605.6 of the 2012 Book of Discipline and found that the majority of clergy are faithful in fulfilling their calling while at the same time exemplifying models of Christian character. Meanwhile, there are some clergy that the Bishop and Cabinet are working with on issues of character and effectiveness in accordance with the provisions of The Book of Discipline.

VI. REPORTS

LEADERSHIP

Discipleship Council (CC)

“In the Baltimore Washington Conference, we are becoming more fully alive in Christ and making a difference in a diverse and ever-changing world.” (Vision of the BWC)

The purpose of the Discipleship Council is to: “(a) function, as necessary, on behalf of the Annual Conference in between sessions; (b) ensure the Conference resources align to our vision, missions and critical issues; and (c) discern, develop, review and evaluate the strategic direction of the Conference toward its vision and goals.”

In 2014, we joined with the Rules Committee in offering a resolution to clarify the membership of the BWC Connectional Table.

In 2013, the Ministry Partner Policy Task Force was convened by the Discipleship Council at the recommendation of the Council on Finance and Administration to the 2013 Annual Conference. The task force was to develop “guidance related to the governance of relationships between the BWC and other independent entities.” From the work of the task force, the Discipleship Council offered for approval by the 2014 Annual Conference a “Policy regarding agreements between the Baltimore-Washington Conference and entities seeking to establish ministry.”

With Annual Conference approval of the policy, the Discipleship Council established the Ministry Relationship Partnership Committee (MROC) in 2014 to create guidelines for its work which includes: 1) establishing the application process; 2) reviewing and evaluating the applications; 3) recommending organizations for approval by the Annual Conference; and 4) monitoring ministry relationship agreements. Critical aspects of their work include ensuring there are no conflicts of interests and that there is complete transparency in all aspects of the process. Several organizations have indicated a desire to become ministry partners.

In 2014, the Discipleship Council initiated the Global Partnership Committee. Membership includes representatives from the Discipleship Council and the Council on Finance and Administration and coordinators of the four global partnerships. In addition to the Assistant to the Bishop and the Director of Connectional Ministries, the Global Partnership Coordinator will provide staff support to the committee. Committee member objectives include providing “oversight to the establishment, implementation, and continuation of existing and developing global partnerships” and providing support and resources to the Global Partnership Coordinator in fulfillment of his responsibilities.

Discipleship Council members serve on the Rules Committee, MROC, and the Global Partnership Committee.

In 2015 we will be surveying similar-sized Annual Conferences to determine:

- How the current composition of our Discipleship Council might be changed to be more representative of our conference leadership.
- The purpose, roles and responsibilities of similar leadership bodies.

We thank Sandy Ferguson and Deborah Trowbridge for the support they provide to us throughout the year.

Cynthia Taylor, Chair

Board of Laity

“Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to exercise them accordingly.” - Romans 12:6

Members of the Board of Laity strive to do just that, as they carry out the mission of the Board and other entities in the Conference. They continually equip, empower and inspire others to become enthusiastic in helping to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The Board is tasked with some very important responsibilities, such as to foster an awareness of the role of the laity; to develop and promote programs for the life and work of the laity; to promote stewardship activities and programs; and to promote leadership activities and programs.

In maintaining our mission, we continue to enable the laity to have full and equal partnerships with clergy and other boards and agencies within the Conference.

We make provisions for training for all lay members. Most importantly, we promote the observance of Laity Sunday, scheduled each year for the third Sunday in October.

We provide organization, direction and support for the development of leaders within our congregations and lay organizations.

Does GOD sometimes seem silent to you?

I doubt there are very many people here who haven't had a dark night experience when God didn't seem to hear your desperate cry for help or give you answers. Worse than that it seemed God broke contact with you and you felt dreadfully alone. Dare to believe, this is not at all true. God never left you and will never leave you.

I can personally testify to this. In August 2014, I had a moment that I considered a “dark night experience.” I was away from home and I began to experience a feeling that I couldn't explain. Long story short, I was having a stroke. I dared to believe that God would never leave me. I had the audacity of hope that as long as I believed that God was with me I would be alright. The stroke left me without the use of my right arm. I felt devastated, like how will I drive? How will I do the things I enjoyed doing independently? I decided to listen to God's voice that said, “have no fear, I will never leave you.” In three months, I regained use of my arm, I was released from my weekly therapy sessions and, the best thing, I am driving again! Dare to believe that God is with you. I did and I still do.

You've heard the saying, “You become what you think about most.” If you want to become more like Jesus, you have to fill your thoughts with him. Hebrews 12:3 says, “Think about Jesus' example. He held on while wicked people were doing evil things to him. So do not get tired and stop trying.” Dare to believe this is true.

The reason why most people are ineffective in working with others both personally and in the church is that they've never learned how to fight the battle of their own minds.

If you want to learn to manage your mind, you have to believe in positive thoughts always. That may not be easy, because there are things that keep you from fulfilling all your good intentions of changing your life, such as always doing things the same bad way and getting the same bad results. Dare to do things differently.

Dare to Believe in yourself! If you don't DARE yourself to BELIEVE in YOURSELF who else will? Dare to dream. Dreams do come true for those who dare to believe in themselves.

Dare to dream as Peggy Ireland did in the Washington East District.

A number of churches in their region are participating in Missional Learning groups, using the book “Missional Renaissance” as a study guide. It is written by Reggie McNeal, who also worked with them for their Leadership Days in March. Many members did the study as a congregation. They have begun shifting their focus from inside the buildings to outside; from program building to people building; and from church building to Kingdom building. She said the action plans in the churches working hand in hand with the clergy include developing disciples of Jesus Christ inside and outside the walls of the churches through study, through relationship (including coaching), and through looking at how they are using all the resources God has given them. This is an exciting time in the life of the Washington East District and in God’s church. She dared to believe she could work with others toward moving in a different direction.

Ophelia Brown-Carter dared to dream by sending this correspondence to the laity:

“Greetings My Brothers and Sisters in Christ! With Jesus joy I greet you and sincerely hope you are enjoying this glorious and festive time of the year. We have come to the end of 2014 and I want to thank you for your commitment and service to the Lord. It has been a great year.

Thanks to you, a successful service project of collecting Care Kits for our Un-housed Neighbors at the 2014 Annual Conference Session took place. And thanks to the churches that helped assemble and distribute them.

My heart is overjoyed with the relationships that were established in the Baltimore Metropolitan District among laity, clergy and each other. Many relationships began with the Lenten Morning Prayer Line (that ministry continues today) and the recent Advent Prayer Line led by faithful clergy and lay servants.

District quarterly meetings were well attended. We were blessed to have the presence and support of District Superintendent, the Rev. Cynthia Moore-Koikoi, and our ministry resource specialist, Darlynn McCrae. The Baltimore Metropolitan District UMW and UMM presidents also made presentations.

Thanks to all the laity that have supported Manna House; your help is greatly appreciated. To the faithful Keswick Team, you are invaluable to the residents and staff at Keswick Multi-Care Facility.

We are blessed to have a conference that makes available to laity opportunities to learn and strengthen our ministries.

I have so much gratitude for the people who have loved me and stood beside me over the years. I have a deep appreciation and hope fills my heart when I think of each of you. Thank you for supporting me as I continue to serve as your Conference Lay Leader. Your prayers and well wishes have strengthened and blessed me immensely, as we have been on this journey together. All of my dreams are continually coming true. Dreams do come true for those who dare to believe in themselves.

To my fellow laity, you set the standard for how people will treat and regard you, by how you treat and regard yourself. I pray each of you will believe in yourselves, because life wants to give you the blessings you deserve. It is never too late to begin living your own dream. Start right now by believing.

Dare to believe! Dare to dream!

Delores Martin, Baltimore-Washington Conference Lay Leader

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIESBoard of Church and Society (CC)

The vision of the Baltimore-Washington Conference Board of Church and Society is “that all conference local congregations be connected with the community in which they serve and be involved in pro-active discipleship through justice ministries and advocacy for the transformation of the world.” Its mission is “to equip and support local congregations to be involved in pro-active justice ministries through education and advocacy.”

Throughout the year, the Board has supported the former Conference Advocacy Consultant, Beth Reilly, in her work in Annapolis and the multiplicity of ways has spoken to a variety of issues that were of concern to the Conference. Beth stepped away from her position as Advocacy Consultant to pursue other ventures. We are very grateful for her leadership and the work she did to equip the Board. We are blessed to have the Rev. Kevin Slayton, Lead Pastor of New Waverly in Baltimore, take on the position. He brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to the area, and we are blessed to have his gifts at the table.

As in previous years, the Board has continued to partner with United Methodist Women to sponsor the Maryland Legislative Advocacy Day in Annapolis.

Future work of the Board consists of planning educational opportunities for local churches around various social issues as well as continued partnerships with the United Methodist Women, Maryland Interfaith Legislative Committee and surrounding annual conferences.

We thank Sherie Koob and Sandra Ferguson for the leadership and support they provided the board over the past several years. We appreciate the firm foundation they have created for our board and look forward to building on that foundation as we move forward.

As in prior years, the board encourages all congregations to obtain and study the Social Principles, participate in the Peace with Justice Sunday offering, be engaged in social justice ministries and provide, foster and encourage educational opportunities to focus on local, state, national and global issues.

Rev. Michael A. Parker, II, Chair
Sandra Ferguson, Staff

Board of Global Ministries (CC)

The Baltimore-Washington Conference continues to live out the John Wesley belief that “the world is our parish.” The Conference continues to live compassion through significant contributions toward designated giving and missionary support.

We thank and congratulate churches of the Baltimore-Washington Conference for continuing to support missionaries globally and responding to disasters.

We thank Sharon Leatherman and Jane Grays, key resource people in support of our partnerships and increasing missionary itineration on the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

As a team, we thank Sandy Ferguson and the Rev. Andrea King for helping champion global ministries as way of making disciples and building God’s kingdom.

Rev. Cecil Mudede, Chair

Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

The Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry exists to support the Conference’s Campus Ministry program and its pastors as they seek to impact the lives of students at a pivotal point in their lives. In addition, the Board strives to educate churches and their members on the importance of supporting Campus Ministry, both at schools with paid Campus Ministers and at schools that do not have a Campus Minister but are part of the local community.

The Board hosted a day-long training in September facilitated by Beth Ludlum, Director of Collegiate Ministries for the General Board of Higher Education Ministry. Campus Ministers, conference Board members, and members from each local Campus Ministry/Wesley Foundation Board were invited to participate. The training centered on the purpose of both the conference and local boards and how they can further integrate, as well as seeking ways to further tell the Campus Ministry story.

The Campus Ministry team consists of the campus ministers and their ministries at four campuses in our Conference: American University (AU), the United Campus Ministry at Frostburg State University (UCM), the Wesley Foundation at Howard University (HU), and the Wesley Foundation at the University of Maryland College Park (UMD).

I. WORSHIP

At AU, a student-led worship committee in consultation with the chaplain and the music director continues to work on planning worship services based on the sermon outlines and themes. Students gather for Sunday worship services at 7 p.m. and a weekly prayer, healing, and Communion worship service Thursday at 11 p.m. Additional worship services were held during Lent and Holy Week, and a Baccalaureate Service was held for the 10th year as part of the university's commencement schedule.

The HU campus ministry students attend and participate in Sunday worship services and a mid-week service known as "Wednesday Night Live" where the campus minister serves as a co-coordinator. The UCM at Frostburg State continues to have weekly worship experiences — "Spiritual Study Break" in addition to Campuswide Inter-faith and Ecumenical worship events offered on campus. A new dance ministry team, Divine Movement and Praise, has formed and continues to develop. At UMD, worship services are held on Wednesday night. Students engage in spiritual practices of study where reflections on Scripture and experience give students an opportunity to connect individual stories to God's story.

II. STUDY

For the 2013-2014 school year at AU, three different Bible studies were offered in addition to panel discussions. The student-led UM Women and UM Men groups provided a safe space for reflection and fellowship. The campus ministry continues to maintain a strong connection with the school's Interfaith Council.

UCM continues to offer short-term Bible studies to students as well as a book study for faculty and staff members every semester.

The HU Campus Ministry holds Bible study on Monday nights and has grown from a group of four participants to an average of 20 weekly. They also partner with the Tuesday Night TNT Bible study. At UMD, students engage in spiritual practices of study on Wednesday nights where reflections on Scripture and experience give opportunity to connect individual stories to God's story.

III. LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

AU continues to offer an Adopt-a-Freshman program pairing incoming freshmen with an upperclassman who shares interests and backgrounds. Pastoral interns continue to lead a vocational discernment study. In addition, AU continues to work toward the creation of a Center for Religion and Civic Life.

The Campus Minister at Frostburg State continues to provide pastoral care and discernment for students at staff in addition to a leadership retreat that is scheduled for May 2015.

Howard University Campus Ministry provides vocational discernment, counseling and coaching to various students. This year, four students who have expressed a call to ministry were able to attend the African American Pastor Convocation.

Student officers at UMD design and implement various events throughout the year. Through fellowship, pastoral care and worship, the Wesley Foundation at UMD offers students opportunities for discernment of meaningful decisions during their time at UMD.

IV. SERVICE & JUSTICE

One service and justice highlight at AU in the ongoing ministry called “The Other Six Days.” The aim of the program is to connect particular Sunday worship with opportunities for education and service. In addition, AU had two social justice coordinators who worked with the social justice committee to discuss issues of social justice in the AU community and form ways to respond.

UMD students participated in service by joining with communities on campus and off. They participated in a day of service for Veterans on the Rise and co-planned an event with the Episcopal and Lutheran campus ministries to provide ice cream to the UMD marching band. In addition, a day-long gathering over winter break took place for an environmental day of service.

UCM sponsored forums on a variety of social justice issues including this year’s Anti-Racism Forum. They hope to offer monthly service opportunities in addition to their annual mission trip for students and faculty.

HU participated in a campus-wide day of service as well as worked with local churches such as Mt. Vernon in Deanwood. The ministry has also provided support by providing food, toiletries, and housing assistance to students in need.

V. FELLOWSHIP

AU offers many opportunities for weekly fellowship, such as the United Methodist Student Association meetings, Tuesday (or Wednesdays in the spring) in the Tavern for lunch, Free Food Fridays sponsored by Metropolitan UMC, and a time of fellowship after Sunday services in the Kay Lounge with refreshments. Additional fellowship opportunities include occasional dinners after worship, a monthly movie night, fall and spring retreats, and a Murder-Mystery Party.

UMC Frostburg has social events they call “Thank God It’s Fun Friday” as an alternative to the traditional college party culture. They also work with the International Students office to offer special events and hospitality to the visiting professors and students from various countries. Outings off campus are offered twice a semester.

Students at UMD held fellowship events such as dinners, a hiking trip, a hayride and bonfire, a trip to see the DC monuments, Thanksgiving gathering, and a Christmas cookie baking party, as well as their weekly Meal and Game night.

VI. OUTREACH

At AU students gain access to weekly sermons, can receive the weekly “E-Pistle,” and get information about campus ministry, upcoming worship times, the weekly lectionary readings via the website, Facebook and Twitter. AU participated in the Methodist Heritage Week by hosting the annual Feed the Quad which is the annual free picnic and cookout for the AU Campus, having a demonstration of John Wesley’s presentation, and tenting on the quad offering games, crafts, and hospitality. Other outreach activities were tabling at summer orientation, Club Fair, and establishing a study lounge in the chapel during finals including the annual “Spiritual Therapy through Chocolate”. The campus ministry at UMC Frostburg State is developing a new location on campus that will provide new opportunities for visibility and hospitality.

Howard University campus ministry provided over 600 Exam Buster bags during the fall exam week. They also sponsored Exam Buster Week where students were provided with rooms on campus dedicated to safe and healthy ways of dealing with stress. The rooms had food, games, and massage therapists.

The Wesley Foundation at UMD has a strong presence online through a website and active Facebook page. Board members joined with the campus minister and students to host a welcome cookout at the beginning of the semester, and local churches participated in handing out frequently forgotten items to freshmen moving into the dorms.

About our Campus Ministries

American University

Campus Minister: Rev. Mark Schaefer

Phone: 202-885-3304

Website: www.aumethodists.org

Located in the Kay Spiritual Life Center of American University, the campus ministry works closely in partnership with the United Methodist Student Association in providing ministries of worship, study, service, justice and hospitality to the AU campus.

Howard University

Campus Minister: Rev. Herbert Brisbon

Phone: 202-568-0369

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry office is located in the Howard Center. The campus ministry works in close partnership with the Howard University Dean of Chapel's office to lend support to all of the religious life organizations and activities on campus. The Wesley Foundation lends support to the Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel's worship and provides ministries of study, service, reconciliation, hospitality and life coaching.

United Campus Ministry at FSU

Campus Minister: Rev. Cynthia Zirlott

Website: <http://www.umdmethodists.org/>

The Wesley Foundation at UMD is located in Memorial Chapel on the main campus and our mission is to build faith, open doors and serve the world.

An Additional Approach:

The Board recognizes that there are many more college campuses within our conference boundaries that cannot be staffed by a paid campus minister. We feel a need to support campus ministry in new and inventive ways in order to reach out and minister to college students. We are working on a pilot program where a local church that is in close proximity to a campus will work to develop relationships with the campus in order to provide opportunities to minister to the students.

Allen Stewart, acting Chair

Cheryl Cook, Associate Director of Young Adult and Campus Ministry

Commission on Archives and History (CC)

The mission of the Conference Commission on Archives & History, as stated by the Book of Discipline (2008 ¶641) is:

- “To collect, preserve, and make accessible the historically significant records of the annual conference and its agencies, including data relating to the origin and history of the conference and its antecedents;

- “To encourage and assist the local churches in preserving their records, compiling their histories and celebrating their heritage;
- “To provide for the permanent safekeeping of the historical records of all abandoned or discontinued churches;
- “To nominate to the General Commission on Archives and History buildings, locations or structures within the annual conference for designation as historic sites or heritage landmarks; and
- “To maintain contact with officially designated historic sites and heritage landmarks in their bounds.”

In carrying out this mission, the Commission works jointly with the General and the Northeastern Jurisdiction Commissions on Archives and History, the United Methodist Historical Society of the Baltimore-Washington Conference, and with the Strawbridge Shrine Association in preservation of the Robert Strawbridge House and associated structures near New Windsor.

This year, we are in a new position in the conference organization, having moved from Stewardship to Discipleship Ministries. This places our commission in the same structure as most other Annual Conference Commissions on Archives & History in the UMC. We thank both Paul Eichelberger and Sandy Ferguson, who takes his place as our Conference Representative, for their help and support in 2014.

At the end of the year, the Rev. Emora Brannan completed his third term as Commission Chair, and Daniel Fisher was elected his successor in that position. Brannan continues as Conference Historian and a part of the Commission (under ¶641.3) and, as President of our Conference Historical Society, will preside at the joint meetings of the Society’s Board and the Commission.

Dan Fisher is completing his second term on the Commission and also represents Old Otterbein Church, one of our conference’s five designated United Methodist Heritage Landmarks (entitled to representation on the Commission under ¶641.1).

Washington Conference Sesquicentennial Commission members and staff were pleased and honored to work with the Committee appointed by Bishop Matthews to organize the banquet celebrating the 150th anniversary of the Washington Conference. Commission members Dorothy Dougherty of Sharp Street Memorial UMC, Baltimore, and Lonise Robinson of Asbury UMC, Washington, along with myself and my associate, Joyce White; were active members of this committee, chaired by the Rev. Antoine Love.

Bishop Forrest Stith of Asbury and Rev. Cary James, Jr. of Sharp Street Memorial were also part of the committee, along with Paul Eichelberger, Sandy Ferguson and Melissa Lauber. The Banquet on October 18 at Martin’s West was a great success, with Bishop Werner Brown (San Francisco Area) as its keynote speaker. We were able to have on hand for viewing (under glass) the handwritten journal of the first Washington Conference from the Conference Archives.

The next day, in a commemorative worship service we were able to present a marker to Sharp Street Memorial UMC, one of four Historic Site designations directly related to Washington Conference history, for which we completed the registration process last year. They are now registered with the General Commission on Archives and History as:

- 492 Georgetown Cluster, Georgetown, NW, Washington, DC
- 493 Morgan College & Christian Center, Baltimore, MD
- 494 Sharp Street Memorial UMC, Baltimore, MD
- 495 Asbury UMC, Washington, DC

The Commission will present the marker to Asbury UMC when the conference Historical Society meets there on June 6, 2015 (see the ‘United Methodist Historical Society’ report). In addition to the Mt. Zion Church and cemetery, also known as the Old Methodist Burying Grounds, the Georgetown Cluster includes the grave of evangelist Lorenzo Dow, Dumbarton Church and the Old Congress Street Methodist Protestant Church (now the Fifth Church of Christ Scientist). Along with Asbury Church, these are the first sites to appear on the register from the District of Columbia.

Other Historic Sites

The registration process was also completed to designate two Historic Sites related to the earliest days of Methodism in this area:

490 Perry Hall Mansion, Perry Hall, MD

491 Robert Strawbridge Cluster, New Windsor, MD

Bishop Matthews was on hand for the presentation of the marker for the latter site (see: ‘Strawbridge Shrine Association’ report.) Among this cluster’s components is the site of the original Strawbridge Log Meetinghouse, the first Methodist house of worship in America. It was built in 1764 and we were pleased to be able to make this designation as part of its 250th anniversary.

The Commission staff is working to place our United Methodist Heritage Landmarks, Historic Sites and Historic Places on our website at www.lovelylanemuseum.com/landmarks.

Korean Connections

One of the surprising joys of working at Lovely Lane is the number of visitors, pilgrims really, that come to us from Korea. What has the “Mother Church of American Methodism” that particularly touches the souls of Korean Methodists?

We have two formal connections to Conferences of the Korean Methodist Church. During the World Methodist Council meeting in Seoul in 2006, the Baltimore-Washington and South Conference first established the partnership which was renewed in 2014; and in 2012, Lovely Lane Museum became a partner with the Appenzeller Noble Memorial Museum in the neighboring Cheon Chung Conference. We received delegations from both of these Annual Conferences in 2014.

On his visit to renew the partnership with the South Conference, Bishop Matthews told their hosts that “because of one man’s willingness to take a leap of faith on behalf of God, we’re here today in South Korea continuing the tradition of our great denomination.” That man was Rev. John Franklin Goucher who, in 1883, met by chance the first Korean diplomatic delegation to the United States on a train as they made their way across America.

With his wife, the former Mary Fisher, he provided the first substantial funds for a Korean Methodist Mission. Though he would not visit Korea until 1907, Goucher would be the guiding hand that directed American resources to the Korean mission at its inception, the same period in which he was building the church now known as Lovely Lane.

This year is the 130th anniversary of the Methodist Mission to Korea and we are happy to take part in the celebrations. Among our many manuscript collections are the papers of Dr. Goucher, described in our Collection Guide as “Documents relating to the life and work of Dr. Goucher, a clergy member of the Conference (1869-1922) who worked toward higher education for women and African-Americans in Baltimore, the establishment of Christian missions and institutions abroad, reunification of the Methodist Churches in the United States, and the preservation of American Methodist history.”

Dr. Goucher is probably best known in this region for Goucher College, which he founded as the Woman’s College of Baltimore in 1885. While we have the majority of his papers in Maryland, another collection is held by the College Library. (Yet another collection of his papers were left to the Missionary Research Library at Union Theological Seminary in New York.)

We are working with the Goucher College Library and with Digital Maryland, a collaborative digitization program of the State Library Resource Center at Baltimore’s Enoch Pratt Free Library, the mission of which is “to facilitate the digitization and digital exhibition of the historical and cultural documents, images, audio and video held by Maryland institutions.”

We are pleased that this year these papers, including the pocket diaries in our collection, will be made available online at www.digitalmaryland.org.

This ready access will facilitate research into Dr. Goucher’s life and work. Among those who have done research in these collections is Dr. Marilyn Southard Warshawski, Historian and Trustee of Goucher College. We are also pleased that her full length biography of Dr. Goucher will be published this year.

Commission on Disability Concerns (CC)

The Conference Commission on Disability Concerns has been active in seeking to raise consciousness in local churches, districts and agencies of the Conference about the gifts and needs of persons with disabilities. To further this end, we are currently sponsoring or planning the following activities:

One of the classes at Mission u in 2014 will be offered again in 2015. Its primary text book is “The Church and People with Disabilities: Awareness, Accessibility and Advocacy,” by Bishop Peggy A. Johnson, a daughter of this Conference. Many churches in the Conference have gotten a great start in examining their buildings and attitudes for signs of welcome and full inclusion of people with physical, cognitive and mental illness challenges. The Commission encourages men, women and youth to take this class at Mission u in the summer of 2015.

The theme of the 2016 Annual Conference will be “Highlighting Disability Ministries throughout the Conference.” Look for our Annual Conference display table to see a video, currently in production, that can be used in your local church to open hearts and minds to this very important ministry for children, youth, adults and seniors with disabilities in your church.

Members of our Commission are glad to visit your local church to meet with persons who would like to consider moving forward with your welcome of persons with disabilities.

Three of our Conference regions have hosted classes in their Leadership Days in the winter and spring of 2015 to open up this important topic to church leaders who would like to be more welcoming to such persons in their local church.

Listen for a report from the Joint Committee on Clergy Medical Leave, a part of the Conference Board of Pensions, which has completed its study, as directed by the 2014 Annual Conference. We thank the Rev. Jackson Day, chair of the Conference Board of Pensions, for seeing that this study was well conducted.

Visit the Baltimore Conference web site and our disabilities web page to get more resources about how to dream and carry out ministries with people with disabilities in your own church.

The Commission continues to encourage churches to celebrate a Disability Awareness Sunday the first Sunday of February or any Sunday more convenient to your church’s calendar. No matter when, JUST DO IT!

To learn more fully the purpose and duties of the Conference Commission on Disability Concerns, see paragraph 653 of the 2012 United Methodist Book of Discipline. Find resources on our web page <http://www.bwcumc.org/ministries/disability> . Contact the Commission chair, the Rev. Nancy J. Webb, 5203 Catalpha Rd., Baltimore, MD, 21214: njwebb@verizon.net or 410-444-7222 for further information or assistance.

Rev. Nancy J. Webb, Chairperson

General Commission on the Status and Role of Women (CC)

The General Commission on the Status and Role of Women advocates for full participation of women in the total life of The United Methodist Church. We're helping the church recognize every person – clergy and lay, women and men, adults and children -- as full and equal parts of God's human family. We believe that a fully engaged and empowered membership is vital to The United Methodist Church's mission "to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Through training, education, research and monitoring, GCSRW:

- Addresses gender discrimination and sexism within church structure;
- Nurtures clergy and lay leaders in the church;
- Raises awareness of women's issues and opportunities;
- Educates church leaders and seminarians on sexual ethics and policies;
- Develops guidelines for inclusive and expansive language;
- Monitors annual conferences for inclusiveness.

In Celebration of our 42nd anniversary and Women's History Month, the Baltimore-Washington Conference's Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) hosted an afternoon seminar on March 29 to explore the challenges and joys serving elderly family and friends.

The 2014 theme was "The Sandwich Generation," for men and women, clergy and laity.

The Rev. Wayne DeHart, retired BWC pastor who now serves as the Director of Church Relations for Asbury Communities, was the guest speaker. "Sandwiched" generation breakout sessions included Traditional: Sandwiched between aging parents who need care while also caring for their own children.

Club: People in their 50s or 60s sandwiched between aging parents, adult children and grandchildren or those in their 30s with young children, aging parents and grandparents.

Open Faced: Anyone involved in elder care.

We came back together to discuss shared findings from the three groups as follows

- Take time to care for yourself;
- Financial issues;
- Time Management;
- Establish reasonable goals.

In April 2014, approximately 7,000 gathered in Louisville, Ky., for the quadrennial UMW Assembly, "Make it Happen." Bishop and Mrs. Marcus Matthews were among the approximately 150 people from the Conference who attended the celebration.

Among the General Commission's many projects, they include:

- An audit of the gender and racial diversity of staff and committee leadership;
- A theological study on inclusive and expansive language;
- Continued progress towards a church where all are safe from harm or harassment.

Committee on Deaf Ministries (CC)

More churches than ever before are engaged in "Deaf Ministry," offering interpreters for part or some of their worship and activities. These people are often volunteers, sometimes students. When professional interpreters are made available, there can still be a degree of separation as Deaf Individuals try to access church in a language not their own. English is not only a foreign language to the Deaf individual, but one which they rarely ever fully acquire. Through the faithful hard work of the Baltimore-Washington Conference, assistance, support, and ministry development is available to these churches.

Christ Deaf Church and Magothy UMC of the Deaf are uniquely Deaf Churches in the sense that ASL is the first language of worship, fellowship, ministry and administration. Services and meetings are offered in American Sign Language, and then interpreted for the ASL impaired. Christ Deaf Church is Deaf people serving as the hands and feet of Christ for other Deaf people, and for the community at large.

Christ UMC of the Deaf in Baltimore has recently become host to an immigrant church of Burmese refugees. Reaching out to the community, Christ Deaf Church has opened its doors for their worship and fellowship. Partnering with Baltimore City Community College to host Refugee Youth Project, this is an after school program where Burmese immigrant middle school students can receive homework help and support in English language learning and assimilation into American culture.

Bringing the Word of God to students at Maryland School for the Deaf in Columbia and Bible study at Foxwell Memorial Apartments is an ongoing ministry for Christ Deaf Church. These residents might not otherwise have access to small group fellowship and Scripture study.

Christ Deaf Church and Deaf Shalom Zone partner with Towson University to bring service learners and interns into the Deaf and DeafBlind Community. Events are hosted where students can engage in Deaf-led activities of service and socialization; students are matched with Deaf individuals to learn more about their struggles, their successes, as well as their language and culture.

The church continues to be in ministry with other organizations such as

- Baltimore Association of the DeafBlind (BADB),
- Baltimore Governors Office of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (ODHH),
- English as a Second Language programs,
- Deaf Camps Inc., Deaf Young Adult Camp, DeafBlind Camp,
- ROCK, Youth Retreat and Rally
- Spiritual Retreat Weekends for Deaf

Magothy UMC of the Deaf was established in 1975 to serve the Pasadena area of Maryland. The church continues its commitment to creative and passionate worship, and active mission participation within our local community and beyond by hosting fundraisers for local and international Deaf missions work. Working cooperatively with Magothy UMC, the Deaf church continues to serve the community through the Door Step Mission, a food distribution program available to local families in need. Magothy Deaf Church also has Soup Fest each January, February and March to raise funds for No More Malaria, DeafBlind Camp and Deaf Kids Camp. Magothy UMC of the Deaf strives to be a positive witness for Jesus Christ not only within the walls of the sanctuary, but also throughout the community and world.

The Deaf Shalom Zone provides direct aid and service, education and advocacy to individuals who identify as Deaf, DeafBlind, or HardofHearing and their families. The food pantry, open during Sunday Fellowship, is able to supplement the food needs of people struggling to access healthy food, but it also provides some pre-work experience for youths and developmentally delayed young adults who are part of the Deaf community. The case manager assists individuals to advocate for their own rights, apply for training and other programs, acquire and navigate technologies that ultimately support greater independence in their daily lives.

DeafBlind Camp of Maryland at West River United Methodist Center was the setting for a wedding celebration between a DeafBlind man and his Hearing bride in June 2014. For many of the guests, it was the first time they had access to the readings and prayers, the exchange of vows, and the ritual associated with a wedding ceremony. Many campers, some themselves married, expressed wonder and awe at the richness and beauty of wedding traditions they had never before been able to understand. Each year, 40 campers ages 18-90 years old come from all over the United State to spend a fun filled week of fellowship, socialization, reunion, and many planned trips and activities. Each camper is assigned a team of guides (titled “support service providers,” or SSPs) for the whole week. Plans are now taking place for next year’s camp at West River June 2015. The theme will be “Bollywood,” and we are looking forward to experiencing the meeting and mixing of Hollywood and Indian culture. This program is an opportunity for the DeafBlind to enjoy a full week out of their year fully able to access the world around them.

The Methodist Campus Ministry at Gallaudet University in Washington, D.C. offers ministry to students, faculty, and staff on the campus of the only liberal arts university in the world for the Deaf. Regular Bible study builds understanding and community while encouraging attendees to be engaged in mission on the campus and in the surrounding community. The Methodist Campus ministry also works with the Office of Campus Ministries to provide ecumenical worship and service opportunities.

Rev. Dr. Sandi Johnson, Lead Pastor, Deaf Ministries

Committee on Native American Ministry (CC)

The Committee on Native American Ministry (CONAM) continued its mission to make disciples for Jesus Christ by: 1) supporting Native American ministry and outreach; 2) promoting awareness of these ministries and of the Native American community residing within the bounds of our annual conference; and 3) developing leadership among the Native community and among those giving leadership to Native American ministry.

The CONAM is very active with the Northeastern Jurisdiction Native American Ministries Committee (NEJNAMC). In 2014, the CONAM of the Baltimore-Washington Conference hosted the Annual Conference of the NEJNAMC (North East Jurisdiction Native American Ministries Committee) at the Baltimore-Washington Conference Center at West River. The conference opened with a greeting from Bishop Marcus Matthews (Washington Episcopal Area), Sandy Ferguson (Director of Connectional Ministries, Baltimore-Washington Conference), and Robert Willasch (CONAM Chair, Baltimore-Washington Conference). Also in attendance was Bishop Peggy Johnson (Philadelphia Episcopal Area), and Christopher Kurien (Director of Connectional Ministries, Eastern Penn.). The conference was a great success with 10 Conferences represented. This gave the CONAMs in the Northeastern Jurisdiction a chance to support and share ideas with the other CONAMs in the NEJ. Also discussed were ways to talk with and support our CONAMs in the Conferences of the Northeastern Jurisdiction on the journey toward the “Act of Repentance” during 2013-2016.

CONAM has two major ministries. One is a prison ministry whose purpose is to let Native American inmates know that we love and care for them and their spiritual life by sending 10 copies of INDIAN LIFE MINISTRIES, a Native American Christian newspaper, which is published bi-monthly. Currently we are sending subscriptions to three prisons for males in Maryland and one prison for females in West Virginia.

The second major outreach ministry is the continued support of the WINS program that is sponsored by the American University in Washington, D.C. The program offers classes and internships for qualified Native American students during the fall, spring and summer sessions. This year, we sponsored a student at the 2014 Summer Session, and served as their mentors and contacts away from home. We also had representatives at their Pow Wow, special luncheons and dinners and other activities. CONAM also provides an emergency fund for students who may have to return home because of a crisis or who have issues while in the D.C. area.

We would like to thank Sandy Ferguson (Director of Connectional Ministries) for helping our committee to have a very fulfilling 2014.

The CONAM Webpage on the Baltimore-Washington Conference Website is a good place to keep current on Native American issues within the Conference. The Webpage can be accessed at www.bwcumc.owg/ministries/conam.

One of our goals for 2015 is to have the CONAM contact person's name for each church in our Conference. It is very important to know the contact so that CONAM can keep each church informed about its work in the BWC as well as the work in the Northeast Jurisdiction and the General Church. With God's grace and guidance, we will continue to be the voice for the Native American community.

CONAM would welcome anyone who would like to join a small, but mission-driven committee.

We give thanks to the Great Spirit for all the opportunities we have been given and eagerly anticipate building on what we do. Please continue to support the Native American Ministries Sunday Offering, half of which supports the ministry that we do and the other half goes to the General Conference to support other Native American ministries within the church.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert Willasch, Chair

Sandy Ferguson, Director of Connectional Ministries

Conference Secretary of Global Ministries (CC)

It has been a busy year since our last report to the 2014 Annual Conference Session.

First, we want to say "Thank You" to congregations and individuals who provided transportation, housing, meals and opportunities for sharing their stories to missionaries who were itinerating in the conference. Scheduling missionaries' visits was the most challenging of this year's work.

Victor Doolakeh Taryor, (#3019571) missionary and administrator of Ganta Hospital in Liberia, visited in February 2014. He met with 18 churches, the Maryland Liberian Association, connected with the Global Health advocate at the Board of Church and Society, toured the National Capital, and had opportunity to visit with his foster daughter who lives in Baltimore. During the second week of Victor's visit, his wife Rebecca, who works with youth and young adults, joined him for several of the visits.

Rev. Dr. David Pascua, (#13965Z) missionary and professor at Union Theological Seminary, Cavite, the Philippines, itinerated for two weeks the end of April and beginning of May. While Pascua does not have supporting churches in the BWC, we were asked to host him for visits not only with local churches but seminaries. He connected with Wesley Seminary, St. Mary's Seminary, Campus Ministries at American University, Central Maryland Ecumenical Council, and visited with several congregations. Additionally, since he supervised some gardening at his seminary, he also toured some local farms. Pascua is seeking congregations to support his missionary work.

Rev. Mutwale Ntambo Wa Mushidi, (#14184Z) and his wife, missionary Kabaka Ndala Alphonsine, (#151612) visited from Tanzania. Mutwale serves as the Assistant to the Bishop in Tanzania and works with church development. Known as the grandfather of The United Methodist Church in Tanzania, his leadership over the past 22 years has resulted in the establishment of 32 United Methodist churches in Tanzania. Ndala is involved with a project for women where they are raising funds for women's development through a sewing ministry. The two work with four General Advance Projects in Tanzania: #15051A, #12635N, #3020610, #15049A (details can be found in the General Advance catalog). While in the conference they met with conference staff at the Mission Center, several churches, and attended the Conference United Methodist Women Annual Meeting.

At the Annual Conference session in May, we were privileged to participate in the consecration of a new missionary, Dr. Richmond Williams (#30219550). Williams is from Zimbabwe and has been assigned to teach at Africa University. Due to our close partnership with the Zimbabwe Annual Conference and his connection to Bel Air UMC, we were asked to host his consecration service. What a joy to bless him and the work he is doing to educate future church leaders in Africa!

Congregations that may be considering supporting a missionary through the Covenant Partnership program of the General Board of Global Ministries may look to these missionaries as worthy of their support.

In May, the Conference Mission Personnel Task Force approved the application of Mulowa Kufuku Kajoba seeking acceptance as a General Board of Global Ministries' missionary. Mulowa is a member of Epworth UMC in Cockeysville. Her application has been processed by the General Board of Global Ministries, but a site for her specific skill set has not yet been located. When assigned to a site, Mulowa will be seeking support from local BWC churches.

During the 2014 Annual Conference session, Deaconess Jane Grays was elected as Co-Secretary of Global Ministries. What a blessing to have Jane come on board to assist with iteration and education within the conference. In October, both Jane Grays and Sharon Leatherman attended the Northeastern Jurisdiction Retreat for Conference Secretaries of Global Ministries. This event provides an opportunity to meet with staff from the GBGM and learn how others are promoting global ministries within their conferences. During this session we learned of the planned move of the GBGM offices from New York to Atlanta, Ga., and were able to ask questions around several issues related to the move.

Mission u provided two opportunities for education about the work of the Conference Board of Global Ministries and The General Board of Global Ministries. In addition we had an educational display.

We continue to struggle with identifying district/regional folks with a passion for mission that would like to assist us with interpretation of global ministries and identifying churches interested in hosting visiting missionaries. Sometime during 2015, missionaries Jeff and Ellen Hoover will be itinerating within the conference — they do have many supporting churches.

Churches of the conference are encouraged to support missionaries of The United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries through Covenant Partnerships, General Advance Projects, UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief) and Special Sundays that provide for specialized ministries within The United Methodist Church.

Missionaries supported by at least five churches within the BWC are:

Erb-Kanzleiter, Christine -- #13957Z – Serves as pastor of Peace United Methodist Church, an international English-speaking congregation in Munich, Germany.

Hoover, Ellen -- #07990Z— Ellen is an educator and administrator in Lubumbashi, Democratic Republic of the Congo.

Hoover, Jeffrey -- #07989Z—Jeffrey serves as a professor, University of Katanga, Democratic Republic of the Congo.

Lesure, Gayle -- #982965—Church and Community Worker and Deaconess serving with the Greater Clarksburg Cooperative Parish in the West Virginia Annual Conference.

Millman, Andrew – #3021844 is a mission intern serving with the Moscow Protestant Chaplaincy in Russia.

Taryor, Victor Doolakeh -- #3019571 serves as administrator of Ganta Hospital in Liberia.

Vdooklakehtaryor@yahoo.com

Williams, Richmond -- #3021955 serving as a professor of church leadership at Africa University,

Zimbabwe. rwilliams@umcmmission.org

For more detailed information on these missionaries visit the GBGM website www.umcmmission.org click on missionaries.

Mairena, Miguel (#12877Z) and McCurdy, Nan (#13929Z), who are supported by a number of churches within the conference, were reassigned to new work as Mission Interpreters in the Western Jurisdiction. They continue to seek support from churches within the BWC. A new missionary has been assigned to continue their work in Nicaragua.

The Baltimore-Washington Conference was recognized, again, at the 2014 Annual Conference session as being the conference in the Northeastern Jurisdiction that provides the most financial support for missionaries.

The Conference Council on Youth Ministry Leadership (CC)

The purpose of The Conference Council on Youth Ministry is to empower youth as world-changing disciples of Jesus Christ, to nurture faith development, and to equip youth leaders by:

- Developing youth spiritual leaders of local congregations to transform lives by making disciples of Jesus Christ;
- Challenging The United Methodist Church to embrace, confirm, and celebrate God's call on the lives of young people;
- Cultivating and nurturing life-giving ministries where influence and worth are not limited by age or experience;
- Advocating for the issues and concerns of young people in the church and the global community; and
- Empowering young people to work as agents of peace, justice and mercy.

Youth from each of our eight Districts attended Annual Conference 2014 as Members-At-Large. The 18 youth attended each plenary session and worship service during Annual Conference. The youth were engaged in the small group "circle process" for the discussion of the resolutions at the Friday night holy conferencing.

The election of officers was held in the youth room at Annual Conference as follows:

Officers (youth):

- President: Donovan Parris, Greater Washington District
- Vice President: Christian Stemley, Baltimore Metro District
- Spiritual Leaders: Allison Smith, Central Maryland District and Eduardo Valentin-Morales, Frederick District
- Communications: Janina Stetz, Baltimore Metro District

The youth launched a new Facebook page – United Methodist Council on Youth Ministry -- to communicate CCYM activities, events and meeting notices. The BWC website page for youth ministry was redesigned to include information about CCYM activities, contact information for the District Youth Leaders and the CCYM monthly meeting schedule. We invite you to go to bwcumc.org/ministries/conference-council-on-youth-ministries/ for more information.

In November, 30 Conference Council on Youth Ministry youth and youth leaders attended a Leadership retreat where plans and activities were identified for the 2015-16 as follows:

- A youth centered pre-conference where youth can learn and prepare for the process of Annual Conference 2015.
- One themed praise and worship experience.
- One service project.

The District Youth Leaders:

Annapolis District Youth Leader – Kim Walker and Julie Flinchum: ADYouth@BWCUMC.org

- Cumberland-Hagerstown District Youth Leader – Marie Ebersole: CHDYouth@BWCUMC.org
- Washington East District Youth Leader – Rev. David Showalter: WEDYouth@BWCUMC.org
- Frederick District Youth Leader – Daniel Burnett: DYouth@BWCUMC.org
- Baltimore Suburban District Youth Leader – vacant: BSDYouth@BWCUMC.org
- Baltimore Metropolitan District Youth Leader – Josh Gillen: MDYouth@BWCUMC.org
- Central Maryland District Youth Leader – Carrie Larsen: carrie@bethanyum.org
- Greater Washington District Youth Leader – Don Hauprich: GWDYouth@BWCUMC.org

All youth groups in the Baltimore-Washington Conference interested in The Conference Council on Youth Ministry are welcome to participate in the activities of CCYM. Please contact your District Youth Leader or Pam Bowen for additional information.

Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministry Team (CJMM) (CC)

You shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in. (Isaiah 58:12b)

Accomplishments:

1. Three Healing Communities Training were implemented this year. One in the Western Region (Middletown UMC) and one in Annapolis Southern Region (St. Mark's UMC). One out of state, through GBCS in New Jersey. More than 60 people were trained.
2. We have two vacancies on the team and are looking to fill these vacancies with those that have been trained and actively involved in prison ministry.
 - Baltimore Region
 - Western Region
3. We continue to preach, advocate for and support those in our congregations and communities that are incarcerated and their families by prayers, visits, court dates, seeking housing, employment and through writing letters.
4. We set up a display at Annual Conference. We asked churches to share what they are doing in their prison ministry and have churches sign up to be trained in the Healing Communities.
5. Nancy Randers-Pehrson of the Baltimore Region Team partnered with the United Methodist Women to provide underwear to incarcerated women.
6. Milt Tipperman of the Western Region Team partnered with Gateway Ministries in Hagerstown to provide help to those returning with housing, employment, transportation, etc.
7. Western Region set up a display for Western Region Leadership Days.
8. We continue to recruit people to participate in Kairos Prison Ministries in all regions.
9. Rev. Brian Jackson taught at The School of Christian Missions for the United Methodist Women.
10. Looking to have our first transitional house in Annapolis Southern Region.
11. We will be attending the following conferences next year:
 - Samuel DeWitt Proctor Conference

February 9-12, 2015 in Norfolk, VA

Reclaiming Our Moral Authority: Faith & Justice in the Age of Reinvented Empire.

Proverbs 31:8-9 Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves.

- 5th National Conference on Community & Restorative Justice
June 1-3, 2015 in Ft. Lauderdale, FL
The Future of Restorative Community Justice: Building Sustainable Communities

The prison ministry team will continue to serve those affected by the criminal justice system, fight for justice and show the unconditional love of Jesus Christ to all we encounter. Thank you for allowing us to serve in this ministry. We will continue to see that justice is done, love kindness and walk humbly with our God.

Committee on Hispanic/Latino Ministries (CC)

The Committee on Hispanic/Latino Ministries of the Baltimore-Washington Conference is grateful for everyone who, during the 2014 Conference year, made it possible for our Committee to achieve its successes. We will be remiss if we do not offer a special word of thanks to Bishop Marcus Matthews for his commitment to help our Conference become more diverse and inclusive in its leadership as well as in its ministries. Bishop Matthew's dedication to use Spanish at different conference events shows intentionality in reaching out to the Latino community, and it shows a great desire to reach to those communities within our Conference bounds whose main language is not English. As a Conference Committee we are grateful to God for this kind of leadership, which is certainly contagious.

We know that the Kingdom of God is not built in a day and that God is the one forging ahead as we collaborate with God to make the beloved community a reality. As such, we in the Conference Committee on Hispanic/Latino Ministry are working to facilitate the process where churches interested in reaching out to their Latino constituency may receive the guidance and spiritual support they need to reach those brothers and sisters in their communities.

The work of the Conference Committee is evangelistic in focus and transformational in approach. That is, we intend to help churches in our Conference who are interested in reaching out to the Latino community to present the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the Latino Community following our Wesleyan heritage. We want to present a Gospel that seeks to transform our neighborhoods "and to spread scriptural holiness throughout the land."

Since the beginning, the Gospel Jesus proclaimed had universal dimensions (Matthew 8:11, Luke 13:29). As citizens of the Kingdom, as ambassadors of Christ, our values will be different from those who are in power in the world, those who in many cases are more interested in their own gain than in God's interest. This all-inclusive message is the guiding principle of the work of our Committee as we seek to bring the whole world under the Reign of God and the Lordship of Jesus the Christ.

We have been blessed this year with many wonderful accomplishments:

1. Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration was a success, as we had more than 150 people participating. Erin Hawkins, General Secretary of the General Commission on Religion and Race, brought a message that challenged us not to be complacent about our faith and our social responsibility.
2. We had a very successful Latino Family Camp at West River Camp with more than 150 participants. We brought a clergy couple, the Revs. Jaime and Awilda Nolla, from the Wisconsin Area, to provide leadership. Their focus was on giving our lives completely to our Lord. The team working in this camp was absolutely effective in its organization and their work was a blessing to the whole community.
3. The Salem/Baltimore Hispanic Church is growing. This ministry continues to add more new outreach programs and folks to its worshiping community thanks to the leadership of the Revs. Leo and Carmen Rodriguez. The local church hiring of Pastor Jorge Luis Moreno has resulted in significant changes in discipleship and growth.
4. Epworth/El Camino de Vida: under the leadership of the Revs. Jen Fenner and Carlos Ramos, this

- ministry continues to grow, as they expand their outreach to the town. This ministry has become one community of faith worshipping in different languages. Certainly the appointment of an Associate Pastor has had a great positive impact upon this ministry. Maybe this is another model that can be explored by other communities in the Conference.
5. Hughes Memorial/El Buen Samaritano continues to strive towards a truly inclusive and faith-filled community under the leadership of the Rev. Ken Hawes and Pastor Evelyn Rivera. This is another example of one congregation worshipping in two languages.
 6. The West Virginia ministry continues to move towards growth as they continue to reach out to the Latino community in Martinsburg under the able team of Pastors Teresa and Freddie Montenegro. They have been working to provide ESL classes, and have partnered with the town and the school system to provide this program to everyone interested.
 7. Milian Memorial, under the leadership of the Revs. Miguel Balderas and Braulio Torres, continues to develop their Latino ministry and expand its outreach to reach the community through different community programs.
 8. The College Park area ministry under the leadership of Pastor Israel Suarez, is a growing faith community. This ministry is a rising hope for the possibilities it represents for future ministries in the BWC.
 9. Frederick District Latino Ministry is exploring new ways to grow and develop a strong ministry. Under the leadership of the District Superintendent, the Rev. Edgardo Rivera, we hope to have someone this coming summer that can help us achieve our goal. Frederick has been blessed to have Pastor Giovanni Arroyo give continuity and support to this ministry; even with his very full schedule at the General Commission on Religion and Race.

We have learned that diversity has a great evangelistic and missional potential to reach out to the unchurched.

As we look into the future, our Coordinator for Hispanic/Latino Ministries, the Rev. Leo Rodriguez, has been in conversation with Pastor Heather Olson as they intentionally explore the possibility to develop a ministry in the Piney Grove UMC area with the help of Salem-Baltimore Latino Ministries.

No committee can be successful without a group of people committed to dream and work to make possible the dreams. The Conference Committee on Hispanic/Latino Ministry has been blessed with a great Executive Committee, to them a word of gratitude for helping our Conference extend the hospitality of God's grace.

Divestment Working Group (CC)

Background

A Divestment Working Group, as mandated by the Annual Conference, (2014 Journal, p. 333) was formed with representation from the Conference Boards of Church and Society, Pensions and Health Benefits, and the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. Representation was added from the Conference Trustees. The Working Group was tasked with reporting back on the divestment alternatives which are available to the Conference, including the cost of each alternative and its potential impact on Conference Retirees.

Following Annual Conference, the working group held meetings to identify the issues involved, to hear from Annual Conference financial staff on the nature and location of investments, to hear from Wespath, the investment body of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, as well as the Mid-Atlantic Foundation, and to formulate this report.

Findings

The Baltimore-Washington Conference currently has about $112 million in invested assets. The majority of these assets are pension and benefit funds which are held at Wespath and the Mid-Atlantic Foundation. (Wespath manages a total of $21 Billion for The United Methodist Church and Mid-Atlantic Foundation manages $80 million for three Annual Conferences.)

The Annual Conference agreements with Wespath and the Mid-Atlantic Foundation gives them broad instructions such as how much risk to take, but delegates to them the decisions on which investments to purchase. Our money is bundled into pools of funds about which investment decisions are made and these funds contain a constantly changing portfolio of individual investments. Thus, response to a specific request from any one Conference to invest or not invest in a particular company, or to estimate the costs of doing so, is nearly impossible.

Both Wespath and the Mid-Atlantic Foundation practice Socially Responsible Investing (SRI), and their investments are made based on an SRI screen which currently screens out over 400 companies that have been considered for investment but failed the screen. This screen is developed to include specific mandates from the General Conference and to apply broadly the United Methodist Social Principles. This SRI screen avoids investments in alcohol, "adult entertainment," tobacco, weapons, gambling and operating private prisons. If a particular company derives 10% or more of its revenue from such activities, the company is screened out. In the case of nuclear weapons, the threshold is 3%.

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has the ability to add categories to the Screen which are not specifically mandated by our Social Principles. An outstanding example of this was the decision of the General Board, in response to Resolution 4071 and subsequent advocacy, to add private prisons to the list of investments we avoid. The Divestment Working Group found that the General Board pays close attention to the resolutions of the General and Annual Conferences.

Recommendations

1. Social Witness is an intrinsic expression of the Christian faith. Annual Conference Resolutions in support of, or in opposition to, various activities and entities, both domestic and international, are a necessary expression of our faith. When such resolutions require investment decisions for their implementation, we call upon Conference members to direct the call for such resolutions to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, which continually evaluates the SRI screens. In appropriate years, a petition may be addressed to General Conference, which is the sole body entrusted with mandating investment policy for the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The resolution may state "There are no financial implications to the Conference operating budget but conference investments will be realigned if the desired action is taken by the General Board or the General Conference."
2. We call upon the Conference Communications Office to promote an understanding of Socially Responsible Investing through the media at its disposal.
3. United Methodist congregations in the Conference have their own investment decisions to make, and we urge the Annual Conference to promote SRI by our congregations. If a congregation makes its investments only on the basis of financial return, and pays no attention to where the money is invested, it is out of compliance with United Methodist principles. An important principle is that the congregation's fiduciary responsibility with respect to its investments must honor not only the narrow requirement of financial stewardship, but must honor the causes and principles for which the donations behind the investments were made. In the end, the operative question might be, "What would Jesus do with his portfolio?" The Mid-Atlantic Foundation, which follows the SRI principles of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, is an important resource for congregations as they consider issues related to their investments.

4. We commend the CFA for voting to establish an investment working group. We recommend that the investment working group (a) be comprised of nominees from the CFA, the Board of Pensions, the Board of Church and Society, and the Trustees; and (b) include in its responsibilities the promotion of socially responsible investment at the Annual Conference and local church levels.

Working Group Members:

- Board of Pensions and Health Benefits: Rev. Jackson Day, Chair; Larry Haynes; Dayle Hall; Clint Stretch
- Board of Church and Society: Rev. Ken Hawes, T. C. Morrow, Mike Koob
- Council on Finance and Administration: Rev. Bryant Oskvig; Ken Ow; Gwen Morgan
- Trustees: David Hall
- Staff: Paul Eichelberger

Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee (CC)

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns (ELCC) committee continues its primary mission to advocate for the various concerns of all ethnic local churches of the Baltimore-Washington Conference (BWC). The committee has reviewed the National Ethnic Plans of the church to determine where support can be provided to advance their agendas and how linkages can be made in our BWC ethnic local ministry plans. In addition, the committee has met to share the ministry plans of the various ethnic churches of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. Some of the ethnic local concerns continue to center around aging and declining memberships, deteriorating buildings, rising costs of operation with decreased giving, and how to do effective ministry with limited resources. Thus, the committee is involved in researching new models of ministry and “best practices” in ministry of various churches to share with its various constituents.

The ELCC committee continues to be excited about advocating, supporting and resourcing the local ethnic churches of our conference which continue to be faithful and fruitful in their ministries despite their adversities.

The ELCC has worked on a common display and materials that can be shared in various venues to highlight the work of the BWC Ethnic churches. The committee continues to review applications from conference churches seeking Church and Society grants. The committee is discussing ways to get more ethnic churches to apply for some of the general church grants.

Some of the 2014 highlights of the various BWC Ethnic Local Church Ministries are as follows:

The Committee on Hispanic/Latino Ministries

1. Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration, with Erin Hawkins, General Secretary of the General Commission on Religion and Race as guest speaker;
2. A Latino Family Camp at West River, with the Revs. Jaime and Awilda Nolla, from the Wisconsin area who provided leadership;
3. The newly emerging Hispanic ministry in College Park, Md., which is bringing great excitement along with the continued growth of the existing Hispanic/Latino Churches.

Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century (SBC21)

1. A SBC21 Black Church Resource Center at Emory UMC in Washington, D.C., under the leadership of the Rev. Joseph Daniels;
2. The new coaching model (from a partnership between National SBC21 and Path One) for the BWC new church start, J&K Missional Community, which is providing a nationally known pastor as a coach for the Rev. Dred Scott;
3. An emerging BWC “Healing Communities” prison ministry in conjunction with the National SBC21’s Prison Ministry Initiative.

The Committee on Native American Ministry (CONAM)

1. The BWC CONAM hosted the Northeastern Jurisdiction's Native American Ministries Committee meeting at the BWC's West River Camp;
2. A Prison Ministry to Native American Inmates with includes sending them a newsletter;
3. Continued support of the American University WINS program which offers classes and internships for qualified Native American Students.

DC-MD Justice for Our Neighbors (CC)

The Baltimore-Washington Conference continues supporting immigrants in its communities through its support of DC-MD Justice for Our Neighbors. This year has been a year of growth for the organization as we have partnered with another local congregation, Epworth UMC in Gaithersburg, to increase our area of service and provide assistance to areas where there might be a dearth of service providers. We have received a good response from the community and we are excited about continuing that partnership.

This year we have served more than 400 people through our four clinics located in the First UMC of Hyattsville: Salem UMC in Baltimore; Epworth UMC in Gaithersburg; and Emory UMC in Washington, DC. Families have been reunited, persons have earned the privilege of becoming citizens, and men and women have escaped situations of violence and oppression. This year, the country saw an increase in the number of unaccompanied children coming to the country escaping gang violence in their home countries.

As an organization dedicated to being a place of welcome for the most vulnerable in our society, we are particularly proud of our success in cases involving these unaccompanied young people. Such is the case of one of our clients, Karen. Karen was abandoned by her mother when she was a baby. Unfortunately, the family who took her in abused Karen and had her serve as the family's housekeeper. When she was 16 years old, Karen decided that she had a chance at a better life on her own here in the United States. Karen paid a coyote to bring her over and when they were about to cross over, the coyote sexually assaulted Karen as additional payment for helping her get into the United States. Karen was apprehended at the border right after she crossed and was placed with a foster family as she did not have anywhere to go. A non-profit in the area where Karen was initially placed assisted her with filing for a special visa. When she arrived in this area she came to us and we helped her file for status as a lawful permanent resident. Karen's application was approved and she is currently a lawful permanent resident and doing very well in school.

As we look ahead to the coming year, we are excited about increasing our visibility within the Conference and to working with other United Methodist entities on a local and national level to advocate for humane comprehensive immigration reform.

Korea Partnership (CC)

A. Background

The Korea Partnership started in 2001 in an effort to increase the opportunities to understand and learn about different cultures. This partnership started as an exchange program of clergy and laity between the Baltimore-Washington Conference of The United Methodist Church (BWC) and the Nam-Boo Annual Conference of the Korean Methodist Church (KMC). Over the past decade, both Annual Conferences have benefitted greatly by this relationship and in learning from each other.

B. Accomplishments in 2014

In May 2014, eight pastors from the KMC came to the United States and were guests in the homes of several BWC pastors. This was a great time of learning that was shared by the BWC.

The KMC pastors and Bishop and Mrs. Han visited the BWC and stayed over at our Annual Conference Session in Baltimore. The Bishop said a greeting on behalf of the KMC, and the Korean pastors sang during the Annual Conference Session.

In July, Bishop Matthews and a BWC delegation visited Korea and Japan. The BWC delegates made a new covenant with the KMC focusing on these areas:

- To continue the global partnership begun by the BWC and the KMC in 2001;
- To visit theological schools in Seoul, South Korea, especially the Methodist Theological University where most young Korean Methodist pastors are educated;
- To develop young clergy leadership by assisting them in discernment, recruitment, nurturing, education and support, especially focusing on global cultural and faith experiences;
- To explore the possibilities of prayer partnerships with young clergy and churches in each conference;
- To plan joint young clergy exchange opportunities between the BWC and the KMC.
- To support the Young Clergy Initiative that was approved by the 2012 General Conference and was designed to increase the number of young clergy among the jurisdictional conferences.

The KMC and the BWC were able to renew this covenant.

C. The Covenant between the KMC and the BWC.

The KMC and the BWC have unique histories and ministries and a common calling to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. As two communities of faith with a common Wesleyan history and theology, we will reach across denominations, languages, and cultures and covenant to:

- Grow in our understanding of and appreciation for one another's uniquenesses - culture, history, and spirituality - in making disciples.
- Build on our common Wesleyan traditions to spread scriptural holiness (personal and social) through evangelism and ministries of justice and mercy.
- Strengthen our ability to make disciples of Jesus Christ around the world by learning from each other and developing common discipleship and mission strategies within our conferences and around the world.

Both conferences will endeavor to:

- Foster youth, young adult, laity, and clergy leadership exchanges to develop a deeper understanding of and appreciation for one another's culture and ministry within our own conferences and around the world.
- Exchange visits and participation at Annual Conference Sessions held in Korea and the USA to deepen each other's learning of the church today in our respective cultures.
- Identify specific areas of ministry and mission for each conference to focus on for the benefit of the other conference.
- Discuss the possibility of partnering in a ministry and/or mission in one or both countries or in a third country.
- Discuss the possibility of disciple training, teaching, and equipping together in a third location (China, Mongolia, Zimbabwe, Russia, etc.).
- Co-sponsor seminars, workshops, and/or retreats in both countries to focus on best learning practices for growing and strengthening disciples and building the church in our respective cultures.
- Attend a church growth or mission education event together and discuss learnings and implications.

D. 130th Anniversary of Korean Methodist church

April 5, 2015, marked the 130th year since the Rev. Henry Appenzeller, a Methodist missionary from Lovely Lane Episcopal Methodist Church in Baltimore, arrived in Korea. The KMC invited Bishop Marcus Matthews to their 130th anniversary celebration in honor of Appenzeller. Bishop Matthews and a delegation from the BWC went to Korea and participated in the celebration. Bishop Matthews delivered greetings to the KMC at the celebration.

E. Upcoming

The BWC will send young pastors to Korea in July 2015. Each District Superintendent has identified a young adult pastor from their district to go to Korea. These young pastors will learn and experience what Korean Christians believe and do ministry within the KMC.

In the summer of 2016, the BWC will receive the delegation from the KMC.

Parish Nurse Ministries (CC)

A committee of parish nurses works with Sandra Ferguson, Director of Connectional Ministries, and the Rev. Andrea King, Associate Director of Ministry with the Poor. We support and encourage current and new parish nurse programs in the conference and are available to consult with clergy, registered nurses and others who are interested in development of a parish nursing or health ministry program for their congregation. We provide information about the practice of parish nursing, initial steps for developing a program for the church, and helpful denominational, regional, and national resources that are supportive of this specialty.

The committee offers scholarships to complete a basic parish nurse preparation course for United Methodist registered nurses in the BWC jurisdiction who want to pursue parish nursing. The money for the scholarships is a grant from GBGM for parish nursing. We are exploring ideas for increasing awareness of these scholarship funds by United Methodist Women, BWC area faith community nurse coordinators, and BWC area educators teaching the faith community nursing curriculum.

This year, the Parish Nurse Ministry Team conducted a survey to better understand the needs of churches in the BWC. The respondents were predominantly United Methodist Women attending area conferences held by the UMW. A display of information about parish nursing included the nine question survey and was staffed by parish nurses from our committee. Eighty-five surveys were completed. Response to the question, "If your church does not have a parish nurse, would you be interested in having someone in that role?" included these responses: 63% yes, 6% no and 30% not applicable. Grant opportunities and resources for publication of these survey findings are being sought.

Parish nurses have the ability to increase connections within the congregation and focus on the promotion of health within the context of the values, beliefs, practices, mission and ministry of a faith community. They recognize that health is more than the absence of disease. Parish nurses (also known as faith community nurses) provide a holistic approach to empower individuals, families and the congregation to achieve a fullness of life.

To see more details about parish nursing and health ministry, visit the conference website at <http://www.bwcumc.org/ministries/parishnursing/links> or the UMC Health Ministry Network at www.gbophb.org/cfh/umchmn.asp

For more information, contact Carol Whitney at carolwhitney@gmail.com or Susan Roach at susan-roach2@gmail.com

We invite you to stop by our display at Annual Conference to see ways parish nurses help care for the church and for the community at large. Let us know if you have a parish nurse at your church, so your parish nurse can connect with the networks of United Methodist parish nurses.

Quality of Life Retreats (CC)

Quality of Life Retreats (QLR), an HIV/AIDS ministry of the Baltimore-Washington Conference, continues to offer respite, renewal and relational support to people in our region living with HIV and AIDS (PLWHA). Participants gather for inspiration and education while forming close bonds with one another. Quarterly retreats provide life-enhancing encounters and learning experiences to inform participants about their conditions and help them to deal with the multiple challenges — both physical and psychological, social and spiritual — of living with HIV and AIDS. In the process they develop and renew healthy relationships with others, with themselves and with God or the source of their spiritual strength.

The Rev. Terri Rae Chattin led conference members in birthing Quality of Life Retreats in 1988 in response to the alienation, rejection, suffering, and loss of life experienced by many people with HIV/AIDS. In 2013, we celebrated 25 years of this vital, life-saving ministry. In that quarter century we have hosted nearly 100 retreats, serving more than 3,500 people with HIV and AIDS.

Our three-day retreats offer a unique, holistic, participant-focused approach to educating and supporting PLWHA. Participants receive necessary wisdom to face truths and challenges and to overcome adversity, while connecting socially, spiritually and emotionally with others in a safe space away from the stresses of their daily lives and environments. Here they find rest and renewal, while learning effective strategies for long-term survival.

Our retreats educate participants about managing their health, disease symptoms and medications, and about alternative therapies and emerging discoveries and changes in the treatment of HIV/AIDS. Small-group dialogues and exercises provide important insights, community-building, networking and morale-lifting activities. Participants also can benefit from optional worship and spiritual nurture activities, as well as opportunities to meet and mentor one another while sharing experiences and encouragement.

Our participants are diverse in race and ethnicity, gender, age group, faith and sexual orientation. A diverse volunteer board of directors, retreat staff and resource experts collaborate to offer a broad range of knowledge, experience and ideas to the total retreat experience. The staff of each retreat includes guest presenters, small-group leaders, activity directors, a registered nurse who specializes in HIV and a spiritual director.

QLR offers a viable model for compassionate involvement by the religious community in the lives of PLWHA. The program is ecumenical, interfaith and open to individuals of all beliefs. Churches and individuals — lay and clergy — who participate and support our efforts become vital partners along with community volunteers and helping agencies. We remain grateful for the faithful participation and committed leadership provided by Baltimore-Washington Conference staff and local church leaders, as well as financial support from the BWC through its Connectional Ministries budget, Peace with Justice Sunday offering, Advance Special giving and connection with the United Methodist Committee on Relief.

In 2014, as is our custom, we sponsored four retreats: one each in February, June, September and December. Manidokan Camp and Retreat Center hosted our June and September retreats. The Washington D.C. Retreat House, a Catholic institution, hosted us in February and December. We drew participants from Baltimore, Washington, D.C., and the West Virginia panhandle.

We partnered with Glen Burnie UMC, which used its church bus to transport retreatants from Baltimore to Manidokan. We also received special mission funding from UMCOR, Linden-Linthicum UMC in Clarksville and Grace UMC in Baltimore, among other church and non-church donors. The DC Aquatics Club has been a significant donor through its annual Swim for Life benefit. We also typically welcome volunteer BWC clergy who come to preach and serve Holy Communion during worship services.

Aided by several dozen volunteer staff, we served 102 participants in 2014. Most represented underserved urban populations, which is consistent with the HIV/AIDS epidemic trends in this region. Included were 44 women, 50 men and 7 transgender persons. Most were 40 to 59 years old, African American, low-income, heterosexual and recently diagnosed. We also served small numbers of Hispanic and Caucasian participants; and we served military veterans and provided language interpreters when needed.

In plenary and small-group settings, QLR participants choose to talk about living with HIV while caring for friends and families and struggling with finances, relationships, aging minds and bodies, sexuality, self-exposure and other conflicts and crises. In response they receive fresh ideas, information about resources, useful insights from others' experiences, supportive critiques and most importantly, non-judgmental acceptance. Many later report returning home feeling refreshed and empowered, with new mental clarity and new coping skills. They also return home with a network of people and agencies they can contact to develop support systems and thus enhance the quality and longevity of their lives.

Yoga and meditation, massage therapy, arts and crafts, music, games, recreation, thematic dinners, talent shows, prayer buddies and secret gift exchanges — the many activities, like the many discussions, are meaningful and memorable for each retreat participant. In the process, they learn to challenge habits and addictions and wrestle with difficult emotions like guilt, anger, grief, shame, fear, isolation and loss of self-esteem. As a result many gain a sense of fellowship and camaraderie, safety, confidence, hope and joy for living.

We maintain contact with churches, service agencies and individuals throughout the year and we communicate through use of social media (including our Facebook page), our section of the Baltimore-Washington Conference's Web site, and our program book ad and display at the conference's annual session. We also sponsor community outreach events hosted by local churches; and we participate in mission information events at various churches.

We have — and indeed, we are — a powerful, ongoing story worth sharing, a story of grace, generosity and gratitude. We celebrate each life changed through the experience of Quality of Life Retreats, thanks to the generosity and concern of our supporters in the church and beyond the church. In fact, that is our uplifting theme: "Celebrate Life!" We invite the entire Baltimore-Washington Conference to join us in that imperative clarion call, as we rejoice in God's gracious gift of life now and life everlasting. Thank you!

Retreat and Camping Ministries (CC)

Retreat and Camping Ministries has enjoyed a year of substantial growth in programming, participation and impact on the guests and campers that came to Camp Harmison, Manidokan Camp and Retreat Center, and the West River Center in 2014.

Coming off a successful 2013, it was a delight to see continued growth in all areas in 2014. Retreat usage was up 10 percent over 2013. The residential summer camp grew at a rate of 15 percent, with Manidokan showing a 20 percent increase in summer campers and the West River Day Camp showing a whopping 61 percent increase. There were 250 volunteers that gave a week of their year to be a part of summer camps. We are so grateful they chose to spend their time guiding and mentoring campers in their faith, teaching new skills, and having fun in fellowship together.

Camp Life — our partnership program with the Board of Child Care to provide a week of camp to children and youth in Baltimore City who have been impacted by violence — was blessed with 59 campers in its 9th year. Camp HOPE, in its 8th year under the leadership of the Rev. Tim Warner, was held for the first time at Manidokan. Twenty-three campers, each with a parent incarcerated, enjoyed a week of camp and the opportunity to be away from the stress and issues that their life situations present.

An exciting new leadership camp was launched at West River to hone and develop spiritual leaders while challenging them to grow deeper in their faith and find their place in the body of Christ. Twenty-two young people served as Junior Counselors at West River and Manidokan putting their leadership skills into action.

Over $70,000 worth of camperships were awarded in 2014. These gifts enabled 283 campers to attend camp this past summer. In addition, a large amount of funds were given by local churches to help their youth have a week of camp, subsidizing the cost and giving youth a chance to have an incredible experience. This is the area of most critical need as the cost of camp continues to rise. While the BWC summer programs compare very well with other camps in our area with regard to keeping the price affordable, for many, a week of camp is still only attainable with campership assistance. That said, we are encouraged that the Campership Endowment yielded $8,500 of support for children and youth this past summer.

We have seen many new churches, schools and community groups come to our sites for retreats and day events, along with continued use by many of the faithful groups who come each year. Through the generosity of time and resources given by numerous folks, and the support of the Annual Conference, we have been able to continue to make improvements to lodging facilities and the grounds. Fifty-five people honored friends and family by donating one or more bricks to the Peace Pole patio at West River, a new place for folks to gather, pray and fellowship.

Retreat and Camping Ministries has teamed up with Mission Partners in Pennsylvania to start a new fundraising program called “Clean Closets for Campers.” Clothes are collected and sold to resellers, directing the profits specifically toward camperships. The beauty of this program is how the proceeds go directly to the local church to use for the youth in their congregation and community to attend camp. Only a handful of churches are participating now but there is potential for some significant funds in the future.

Camp Harmison was once again the place for CAMP JOY, a two week home repair ministry helping folks in the greater Berkeley Springs area. Celebrating its 25th year, work teams from around the Baltimore-Washington Conference have provided hundreds of homeowners and residents with not only much needed repair services, but with the love of Christ in a real and tangible way.

Manidokan hosted the 5th ENCOUNTER weekend in October. More than 175 youth and adults were inspired by a weekend of music and worship. Though the program was a success for those that attended, we were not able to achieve the numbers we needed to make it fiscally viable. As of now, it will be put on hold until a later date.

There are some significant partnerships that have worked to benefit and make productive use of the sites. River and Trail at Manidokan, and Calvert County schools at West River, provide exposure and give our staff the chance to share Christian hospitality while simultaneously providing fun, opportunity for personal growth and team development for the participants.

The year 2014 also saw the passing of some of Camping’s long time supporters and leaders. The Rev. Daniel Andrews served on the summer staff at Manidokan and was a spiritual leader for many young people at summer camp. Alice Holt Battle was the Director for Camp Lothian of the Washington Conference in the late 1950s through the 1960s. Camp Lothian was on property donated by her family to the Washington Conference for camping ministry to young people. Alice and Dorothy Ordwein worked together to hold the first integrated summer camp prior to the merger of the Baltimore and Washington Conferences. Dr. Mary Alice Douty Edwards worked with the Rev. Jeanne Klauda to create “Spirit Alive-Over 55,” a week-long camp experience for seniors. Mary Alice pioneered older adult ministries not only in our Conference but throughout the denomination. Though these folks have left us, their impact remains in the lives of the many within our Annual Conference.

At the end of 2014, we took time to honor a number of our volunteers and those who generously supported the ministry. It is always a difficult choice to single out one or two from the many folks that made such a difference in the lives of summer campers and guests, and we are certainly grateful for all the efforts that make Harmison, Manidokan and West River places where lives are changed and folks feel the presence of God in quiet times, fellowship, and beautiful surroundings.

The Dorothy Ordwein Award for Volunteer Service in Outdoor Christian Education was presented to Donna House and Melaney Sanchez. Both have been serving as volunteers in the summer program for many years. Donna, a member at Trinity UMC in Prince Frederick, has been a key leader in the partnership between Calvert County schools and West River. She also worked with her local church to fully fund and send 15 youth to summer camp in 2014. Melaney is another key player with Donna in the partnership with Calvert County schools. In addition, her grandfather, the Rev. Marion Michael, served on the committee to make the initial purchase of the West River Site, and her father, Chic Michael, served faithfully for many years on the West River site committee. In recent years, her son has been a Junior Counselor completing four generations of ministry at West River.

Emily Bennett was the recipient of the Richard S. Lord sailing award for her contributions and leadership to the Sailing program at West River. A Distinguished Service Award was initiated at West River honoring all those that served on the summer staff for four or more years. Thirty-five persons were recognized dating back to 1987.

At West River we bid farewell to two staff members over the course of this year. Janna Floyd served faithfully in Food Service at West River for 14 years, the last 7 as the Food Service Director. Tammy Gauley was hired as the new Food Service Director and brought years of service, experience, education, a deep faith, and an endearing sense of hospitality. Leah Cristiano served on the Maintenance team for six years and left in December. Ben Youngkin who has been a camper and former summer staff worker came on to take her place.

I have the wonderful privilege to be honored with the leadership responsibilities of a ministry that is supported by the prayers, presence and gifts of the people of the Baltimore Washington Conference. There is a dedicated ministry team that serves faithfully.

Camp Harmison: Keith Puffenberger, Caretaker

Manidokan Camp and Retreat Center: Chris Schlieckert, Director; Steve Lane, Assistant Director; Scott Norris, Maintenance Director

West River Center: David Coomes, Maintenance Director; Tammy Gauley, Food Service Director; Diane Gunde, Maintenance; Matthew Surber, Program Director

Retreat and Camping Ministries Office: Amy Marshall, Camping Administrator

I am deeply indebted to the hundreds of volunteer counselors and work teams and all those that work hard to organize retreats and special events in order to provide an opportunity for folks to get out of their daily routines, find Christian fellowship and encounter Christ in their life. These are all folks that make a difference.

As we move into this next year, our mission to serve God and each other with the love of Christ continues through our commitment to our camps and the people we serve.

Andrew Thornton, Director, Camp and Retreat Ministries

In Mission Together: Eurasia (Formerly Russia Initiative) (CC)

Background

Since 2007, the Baltimore-Washington Conference and the Central Black Soil District of the South Russia Conference have shared a covenant partnership for mutual support in mission and fellowship. With fewer than 20 congregations in an area the size of Texas, the CSB nevertheless is powerful in its ministry to the unreached, with children and youth, with the physically and mentally challenged, with prisoners, international students, orphans, new mothers, young adults and others.

Accomplishments in 2014

2014 has been both a transitional year, and a year of celebration for our covenant partnership between the Baltimore-Washington Conference (BWC) and the Central Black Soil District (CBS). One change of interest has been the addition of several churches to the South Russia Annual Conference, of which CBS is one of two districts, with the incorporation of the congregations on the Crimean Peninsula that transferred in from the Ukraine Annual Conference.

125th Celebration. In late July and early August, participants gathered from across Eurasia and other countries around the world to celebrate the 125th anniversary of the establishment of Eurasian Methodism in 1889, when two Finnish-American brothers established the original Methodist mission in St. Petersburg. Converging on Camp Kristall near Voronezh with UMs from across Russia, Ukraine and Tadjikistan, as well as representatives from Germany, Britain, Estonia, and the United States, the Baltimore-Washington Conference brought the largest overseas group and reaffirmed once more our commitment to and support for the strategic work for the Gospel in Eurasia. In addition, the Baltimore-Washington Conference provided resources that helped in the preparation and outfitting of the conference hall at Kristall for this landmark celebration.

Women's Ministry: Representatives from BWC participated in the pan-Eurasian UMW conference, which was also held at Camp Kristall in August. During the other months of the year, the bond of spiritual fellowship between our conference and our sisters in Eurasia has been enhanced through prayer partnerships.

Leadership Seminar: In May, the BWC sponsored a continuing education opportunity for clergy and other leaders in the South Russia Conference, sponsoring a week of teaching by Dr. Scott Kisker of United Theological Seminary at Camp Kristall. The topic was Wesleyan Theology, underscoring and undergirding both the fact and the sense of our Wesleyan heritage in Eurasia. Participants were able to earn continuing education or seminary credit through the Methodist Theological Seminary in Moscow.

Leadership Development Support: This past year, BWC has continued to help support advanced training for the Rev. Valentina Stavrova, formerly associate pastor of New Commandment UMC in Voronezh, and an Elder in the South Russia Conference, as she has continued to pursue a master's degree in theology at Wesley Seminary in Washington, D.C., with the intention of going on for her Ph.D. and a return to Russia to teach at the Moscow Seminary. We have been honored to contribute to both personal and financial support for Valentina.

New Partnerships and Church Partnership Support: The Russia Initiative Group has continued to work with churches and leaders who are interested in making connections in Russia, or in those cases where a partnership has ended and there is a desire to create a new one. Partner churches also share in hospitality when our Russian United Methodist brothers and sisters are traveling in the United States.

Regular Connection through the Joint Ministry Task Force: Under the terms of our mutual covenant, meetings are held approximately every month and include participants from the Baltimore-Washington Conference and the Central Black Soil District, via Skype. These have been very helpful in maintaining not only personal relationships, but coordinating plans and avoiding misunderstandings in our partnership together.

Bible Study via Skype: Again in 2014, joint Bible studies have contributed to the sense of partnership between the United Methodists in our two areas. There are opportunities for additional partnerships, as well, in this way.

Focus Areas for 2015

The Russia Initiative Committee in the Baltimore-Washington Conference has identified the following areas for focus and work in 2015:

- I. Keep the Eurasia (Russia) Initiative and the covenant partnership with the Central Black Soil District before the Conference.
 - Raise awareness of the Russia Initiative in the Conference: Through the use of media (especially the redeveloped website), events, presentations at significant Conference gatherings, and visiting Eurasian partners
 - Encourage the participation of key Conference leadership and staff: Specifically, encourage representation / participation at the first-ever Eurasian Consultation to be held in Russia, in Moscow in the spring of 2015
 - Develop and carry out a second Familiarization Trip for 2016

Our plan is that this may be done, as in 2011, in partnership with other annual conference RI groups

 - Continue the monthly meetings of the Joint Ministry Task Force's Russian and American partners via Skype
- II. Encourage local church involvement in the RI:
 - By encouraging new local church partnerships and supporting existing ones
 - By encouraging technologically innovative contacts, such as Bible studies and shared worship via Skype
 - Through continued encouragement of local church-sponsored mission teams and exchange contacts
- III. Support the effort to refurbish the United Methodist Camp "Kristall" near Voronezh.
 - Continue to support key projects: Repair and refurbishment of the kitchen in the dining building
 - Encourage teams and church-to-camp partnerships
- IV. Support the efforts of the Eurasian Conferences' Roadmap (the indigenous strategic plan for our covenant partners), through:
 - Leadership development: Continuing education seminar for clergy and lay leadership (began in 2013); Scholarship support for Eurasian UM clergy pursuing advanced study in the USA
- V. Promote new connections between BWC and Eurasia
 - In 2015: United Methodist Men, Young Adults
 - Especially encourage involvement by ethnic minority-predominant congregations
- VI. Continue and develop existing relationships between UMW in BWC (local church and conference-level) and in Eurasia
- VII. Develop and execute events which promote the covenant partnership
 - Informational / opportunity / exposure events such as the Mini-consultation
 - Fundraising events to undergird missional efforts, such as a concert in the summer of 2015
- VIII. Encourage support and work of the Methodist Theological Seminary in Moscow.
- IX. Partner with the Board of Child Care
 - Help to facilitate BoCC's partnership with the Ertel mission / community
 - Look for additional partnerships to recommend.

Conclusion

We have reached the point of renewal and reaffirmation of our covenant partnership with our Eurasian United Methodist brothers and sisters. In 2015, we look to explore the progress made in our relationship to date, and to lay the groundwork for fruitful partnership in ministry in the years ahead, with the guiding principle being a relationship of true mutuality, and one in which we from our end can support the priorities set for ministry by our Eurasian counterparts. It has been a rich journey so far, and we look forward to great things to come, for it is in Christ's hands.

Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century (CC)

The Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century ministry team continues to support both clergy and laity in many ways. We strive to help in areas that are both needed and enables the church of Jesus Christ to move forward in strength and vitality.

We continue to support the Baltimore-Washington Conference Caucus, Black Methodist for Church Renewal through their leadership, communications and supporting the National BMCR in attendance at their annual meeting. Our efforts have strengthened both clergy and laity to continue to make steps toward expanding vital congregations.

We continue to follow the mission that has been set before us by the director of the National SBC21, the Rev. Fred Allen. Our mission is to weave a thread of hope, peace, social justice, transformation, growth and revitalization by equipping black churches with practical tools and skills needed for vibrant worship, evangelism, discipleship, stewardship, mission, outreach and effective administration. We presently have one resource center at Emory UMC in D.C, under the leadership of Rev. Joseph Daniels.

One of our team members is the Rev. Dred Scott, who has a partnership with Path One and SBC 21. His new church start is J&K Missional Community. From the beginning, Scott was given a unique opportunity to acquire Pastor Rudy Rasmus, a national known pastor, as a coach. Following the guidelines structured by both Path One and SBC21, we want to explore to use of the coaching model as a way of supporting the black church. We believe that this coaching is a way of helping both seasoned and new pastors to continue to give the congregations the best of what God has for them.

In order to support the black church we have found that we must not only be involved in the works of the church but also social justice issues. Our churches are our communities, therefore as the National SBC21 is involved in Prison Ministries we believe we must be also. Rev. Sonia King, one of the coordinators of the Baltimore Washington Prison Ministry, is also a member of our team. It is through the Prison Ministry that lives are being changed and transformed. Healing Communities are being established and partnerships are being formed.

Our work is done through our Northeast Jurisdictional representative, Sandra Ferguson. However, our work is not finished. We must work on a comprehensive plan for the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference. A lot of work must be done this year; however we are up to the challenge.

In Christ,

Rev. Sandra E. Demby, Chairperson

Strawbridge Shrine Association, Inc. (CC)

The Strawbridge Shrine Association owns and maintains more than 30 acres and seven buildings that comprise The Strawbridge Shrine, a United Methodist Heritage Landmark. No report to the Baltimore-Washington Conference should begin without thanking the Conference and Cabinet for the support, spiritual and financial, that you give The Shrine. Our site is one of the finest of its kind anywhere, and your support has played a great part in its development.

Our site includes the house and property that was first settled by Elizabeth and Robert Strawbridge in the early 1760s and where the first Methodist meetings in the new world were established. Robert is accepted as the first preacher of Methodism in America. The site also includes the John Evans House, relocated from its original site, and a replica of the Log Meetinghouse. In 2014 the roofs of both these structures were sealed and refinished and pinholes in the Evans house were repaired.

Working to enhance the visitor experience, we installed new and very attractive signs to identify each of our major buildings and held a very successful training day for prospective tour guides. We also have developed a two-phase plan, and began the process to furnish the Strawbridge House with period appropriate reproduction furnishings.

We have received many items and artifacts of historic significance, many of which are displayed in the historic buildings and the visitor center. We have continued our contract with Arbaugh Architectural Studio in planning a major expansion to the Visitors Center to provide additional display space and an assembly area for tour groups. Visitors and tour groups are always welcome.

The influence of our site and our heritage was expanded this year, as six related locations were collectively registered with the General Commission on Archives & History as the “Strawbridge Cluster” United Methodist Historic Site (no. 491) for which we received an official marker. Components of the cluster include the original Log Meeting House site, the Evans House, Stone Chapel, Bethel Church (New Hope-Bethel UMC), the Poulson House, and the Henry Willis House. The first two of these locations are properties of the Shrine Association.

We were honored to welcome Bishop Marcus Matthews as the speaker at our Annual Meeting, held October 4 at New Hope-Bethel UMC (a printed copy of the Bishop’s message is available on our website, www.strawbridgeshrine.org). This past year marked the 250th anniversary of the erection of the Log Meetinghouse, the first house of worship built by and for Methodists in America. On June 14, we held a successful Family Day with increased attendance. On December 14, Frederick District Superintendent, the Rev. Edgardo Rivera, delivered an inspirational message to a standing room only congregation for our Advent worship service. Discussions are underway about holding two Advent services in 2015.

Our Board of Officers and Directors, and our membership, is comprised of exceptional people who love the Lord, and who are committed to the United Methodist Church and to keeping its founding place in our country alive and vibrant. In 2014, we recruited a full membership Board of Officers & Directors, and organized and staffed all of our standing committees.

I find it inspiring that the very oldest place of the Methodist movement in America is also a living, growing, and joyful place for today. We receive countless compliments from visitors, both related to the church and not related as well. Thank you for your support.

If you’re reading this and haven’t been to The Shrine recently, we invite you to come and see why it is always a new place; 2650 Strawbridge Lane, New Windsor, MD 21776. Also visit www.StrawbridgeShrine.org. Gifts and donations may be sent to The Strawbridge Shrine Assoc., 2200 St. Paul Street, Baltimore, MD 21218.

United Methodist Community Services (CC)

The mission of United Methodist Community Services, an agency of the Conference Board of Global Ministries, is to provide conference wide assistance to persons living in poverty and refer them to resources that are reliable and accessible. Hot meals, pantry foods, clothing, limited shelter, health information and resource referrals are made available at UMCS Centers.

With the addition of Ferndale UMC and Patapsco UMC, UMCS now supports 11 Service Centers in three Conference Regions. UMCS hopes to establish Service Centers in every District.

In communities where poverty prevails, resources often are not adequate for local churches to provide meaningful assistance to those in need. A primary mission of UMCS is to identify and recruit congregations able and willing to become supporting partners to those churches so that significant outreach ministries can be offered.

The theme of UMCS, “United to Serve,” expresses our conviction that, together, we have the opportunity to dramatically increase our support of churches on the front line that are anxious to make a difference in the lives of those who live in poverty.

The purpose of our online UMCS Directory is to offer pastors and the public a guide indicating where reliable resources are available. The website provides information about outreach ministries being offered by local United Methodist churches and by the Conference, including community organizations and government agencies. You may reach the site by using the shortcut address: UMCSER.org in Google, or by bringing up the Conference website and then choosing, “Ministries,” “Mission,” and “United Methodist Community Services” in that order. The url address is: <http://umcsbwc.wordpress.com/>.

We invite local pastors or administrators to include information about their church’s outreach ministries on the local United Methodist portion of the website. To enter or change your church’s outreach ministries information, go to: <https://gateway.bwcumc.org/bwcssa/>. Log-in using your Gateway ID and password. Next, click on the link located on the left navigation labeled, “UMCS Home Page for Church Leaders.” You will then see a page with links for updating your church’s contact information and for updating an account of the assistance ministries being offered. Click on the appropriate link; then click on the name of your church. Update your church’s information. When you are finished, make sure you click on the “Save” button which you will see by moving the scroll bar to the bottom of the page.

Congregational members and missions volunteers are invited to use our Blog, (umcsblog.org) to share inspirational experiences involving persons to whom they or the church have given assistance. We ask churches to share information about successful fund-raising efforts they have conducted to support outreach ministries.

A FAMILY DAY FOR EVERYONE

Everyone in the Conference was invited to attend a Day of Celebration at scenic West River Campsite in Churchton, Md., Saturday, June 13. The day began with a 5-3-1 K walk/run beginning at 9:30 a.m. Several local churches will present praise band music in the afternoon. There will be games for all who attend, including volley ball, basketball, sack races, relays, swimming and boating between 1 and 4:30 p.m. Picnic food and beverages will be available. Proceeds will benefit Conference Camper-ships for children and UMCS ministries.

We urge local churches to contribute to United Methodist Community Services ministries on behalf of those living in poverty. It is our hope that your church will consider receiving an offering or conducting a fund-raiser during 2015 to support the expanding needs of the UMCS assistance network.

We depend on your contributions to continue and expand this important work. UMCS is a Conference Advance Special, Acct. 0025-885-45000. Please send your contributions to Paul Eichelberger, Treasurer, 11711 East Market Place, Fulton, MD 20759. Contributions by individuals can be sent to the Treasurer or by using the website or blog contribution feature.

THE PHILOS ENDOWMENT FUND

BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

The “Philos Endowment Fund,” invested through the Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation, a 501C3 corporation, has been established to provide reliable future financial support for UMCS. We are eager to share information about how you can contribute to this valuable mission. If you are interested, please call 410-923-6572.

To contact the UMCS Communications and Administration office, e-mail UMCSBWC@verizon.net. The toll-free phone number is 1-877-386-UMCS.

Rev. Don Llewellyn, UMCS Executive Director
Sandra Ferguson, Connectional Ministries Director

United Methodist Historical Society (CC)

Since 1855, for 160 years, through civil and international conflict, economic prosperity, depression and recession, calamitous fire and storm, this Society has faithfully sought to carry out its mission of gathering, preserving and sharing our United Methodist and Pan-Methodist heritage as an instrument of discernment and empowerment for mission and discipleship in the world where God has placed the “People called Methodists” who are “one throughout the world” and who are witnesses together to the truth of John Wesley’s last words: “The best of all is that God is with us!”

It was in February, 1904, that the Great Baltimore Fire destroyed the entire center of the City – including the Methodist Episcopal Book Rooms. By the quick-witted efforts of a postal clerk, who just happened to be a Methodist and a member of the Historical Society, a wagon load of artifacts and documents (e.g., Francis Asbury’s portrait and his original Ordination Certificate handwritten by Thomas Coke, the “Strawbridge Pulpit,” along with a few other items) were rescued and placed in the fireproof vault at what was then First Church.

The Rev. John Franklin Goucher, whose foresight had brought First Church uptown in 1884, and erected Stanford White’s architectural masterpiece as a Centennial Monument to the Christmas Conference, was then the President of the Society and had re-chartered it as the “American Methodist Historical Society” in order to emphasize a pan-Methodist hope that shared history and heritage could become a unifying and re-unifying force in American Methodism. Toward that end, Dr. Goucher lifted up and displayed items from the society’s collections for special events, such as the first meeting of the Joint Commission on Methodist Reunification, which convened in the church in 1916.

For the last 60 years, since the Centennial of the Historical Society in 1955 when the congregation set aside and furnished space for it, this monumental church has housed a museum to properly conserve and display the collection of the Historical Society. That was the year that the congregation under the leadership of its Pastor, the Rev. Kenneth Ray Rose (1921-1998), renamed First Church “Lovely Lane” so that its humble origins in the meetinghouse of that name, where the Christmas Conference took place, would always be remembered.

It was also at this time that the Rev. Edwin Schell (1923-2011) was first given time away from his pastoral appointment to work in the museum at Lovely Lane. He would re-charter the Society in 1962 and retire as Conference Historian and Archivist after 50 years of service.

By charter the Pastor of Lovely Lane serves as Curator of the Museum. For the last 15 years, the Rev. Nancy Nedwell has been a tremendous boon to the Society’s work and her presence will be greatly missed when she retires this year.

The Lovely Lane congregation supplies a cadre of excellent docents, or tour guides, as well as a core group of volunteers who enhance and carry on much of the work of the Museum. The Church has continued to make more and more space accessible to the Historical Society and, since 1968, to the Conference Commission on Archives and History.

The union between the Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren Church in 1968 broadened further the interests of the Conference Historical Society, especially in this region which had witnessed the ministry of Bishop Philip William Otterbein in Baltimore and western Maryland from its earliest days and the creation of the United Brethren Church at Frederick in 1800.

The advent of United Methodism also brought about the advent of Commissions on Archives and History in each Annual Conference. From its inception, our Conference Commission met jointly with the Historical Society's Board. Conference responsibility for keeping historic records and staffing its archives began to be defined. An archival vault was soon constructed under the south portico of Lovely Lane and the hours of Ed Schell and his assistant in the archives were gradually increased, the beginning of a cooperative spirit that has stood the tests of the ensuing years.

That this relationship between the Society and the Commission has never been formalized is a mark of the goodwill existing between the members. At its 2014 Annual Meeting, however, the Society's membership approved a new charter which does define the existing relationship. We are realizing that 2015 may well be a year of changing relationships, with a new pastor at Lovely Lane and the Commission's new place in the Conference as part of Discipleship Ministries.

The Society also revised its schedule of membership fees in 2014. Individual membership continues to be $25. Other annual membership levels now include $10 student (through undergraduate) or youth (up to age 21), $35 couple, $100 group (including church). Those who hold Life Membership continue to hold that status, but the fee for new life memberships is now $1,000. We will also recognize contributions by individuals or couples in excess of the standard membership as Historian's Team $75, Curator's Club $150, and Director's Circle $250.

Membership includes a quarterly newsletter, Third Century Methodism, as well as the annual meeting. In 2015, we hope to add other events as a benefit of membership. We are pleased to have renewed our partnership with the Baltimore Appliqué Society and hope to offer some lecture/exhibits as part of that partnership. We also hope to inaugurate an Ed Schell Lecture Series on United Methodist History.

In 2014, the Society was able to offer a Special Edition of Third Century Methodism, with reprints of articles concerning the Washington Conference, to those attending the Sesquicentennial celebration. Our Annual Meeting was devoted to the Washington Conference as well, held June 21 at Sharp Street Memorial UMC in Baltimore and including a bus tour to Washington Conference sites in the City of Baltimore. The story of Mt. Auburn Cemetery, its long slide into disrepair, its recent renaissance through a unique partnership, and its continuing needs were detailed.

In 2015, our Annual Meeting will take place at Asbury UMC in Washington, DC. The Washington Annual Conference met for the last time in 1965 at American University and we will be marking the 50th anniversary year of that event. Asbury Church has a long and rich history in Washington, beginning in 1836 when a group of African-Americans left Foundry Church.

When the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. came to Washington Cathedral on April 3, 1968, to preach what would tragically prove to be his last Sunday morning sermon, he told those assembled that "We must face the sad fact that at eleven o'clock on Sunday morning when we stand to sing 'In Christ there is no East or West,' we stand in the most segregated hour of America."

That remains a painful fact of our history and demands our consideration. We were particularly pleased last year when Foundry and Asbury UMC's forged a partnership, Toward the Beloved Community, to consider the reasons that their churches and others have been segregated by race. We applaud the efforts of Foundry and Asbury churches to take the opportunity of Foundry's Bicentennial to reflect upon the effects of racism, separation and segregation among the Methodists of their community.

We look forward a year to 2016 which will mark the Bicentennial of the Death of Bishop Francis Asbury. While he died in Virginia on the way to General Conference of 1816, his public funeral services and interment took place in Baltimore as part of the General Conference in May, 1816. Asbury's death marked the end of an epoch as a purely "American" church could now develop on its own after the pioneer bishop's tutelage. Preparation for an appropriate observance in Baltimore of this major historical milestone will form an important undertaking during the years ahead.

The Historical Society of the UMC will be meeting with the Northeastern Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History in Delaware May 23-25, 2016. It is hoped that many attendees will cross the Chesapeake or Susquehanna and make the pilgrimage to Baltimore and Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Asbury's final resting place. Seeing that this historic site is ready to receive the anticipated stream of distinguished visitors and pilgrims must be a priority for Baltimore-Washington Conference United Methodists.

Mt. Olivet is unique among the historical sites of the denomination and is in many respects the "National Cemetery of American Methodism." Within its 53 acres over 200 United Methodist preachers lie buried. Though once supported by a number of Methodist Churches, the preservation of Mt. Olivet has fallen to one, Lovely Lane, which also bears the responsibility of maintaining the monumental church which is our home. Like Mt. Auburn, Mt. Olivet has continuing needs which strain the resources of a single local church.

In its "Bishop's Lot" alone, a host of those who were the light of their times are gathered, including Francis Asbury, founding bishop; Bishop John Emory, namesake of Emory University now in Atlanta; Bishop Beverly Waugh, long-time senior bishop of the M.E. Church; Bishop Enoch George, among the earliest American-born bishops; Robert Strawbridge, first Methodist preacher in America; Elizabeth Strawbridge, Robert's spouse and probably responsible for the evangelization of the first "convert" in America; Jesse Lee, pioneer of Methodism in New England and first historian of the church.

In the last century, its population of prominent United Methodists has only increased with the addition of such figures as Lyttleton F. Morgan, passionate advocate for education of African Americans and namesake of Morgan University in Baltimore; E. Stanley Jones, world-renowned missionary (who was converted and made his commitment to service in the old Memorial Church on the grounds of the Cemetery); Brother Stanley's wife Mabel Lossing Jones, herself a renowned missionary-educator; and as the planned resting place of the late Bishop James K. Mathews.

We in the Baltimore-Washington Conference are custodians of a wealth of United Methodist History. Fundamentally, the Historical Society of the Baltimore-Washington Conference exists and carries on its mission supported by the membership of concerned United Methodists and other friends. We appreciate the support of our many members and encourage those who have not already done so to join the Society. Please go to the new website, www.lovelylanemuseum.org, to join online.

Vibrant Communities (CC)

The Office of Vibrant Communities helps congregations in the Baltimore-Washington Conference reach new people for Christ. It is this passion that guides every activity, training event, consultation or coaching relationship sponsored and supported by Vibrant Communities.

Our primary task is to assist our congregations to "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world” by equipping and empowering them to

- Reach more people with the good news of the Gospel
- Grow more people as gifted and called disciples of Jesus and
- Send more people into the world to love and serve God as well as their neighbors.

When our congregations, as vibrant faith communities, engage in doing and living these practices inevitably growth occurs and their impact on their communities is increased.

The ministry of the Vibrant Communities Office falls generally into two areas:

1. Creating new places for new people

During the past year, the Vibrant Communities Office has continued to provide assessment, training, coaching and support to our existing new faith communities and to enable the development of new faith communities in the BWC:

- Alpha Community in Washington, DC;
- Bethany Korean Mission in Ellicott City, MD
- First Saints UMC in California, MD
- Sowers of the Seed in the Dundalk and East Baltimore, Maryland
- Hezekiah House- in Shepherdstown, WV
- Oakdale Clarksburg- in Olney, MD
- and we celebrate the launch of a new faith community in the College Park/Hyattsville area reaching the growing Hispanic/Latino population

2. Revitalizing Existing Congregations

Over the past 12 months, more than 500 clergy and laity representing nearly 179 congregations in the BWC have participated in at least one workshop or training event sponsored by the Office of Vibrant Communities.

All designed to help local congregations connect with their mission field and reach the people who live, work and play there, these events provided insight into topics such as:

- How to Reach New People
- Turning Tippers into Tithers
- Using MissionInsite to Connect with Your Mission Field
- Seven Styles of Worship
- Four Things That Will Grow Your Church
- Get Their Names
- Renovate or Die

In the year ahead, the Vibrant Communities Office will continue to provide low-cost, local, practical, hands on training opportunities to help BWC congregations grow their ministries and reach new people for Christ.

Rev. Antoine C. Love, Director for Vibrant Communities

Volunteers In Mission (CC)

United Methodist Volunteers In Mission (VIM) is a grassroots movement within The United Methodist Church designed to provide an official channel whereby Christians, both lay and clergy, may offer their skills and talents for Christian service at home and around the world on short term assignments. Their work includes construction and renewing of mission facilities; teaching, witnessing and conducting medical clinics; conducting Bible study or Bible School for children; and serving in disaster relief efforts around the world.

We encourage groups forming mission teams to register as a VIM team by completing the Volunteer Mission Team Application found on the Conference website: <http://bwcumc.org/ministries/vim/>.

VIM insurance is available for all VIM teams. Information and forms are available online by the United Methodist Volunteers in Mission, The Northeastern Jurisdiction website: <http://www.nejumc.org>.

UM YOUTH MISSIONS offers amazing work mission destinations for youth connected with The United Methodist Church. Their resources provide helpful ideas on how youth may use their God-given gifts in the Wesleyan tradition of service to others. Follow them at @umyouthmissions and on Facebook.

During Annual Conference 2014, Volunteers in Mission training was offered in the Pre-Conference workshops. “Participating in God’s Mission” was led by the Rev. Malcolm Frazier, Executive Secretary of Mission Volunteers, General Board of Global Ministries. This workshop was designed to equip Volunteers In Mission teams as they participate in God’s mission. Participants were given “A Mission Journey Handbook” that included details to address before, during and after the mission experience.

In March 2015, BWC hosted The Northeastern Jurisdiction UNVIM-UMCOR Training Academy at our West River Retreat and Camping Center. This event was designed to provide an introduction to those who have not yet been involved in this type of mission service and to expand the skills and education of those who already have a basic understanding. Participants were given information on establishing VIM teams, training, foundations of disaster ministry, and a tool kit for managing information on social media.

During 2014, nine VIM teams from the Baltimore-Washington Conference visited areas within the United States and three countries to help rebuild lives and property. Those who received help as well as those who provided help, greatly benefited from the experience and sharing the love of our Lord.

If you or your church is planning Volunteers in Mission trip, please contact me for information. Prayers for a safe and life changing experience!

Pam Bowen, BWC Volunteer in Missions Staff, pbowen@bwcumc.org.

Young Adult Council (CC)

The focus for the Young Adult Council for the year has been on training, resourcing, and providing opportunities to build or enhance young adult ministries throughout the conference.

The Young Adult Council helped support two college students to attend the Global Young People’s Convocation and Legislative Assembly in the Philippines this past July. Within hours of arriving, a typhoon hit the area but it did not stop the event from taking place. Youth and young adults from around the globe gathered to discuss issues and vote on different petitions. The most heated topics centered on sexual orientation and the role of the church.

In an effort to strengthen the relationship with campus ministry, the Young Adult Council helped to fund ministries at Howard University and Frostburg State University. In addition, they partnered with the Rev. Brett Pinder (campus minister for the University of MD) at the annual ROCK youth retreat. High school seniors and young adult leaders were encouraged to fill out an information card in order to receive a free music download card and be entered to win an iPad. Contact information was collected so that students currently attending college (or who will begin college in the fall) could be connected to campus ministers at their school or with a local congregation near their campus. And young adult leaders who filled out the registration could then also be connected to other young adults in their districts.

The council established a funding application that individuals or churches can fill out to apply for funding of existing young adult ministries or to help kick-start new ministries. The council has already supported ministries at the Journey of Faith, Good Shepherd (Baltimore), and Randall UMC. Each of these churches applied for funding from the council to help enhance an existing ministry within their church. The council looks forward to receiving additional funding requests in the upcoming year and aiding churches with funding and also providing guidance and resources.

Members of the Young Adult Council attended and presented information at each of the regional Leadership Days events in order to provide training for churches interested in starting their own young adult ministry. In addition, they compiled a list of resources for use in young adult ministry groups.

As of the writing of this report, the council is actively planning a conference wide young adult event to take place in the summer. The 3-day event will be geared towards young adults, ages 18-35, and will focus on fellowship, discernment of God's will in our lives, and reconciliation.

Please continue to hold the Young Adult Council in prayer as it continues to find ways to connect and engage young adults to the church and make disciples for Christ.

Zimbabwe Partnership Team (CC)

This year has been a year of planning, success, and outstanding mission work with our partners and friends in the Zimbabwe Episcopal Area (ZEA). In the aftermath of a highly successful Pastor's School in July 2013, work began between the BWC and ZEA partnership teams to carve out a new covenantal partnership agreement that will strategically guide our mission and congregational work together in the years ahead.

That partnership agreement, negotiated by Bishops Marcus Matthews of the BWC and Eben Nhwatiwa of the ZEA, had its framework developed and nurtured at the massive Ebenezer Convention in Harare, Zimbabwe, in which upwards of 65,000 Zimbabweans attended. The BWC Zimbabwe partnership team, presented by Assistant to the Bishop, the Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, presented words of encouragement and a sizable financial gift to demonstrate our commitment and support to our collective mission work in Zimbabwe.

The agreement was finalized this past November and, amongst many things, it will foster the continued support of construction of church buildings, parsonages, schools, educational advancement opportunities for young people, clinics, congregational and community development, the Pastors' School, children, youth and young adult ministry development, pastoral exchange possibilities and other ministry opportunities.

Through the leadership of Maidstone Mulenga and Charlie Moore, the Volunteers in Mission (VIM) coordinator of the Zimbabwe Partnership Team, new ventures around potential health care partnerships and communications support in village areas are being discussed. Our partnership continues to provide powerful and effective VIM ministry in various towns and villages in Zimbabwe through the great work of volunteers from Community UMC in Crofton, Bel Air UMC in Bel Air, and the gifts of financial resources and time offered by many other congregations in the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

The partnership is in great shape, with a bright future ahead of us. That future will continue with the VIM efforts on the ground, and the celebration of our 10th BWC-ZEA Pastors' School, which will be held this July at Africa University. Thanks be to God!

Joseph W. Daniels, Jr., Chair, Zimbabwe Partnership Team

REPORTS FROM THE DISTRICTS

Annapolis District

As the Annapolis District prepares for annual conference 2015 under the banner of “Dare to Believe”, we have truly embodied those words in the last year! The seventy-one churches have in ways great and small dared to believe and witness the miracles of Christ in our midst. We are clear on our mission and energized by our ministries to make disciples for Jesus Christ.

Adams UMC in Lothian has made new connections in their community through their feeding program. Not only has the community been blessed, but also the members have discovered the blessing in being in God’s instrument.

Mt. Zion Lothian dared to believe they could impact the lives of young people in southern Anne Arundel County. Last summer Mt. Zion offered a sport camps. Children were in a safe and wholesome environment and parents were secure in knowing their children would learn new skills and find community under the watchful and attentive eyes of trusted adult leaders.

Hall UMC lost their fellowship hall to a devastating fire 10 years ago. Not only was the building completely destroyed, but the bathrooms for the facilities were located there as well. This congregation needed to replace the bathrooms in order to effectively connect with the surrounding community. They dared to believe and after years of waiting, fundraising, and praying, they broke ground on the new fellowship hall and appropriate restroom facilities. Progress has been slow over the years, but God has proven faithful and the church has still grown in spite of the obstacles. Another new ministry Hall has embarked upon is called “Sweeter Dreams Ministry.” This ministry purchased pillows and pillowcases for guests in the Winter Relief program in Anne Arundel County. More than two hundred pillows have been distributed during this winter season.

The United Methodist Men of Annapolis have been active this year as well. I applaud the United Methodist Men of Calvary UMC that took on the challenge of purchasing portable showers to assist Arundel House of Hope to minister to the homeless in Anne Arundel County. Now churches can participate in housing the homeless in the winter even if they don’t have shower facilities. Also the men of the Annapolis District sponsored a retreat weekend for men. Greg Arnold, staff from the General Commission of the United Methodist Men and founder of the men’s ministry magazine LiveBold, led the plenary sessions and boldly challenged the district to continue to build men’s ministry in local congregations.

Churches dared to believe new youth ministries could be established. Centenary and Asbury Arnold successfully launched new ministries to attract and nurture youth. They started small but now have grown with visions of further growth. Pasadena UMC chose to establish and expand its Scouting ministries for youth. Pasadena now sponsors Venturing Crew, Boys Scouts, Cub Scouts, Daisies, and Jr. Girl Scouts. This ministry impacts not only the lives of youth in the church, but attracts youths from the neighborhood.

Asbury in Jessup established a new partnership with the Marine Corp Toys for Tots. 300 toys were loaded on a large capacity truck to distribute to needy families. Out of its commitment to youth ministry Asbury began a Male Mime Ministry to enhance worship and act as a small group to support young males in their maturation.

Mayo UMC dared to believe it could connect with its community in more tangible ways. During the summer Mayo UMC plans to offer free outdoor movies, complete with popcorn and drinks. In addition this congregation reached out to the nearby firehouse to offer support by preparing meals to show their appreciation and encourage a continuing partnership.

These are only a few examples of how churches in the Annapolis District are making a difference in their communities and helping to build God's Kingdom. The level of creativity and commitment is astonishing. We dare to believe that the Christ in us can and should be shared with others. We dare to believe that we can let our light shine. We dare to believe our ministries and witness can expand into our neighborhoods and communities. We dare to believe that Christ will help us make a difference. 311 persons have been baptized in our churches; 415 souls have made a profession of faith and 44 reaffirmed their faith. Numbers cannot tell it all, but they point to the life and vitality in our churches.

The Annapolis District will continue to strive to create beloved communities where we are. Our ministry of mercy and justice will shine forth and our ministries of worship and devotion will nurture our lives and impact the lives of others. From Elkridge in the north, to Laurel in the west, to Broadneck off the bay to Friendship in the south, the Annapolis District strives to make disciples for Jesus Christ. In prayer, through faith, we dare to embrace the Great Commission, not as individuals, but as a community known as the Annapolis District in the Baltimore Washington Conference.

Baltimore Metropolitan District

In the Baltimore Metropolitan District we dare to believe that:

- We have gifted laity. We have called our Certified Lay Ministers and Lay Servants together periodically to encourage them to partner together in ministry beyond their local churches. Out of these meetings, new ministries have been born, including a ministry with veterans. In addition, we partnered with our sister district, Baltimore Suburban, and Connexions School in Baltimore to provide an awesome Leadership Day
- We can sometimes have good ideas that don't work out the way we thought they would. So we have ended our Infinite Grace new church start and are going to focus attention on the revitalization of West Baltimore UMC.
- We can be intentional about building multi-cultural faith communities. Work has begun with Piney Grove UMC to develop a Hispanic faith community which will be an integral part of the existing Anglo congregation.
- We can connect the academy and the local church. Over the last annual conference year, laity and clergy from 9-10 churches have gathered quarterly to engage with professors from Wesley Theological Seminary to refine their urban ministry skills.
- All of the churches in our district can have robust budgets. Therefore, we have worked with churches who have had difficulty making their pension and medical payments. As a result of free training, technical support, accountability, and the hard work of these local churches, there has been a reduction in the number of churches that have not been able to make their medical and pension payments.
- Our pastors should not have to live in housing that does not meet minimum standards; therefore, a group of volunteers has been working its way through our district renovating parsonages.
- Our clergy need to be acknowledged and appreciated – and that we can have a good time together. So the two Baltimore District Superintendents invited clergy from the Baltimore districts on a cruise in the Inner Harbor. We wobbled till we just couldn't wobble anymore.
- God continues to call and equip us to do the improbable. We believe we can walk on water.

Baltimore Suburban District

Being God's presence in our neighborhoods – This was a year for the Baltimore Suburban District to dare to grow in mission and our connection to our youth and young adults. Throughout 2014, the congregations in the Baltimore Suburban District empowered 640 more people than 2013 to be hands-on in mission in their neighborhoods. Our churches also saw a 17% increase in youth education ministries and an 11% increase in the number of young adults involved in small groups in their congregations.

Throughout this last year, the congregations in the Baltimore Suburban District have dared to be God's presence in their neighborhoods. Fallston UMC and Mount Zion UMC have dared us to see an end to human trafficking by educating and empowering their neighbors to that goal. Mays Chapel UMC dared us to be hands-on through their ongoing ministry of therapy for young people with disabilities. The members of Milford Mill UMC dared us to believe in God's abundance as they fed 1000 of their neighbors through one event. Pleasant Hill UMC has dared us to step outside of our expectations as they work with their partner school to share in the new diversity of their neighborhood. We dared to believe in the power of God working through us in our neighborhoods.

Central Maryland District

The Central Maryland District is made of mostly suburban and rural areas of upper Montgomery County, Howard County, and strips of Frederick and Carroll Counties.

This year's Leadership Day theme was "Let Your Life Speak". Over the past year, the Central Maryland District has been letting their life speak in a number of ways:

- In 2014 our churches let their life speak by increasing the number of people serviced in community ministries by 15%. That is close to 30,000 people who have been touched by disciples of Jesus Christ.
- In 2014 our churches let their life speak by increasing the number of people who participated in mission and/or community ministries by 25%. That is an additional 2,200 people who have committed to live their life as disciples of Jesus Christ.
- In 2014 our churches let their life speak by increasing the amount of money they spent on mission and ministry costs by 26%. That is over $100,000 spent in ministry as disciples of Jesus Christ.
- In 2014 our churches let their life speak by increasing the amount of money they gave directly to benevolent and charitable causes by 11%. That is an additional $70,000 given as a living testament of their commitment to be disciples of Jesus Christ.
- In 2015, St. John United Church in Columbia took part in a pilot Vibrant Communities Initiative. During this pilot, the church was assessed and participated in a training weekend that culminated in a set of recommendations. St. John has committed to implementing the recommendations.
- In April 2015, Epworth United Methodist Church in Gaithersburg partnered with the community in Gaithersburg to do a Youth Summit with youth and police and used dialogue circles, similar to what was done last year at annual conference, as a springboard for further relationship building to discover ways on how they can build dialogue and conversation. The idea started at Epworth and was immediately embraced by the Gaithersburg community with the help of the beloved Community Association at Asbury Methodist Village. It was a powerful summit.
- A few months ago, FaithPoint United Methodist Church in Urbana launched an online campus called Church Online. The goal is to turn an online church space into a place where we can transcend barriers of time, space, finances and everything else. This will allow us to come together and witness to the good news about what God has in store for us and what God has been working on inside each and every one of us. This ministry has allowed FaithPoint to be responsive to where the community is. They are creating connection points for people who don't go to church.

In 2014, we were blessed by a 94.8% apportionment collection rate. This is the highest collection rate in the past 10 years. I thank the clergy and lay leaders in the Central Maryland District and hope and pray that we would continue to keep our commitment in expressing our covenant as the United Methodist Church.

Cumberland-Hagerstown District

The Cumberland – Hagerstown District is primarily made up of Morgan County and a small sliver of Mineral County, West Virginia, plus the Maryland counties of Allegany, Washington and a slice of Frederick.

This year some highlights include: more snow at the Conference Mission Center than Cumberland; more school missed in Baltimore than Frostburg State University; and hunters got their deer quota while fewer bears were seen roaming the countryside.

While well-dressed politicians sit in Annapolis debating the pros and cons of oil fracking and strip mining the people of the Cumberland – Hagerstown District live with these practices and the results of employment, unemployment, and environmental realities of these policies. Median income for the Cumberland Valley continued to decline and made it the 13th poorest area in the United States.

Morgan County suffered through a difficult recall of the school bond that reduced local school funding to near crisis levels. Teachers were laid off or quickly sought employment elsewhere.

Governor Hogan declared that heroin is a crisis in the state of Maryland. Pastors in the Cumberland – Hagerstown district offer words of comfort and faith to families who have lost children and grandchildren to the inevitable conclusion of drug overdose, heroin and meth addiction. Meth labs hide in the hills and trickle down to infect the small towns of this district. The faith of grandmothers and grandfathers of the church are the words of hope for an addicted generation.

Some pastors and churches are actively involved in Kairos prison ministry to the 5 Maryland state prisons housed in the district. It is a theological irony and sadness that the day of the writing of this report a pastor has related to me the joy and freedom expressed by men in prison who have discovered the power of faith, and, in his next breath, telling me the story of conducting a funeral for a 40-year-old ex-soldier who had killed himself because of the prison of post-traumatic stress disorder from his military service and the pressures of being home.

With joy we keep making apple butter, holding craft shows, filling the church yard with vacation Bible school students, play basketball (church attendance required), and fellowship together with old fashioned picnics, volleyball and corn roasts.

Mission trips to Dominican Republic, schools dresses for Haiti, day labor for overseas missions through Brethren center, Rescue mission feeding program and Bikes for the World are just a few of the extensions of God's love that fill the lives of the people of the Cumberland – Hagerstown District.

We preach the Gospel; we sing to God be the Glory; we pray for the least, the last and the lost; we send in our apportionments on time and at 100%; we are city people, town people, mountain people, creek people, valley people, river people, by the side of the road people, and God's people. Some of us are young; most are mature. Some of us are seekers; most of us are established in our faith. Some of us are reaching out to those we do not know; others of us are holding on to what we know best. We are the Cumberland – Hagerstown District. We are Baltimore-Washington Conference people. We are the people called United Methodist!

Frederick District

The Frederick District covers a large geographical area that extends through portions of two counties in Maryland, Carroll and Frederick, as well as Berkeley and Jefferson counties in West Virginia. The Frederick District congregations continue to build bridges in the communities they are called to serve. As we continue to strive to connect with the people God calls us to serve we are also accepting the challenge to dare to believe what God can do when we say yes to Christ's invitation.

The Frederick District is building bridges of grace through the ministry of the Calvary-Centennial Cooperative Parish in partnership with local congregations from the Frederick area. The mission and ministry at Centennial is touching lives that are being transformed through their labor of love. Centennial is a beacon in the city of Frederick through their Celebrate Recovery program, through their ‘Second Street and Hope’ ministry to the homeless, and through their weekly Worship and Bible study opportunities.

The Frederick District is building bridges through the Berkeley County Cluster of United Methodist Churches (BCCUMC). These are 25 United Methodist Churches throughout Berkeley County, West Virginia, who gather together on a monthly basis to embrace collaboration with a missional focus. The BCCUMC identifies opportunities to revitalize the community and addresses areas of need; striving to bear faithful witness of Jesus Christ through its service to him. Last January they held a Music Fest to raise funds for Habitat for Humanity to support building houses for homeless veterans.

The Frederick District is building bridges across the Region through collaborative regional events such as Leadership Day as well as initiatives to strengthen and support our local congregations through trainings and seminars. The Western Region provided trainings on Mission Insite and brought in Rev. Bob Farr as a resource for a seminar touching on both of his books “Renovate or Die” and “Get their Name”.

The Frederick District is also building bridges among our clergy through voluntary monthly gathering opportunities at each of the four counties. These are times for prayer, support, study, and fellowship that strengthen our ties as a connectional church. In addition it is important to acknowledge the commitment of our district congregations in support of our larger connection and mission through their apportionment giving where 93% of our churches paid 100%.

There is so much that can be said in regards to the ongoing ministry taking place at the local church level and its impact in their communities. We have a story to tell and a Gospel to share and it is my conviction that the Holy Spirit will continue to lead us to vital and vibrant ministries of presence and transformation.

Greater Washington District

In the Greater Washington District, we celebrate:

- That almost all of our congregations are meeting more people’s tangible needs this year than last year. A significant number of our pastors and congregations helped get someone a job, transitioned a person out of homelessness, assisted someone in obtaining access to healthcare, invested in the life of a child at a local school, made new or deepened existing community partnerships, have taken a stand with marginalized people, had at least one adult profession of faith, had at least one baptism, saw an increase in membership and/or average worship attendance.
- The movement of the Holy Spirit East of the River. Initial movement has occurred around Mount Vernon and includes: 8 new young adult members (and their 6 children) since July 1; hot meals and programming 3 times a week in collaboration with Dottie Younger and Metropolitan’s Campus Kitchen. The commitment of Metropolitan to partner with leaders, churches and communities East of the River to create sustainable food, environmental and educational solutions and make steps toward justice and healing.
- The refurbishing and re-opening of a part of Calvary/Casa del Pueblo and beginning connections to our Spanish speaking neighbors in Columbia Heights.
- Inspire DC—the planting arm of the Young Adult Discipling Network has 750 names of young adults – and growing – in our collective orbit. We have launched an Inspiring Conversation Campaign with a commitment of 450 conversations by July 1, 2015.
- Downtown (Asbury, Foundry, MVP, with United & Howard) and Eastern MoCo (Colesville, Emmanuel, Good Hope Union, Liberty Grove, Oak Chapel) packed 128,000 meals for Stop Hunger Now.

- The District Youth Initiative was launched in November with a Get In the Game event to equip leaders to engage with youth that drew over people from most of our congregations. Some have started or revitalized their youth ministries since this day. From this a regular district-wide middle school youth gathering—YNO—began in January that has about 30 youth from across the district engaged. This fall we will be launching workshops. A big thanks to our Greater Washington Youth Coordinator, Don Hauprich, for providing leadership.
- Nueva Vida—with support from College Park, Mowatt Memorial and the rest of the Upper Prince George’s cluster is continuing to reach Hispanic/Latino families in the College Park area.
- We are securing emerging partnerships with Wesley, Expectations Project and other community and church entities to help transform communities.
- In December -- in the aftermath of the Michael Brown and Eric Gardner travesties – the district came together to address the issues of racial justice and reconciliation within the Washington area. The gathering of 160 people self-selected topics to discuss including the pre-school to prison pipeline, white privilege in the LGBTQ community, community/police relationships, legislation for special prosecutor assignment and accountability and more. More conversations, commitments to action and training will continue in the future.

Washington East District

“What does it look like to have 6,000 pounds of fresh produce unloaded onto the church parking lot?” Through a partnership with Farming4Hunger, a Southern Maryland non-profit committed to local fresh food feeding local hungry people, several Washington East District churches discovered the answer. The typical mobile food drop involves local church members arriving to help unload the truck, sort and bag the produce, and then setting up to distribute the corn, green beans, sweet potatoes, potatoes, and a variety of other seasonal produce, to anyone from the community who is in need of food. What a gift to serve their neighbors this way, with the love of Jesus Christ.

Partnerships are sprouting all around Washington East. Just a few examples of church/community partnerships include working with a mental health group to provide services to veterans, working with a local plant nursery to develop a community garden, partnering with local elementary schools to ensure no child goes home hungry over the weekend, partnering with professional athletes to provide summer camp experiences that form character and fitness, and distributing food consistently with local community support services. Churches partner with each other to share the love of Christ, through worship services visible in the community, in ministry with young adults, and to provide for those in shelters and in need of shelter.

Special events over the last year included a youth gathering at a local corn maze for a fall fellowship festival that included amazing testimonies from the youth, and a highlight of the summer was our attendance at a minor league baseball game where one of our pastors threw out the first pitch for raising funds for Imagine No Malaria and a district choir sang “God Bless America” for the crowd.

Our regional Leadership Days shattered attendance records, as we were prepared to learn intensively about missional church. We are making a shift, from internal to external focus, and from program development to people development, to quote author Reggie McNeal, our keynote speaker. The amazing laity and clergy of the Washington East District live that out everyday with passionate and generous spirits, borne of Christ’s passion and love for us. Our active UMM, UMW, lay servants, and CLMs serve with true commitment to the mission. Many around the district are hearing God’s call to ministry, and responding with their whole hearts. Teams serve in local, regional, and international missions and further relationships around the world. The quality of authentic worship, the commitment to being disciplined and making disciples, and the desire to impact the community for the sake of the kingdom is inspiring to me each day. I give thanks to God everyday for the Washington East District, and look forward to all that God is doing among us and through us!

STEWARDSHIP MINISTRIES

Board of Trustees (CC)

As this is my first report to the Annual Conference as the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, I would like to begin with a heartfelt “thank you” to the Rev. Tony Love, our previous Chairperson. He faithfully guided this Board and acted with grace and understanding on behalf of this Annual Conference. As Trustees of the Baltimore Washington Conference, our primary role is to safeguard and protect the interests and rights of the Annual Conference.

While it would be difficult to summarize all of the Trustee Board’s work, I would like to note some of the Board’s accomplishments:

When there is a discontinuance or closure or abandonment of a church, by Discipline, the Trustees assume responsibility for the church’s assets, records, buildings and land as well as its disposition. We have diligently worked to prepare a number of properties for sale. With the approval of the Bishop and a majority of the District Superintendents, Strawbridge United Methodist Church and Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church (both Baltimore City churches); as well as Warren Chapel United Methodist Church in Mt. Airy, and John Wesley United Methodist Church in Joppa, were sold. The Board continues to prepare a number of other properties for future purpose and/or sale.

We have been working with the Greater Washington District and their effort to reach young adults in DC. By using proceeds from the sale of properties in the District, we have supported their young adult planning zone. Calvary-Casa del Pueblo United Methodist Church in Washington, D.C., has undergone minimal renovation and is serving as a base of operations. We continue to discern the future of this property. Partial repayment of our loan to Be the Change has been received and the Board is making preparations to receive any remaining assets as that organization dissolves.

We were also able to purchase additional acreage for Camp Harmison in the Western Region.

We continue to face challenges particularly as we continue to work through the legal issues of White Rock United Methodist Church’s decision to leave the Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church and sought ownership of their property. The Trustees, working in cooperation with Bishop Matthews, the Cabinet and legal counsel, sought reconciliation with our sisters and brothers at the White Rock Church while remaining resolved to preserve and protect the “trust clause” of the Book of Discipline. The White Rock Church’s resolution continues to be worked through.

As Trustees we continue to maintain and care for both the Mission Center and the Episcopal residence with the necessary repairs and upgrades being performed. The board is committed to assuring that our Conference has the necessary space for our Conference Staff, Boards, Committees and members to gather and that Bishop and Mrs. Matthews have a comfortable and adequate living space to call their home.

The Board of Trustees continued to provide training at the Regional Leadership Days on the role and responsibilities of local church Trustees as well as to support local churches by being available.

I am grateful to all of the Trustees who faithfully serve. And to the conference office on Finance and Administration, their cooperation and assistance has been invaluable.

ACTION ITEM OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEE BOARD

The Board of Trustees is recommending that the Annual Conference designate the Epperly Estate, an undesignated bequest of $76,049 for security and maintenance of our Annual Conference Camp properties.

Respectively Submitted,

Rev. Bill Brown, Chair

Becky Grover, Vice Chair

Rev. Wanda Duckett, Secretary

Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (CC)

The Board of Pensions and Health Benefits continues to pursue its goal of enabling clergy and lay staff to accomplish their ministries without concern for their long-term financial protection. We continue to position ourselves to face the challenges that lie ahead and to assist clergy and staff in their mission.

Pensions:

- Pre-82 Service Funding: The 2015 Past Service Rate (PSR) is confirmed at $615. We recommend that the PSR for 2016 be set at $640. ¶1506.7 (2012 Discipline) grants authority to the annual conference to review the annuity rate for Pre-82 service and to adjust the PSR rate as appropriate taking into consideration the changes in the economy. Such annuity rate may remain the same or be increased without restriction. The General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits actuarial valuation for Pre-82 Annuities as of January 1, 2014 showed a fully funded plan, no monies to be paid by BWC.
- Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) Funding: The General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits actuarial valuation for MPP Annuities as of January 1, 2014, showed that it is also a fully funded plan, no monies to be paid by BWC. Monies previously contributed to MPP will continue to be held in individual participant accounts.
- Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) Funding: The Baltimore Washington Conference funds the program as follows:
CRSP Defined Contribution (DC) - BWC continues to collect 3% of participant's plan compensation (Salary plus housing) to fund the Defined Contribution (DC). Two (2) percent goes directly to the participant's DC account. Participant is now required to enroll in the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) with a contribution of at least 1% of plan compensation in order to receive a match of up to 1%.
- CRSP Defined Benefit (DB) – BWC continues to collect 12% of participant's plan compensation limited by the DAC.
- Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP): BWC continues to collect 3% of a participant's plan compensation (salary plus housing) for the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). The CPP provides death and disability benefits for all eligible participants.

Health:

- HealthFlex: BWC will continue with the same health benefits plans offered by HealthFlex in 2016.
- Health Reform: The Conference Board of Pensions and the General Board of Pensions continue to evaluate the development of state level "Health Insurance Market Places" associated with the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010. Research to date has been inconclusive as to whether the various options that are made available through this legislation are either applicable or advantageous to those currently covered by HealthFlex. The Board's Task Force on Health Reform will continue to monitor developments and make recommendations that best serve clergy and lay employees, and congregations.
- Retirees: Retirees who are over age 65 will work with OneExchange (formerly Extend Health) to choose policies better suited to their individual needs and will be offered a stipend based on years of service. Retirees who are under age 65 or any future participants who retire before age 65 will remain on the active HealthFlex plan until the month they turn 65.

Social Security: Your Board strongly recommends that all clergy of the Conference participate in Social Security, and not exercise any conscience clauses to opt out of Social Security. Eligibility for Medical benefits through OneExchange in retirement and Disability benefits through the CPP program, are both dependent on participation in Social Security and Medicare. Thus, one's irrevocable decision to opt out of Social Security is a decision to be excluded from these Conference programs as well.

Arrearage: Local Church arrearages in payment for pastor's health care premiums and pension obligations have grown each year. Since the Conference first pays for Pension and Health benefits and then bills local churches, nonpayment of these bills imposes a burden on the other churches of the conference. As reported last year, Bishop Matthews appointed a Task Force with representatives from the Cabinet and the Board of Pensions. During 2014, the procedures developed by the Task Force were implemented. With the help of a District Superintendent, members of the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits and Church Committee chairs, congregations develop action plans to document their path forward as they agree to stay current in their payments. The objective is to make every effort to help churches return to health both in their ministry and their finances. Thirteen churches had signed documents to participate in the forbearance and revitalization program and we have collected past obligations totaling $170,855 from these churches. As a result, the total arrearage at the end of 2014 was $366,550.

Final Comments: The CBOPHB thanks Frances Tagoe, Director, Human Resources and Benefits, for her enthusiastic and professional work on behalf of our participants and the Board. She effectively communicates and administers the benefits based on Plan rules and regulations, the Book of Discipline, the Conference's policies and procedures, and all applicable state and federal laws so that there is an understanding of the benefits for our clergy and lay employees. It is her goal and the Board's goal to continue to provide the best possible benefits package for our plan participants, while maintaining the utmost care for and fiduciary responsibility to you, the Plan participants, and those in the Baltimore-Washington Conference for whom we owe the same. We wish to also give thanks to Christol Medley, Human Resources and Benefits Associate, Pier McPayten, Controller, and the District Superintendents who all support the work we do.

Communications Ministry (CC)

Last year was one of bold giving and creative living. It was a year when faith and church became entangled with ideas about intention, justice and belonging. It was a year of hope, dismay, joy, suffering and grace. God was present in the midst of it all – and so was the Baltimore-Washington Conference Communications team, with whom you shared your stories.

In the midst of a communications revolution outside the church doors, we made great strides last year in moving from merely being a source of information to becoming a vehicle of engagement – redefining what it means for United Methodists to be connectional with one another and the world.

One of our most significant achievements was the redesign of the Baltimore-Washington Conference website (www.bwcmc.org), which was done in a way that saved the conference tens of thousands of dollars while creating a cutting edge portal for information and resources for conference and local church leaders. In addition, this year, Communications created a new Conference app, restarted its video production component, and significantly increased its Facebook and Twitter audience and impact.

The team also provided training for local church administrators and other leaders; provided breaking news coverage to the denomination on several stories; redesigned the e-connection, the BWC's weekly electronic newsletter; and delivered 12 issues of the UMConnection, the award-winning newspaper, to nine key leaders in every church in the conference.

In the year ahead, we'll continue to more fully live out our devotion to communications as transformative ministry. We encourage you to share your ideas and stories with us as you become more fully alive in Christ and make a difference in a diverse and ever-changing world.

Mittie Quinn, Chair, Commission on Communications

Melissa Lauber, Director of Communications

Council on Finance and Administration (CC)

The Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) makes our report this year with an ongoing appreciation for the faithfulness and dedication of local churches of the Baltimore-Washington conference. Together, we are strong as a connectional church. One of the ways that strength expresses itself is through our shared financial stewardship. We are more able to carry out the vision we share when we are mutually accountable to one another. This report acknowledges our accountability to the BWC. In that spirit of mutuality, there is much to celebrate in the creation and growth of ministries both locally and globally.

2014 Financial Results (Pre-Audit):

Income

The apportionment income in 2014 was $13,883,390 with an overall collection rate of 90.77%. We celebrate the faithfulness demonstrated by our churches in reaching the highest collection rate in more than 10 years. It is also important to remember that 2014 was a significant year in which $1.5 million was raised for Imagine No Malaria to put us over the $2.1 million goal for the Conference. At the same time, we recognize that our collection rate budget was 92.5% and the apportionment income results were $264,564 below budget.

2014:	90.77%	2009:	89.24%
2013:	89.84%	2008:	87.00%
2012:	89.10% / 92.63%*	2007:	87.69%
2011:	90.46%	2006:	90.52%
2010:	90.51%	2005:	89.78%

* Originally reported as 92.63% after church statistical audits

The number of churches contributing 100% towards their apportionments remained high with 82% of our local churches meeting that standard. The number of churches giving 100% of their apportionments was 82% in 2013, 83% in 2012 and 79% in both 2011 and 2010.

The non-apportionment income in 2013 was $3.1 million. This was $79,000 more than the prior year and it helped to offset some of the shortfall in the apportionment income.

Expenses

The total expenses in 2014 were $17.3 million which was $188,000 (1.1%) more than the expenses in 2013. The most significant financial pressures were legal expenses that exceeded budget by $150,000, moving expenses at $105,000 over budget, and benefits that were $213,000 over budget. These were offset by under budget performance in the Mission Center mortgage of $54,000, Camping capital expenditures at $33,000 under budget, and retiree medical claims that were $157,000 under budget. We are thankful to the Board of Child Care that supported the refinancing of an existing bank loan at the West River camp with the existing Conference Mission Center mortgage and the long-term savings this will bring to the Conference.

Overall, the resulting net income prior to audit was a negative $300,179 which is 1.8% of budget. The lower than budget apportionment giving was the most significant factor in this result.

BWC Apportionment Base:

The expenses of a local church, minus dollars that are spent on mission, outreach, debt service and capital projects comprise what is known as the apportionment base for a church. The apportionment for a local church is derived by multiplying the apportionment base by the benevolence factor that is established by the Annual Conference when the budget is approved.

The apportionment base for the Conference is an accumulated total of the apportionment base that is calculated for each local church. The reported base increased by 1.1% in 2014. This builds on a growth rate in 2013 of 0.8%, which is a restatement from what was published in last year's report. The two years of growth ends two years of decline that were observed in 2011 and 2012.

The apportionment base trends for the Conference include:

2013:	$ 86,835,908 (+0.8% vs. 2012)
2012:	$ 86,169,509 (-1.3% vs. 2011)
2011:	$ 87,341,343 (-2.1% vs. 2010)
2010:	$ 89,250,232 (+6.1% vs. 2008)
2009:	Not Applicable – Kept the prior year's budget
2008:	$ 84,095,541 (+3.0% vs. 2007)
2007:	$ 81,646,157 (+3.8% vs. 2006)
2006:	$ 78,672,464

2016 Budget:

The proposed budget for 2016 is $17,160,466 which is 0.9% less than what was actually spent in 2014 and it is 1.0% less than what is budgeted to be spent in 2015. The apportionment income keeps the local church benevolence factor steady at 17.75% and the collection rate assumption is 92.0%.

Expense reductions are incorporated into the budget to recognize a 7.3% reduction in total staff compensation/benefits and a reduction in new church starts and new ministry grants of $100,000 or 9.5%. Legal expenses are funded higher at $130,000, an increase of $50,000.

Other Programs/Initiatives:

- One of the ongoing goals of the CFA is to provide materials about and support for congregations in their quest to better understand and interpret the Apportionments. In response, the Communications Team of the Baltimore-Washington Conference has developed the first in a series of materials designed to accomplish this task. "From Money to Ministry," a narrative of the 2015 Conference Budget, has proven to be helpful in addressing this goal.

- CFA has worked in partnership with the Discipleship Council around a number of program initiatives. The Global Funding Task Force has been working with the Imagine No Malaria Campaign as well as with global partnerships in Zimbabwe, Korea, Eurasia and Latin America. The Ministry Relationship Oversight committee is working to establish policy regarding agreements between the Baltimore-Washington Conference and entities seeking to establish a ministry relationship with the BWC.

- The CFA continued to evaluate the impact of the Conference budget benevolence factor on the apportionment giving of local churches. As the statistical data has shown several years of increased income, the condition is established where a stable benevolence factor still provides a decrease in the apportionments as a percentage of a local church's entire budget. The CFA now estimates that the 2015 budget is approaching a time in which the average church's apportionments will be 10.5 % of the overall non-capital donations. As a result of this analysis, the CFA found strong support to keep the benevolence factor stable at 17.75%.

- The CFA put in place some control measures to help Conference leaders review and mitigate the legal expenses that rose so sharply in both 2013 and 2014. The results of these efforts showed good results in the second half of 2014.

- Given the success of the Baltimore-Washington Conference Imagine No Malaria Capital Campaign, the 2014 Annual Conference requested that CFA review the potential for supporting the Africa University Endowment campaign. The CFA brought together a team of Conference leaders to develop a recommendation that could be brought before the 2015 Annual Conference for consideration.

- CFA continues to support and encourage the exciting initiatives of Vibrant Communities, understanding these initiatives to be of critical importance to the future of the United Methodist Church as it develops in the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

- Rev. Bryant Oskvig, Vice-President of CFA, ably led the Council during the Sabbath Leave of Rev. Ann Laprade. His leadership has had a significant and positive impact on CFA and its accomplishments.

Summary

The Baltimore-Washington Conference continues to develop its stewardship so that vital and vibrant communities can be born and prosper, so that our connections at both local and global levels can be strengthened and increased, and so that all local churches can experience the benefits of the connectional system of which we are all a part. We recognize God's presence at work through it all and thank God as well as appreciate the uniqueness of each local church. The future continues to unfold and we will rise to meet the challenges, strengthened by a willingness to operate in ways both traditional and innovative. CFA's commitment is evident in its averaged attendance rate of 93%, which is a blessing, particularly considering that the members of this council travel from all over the Conference and come from a variety of backgrounds. The Council on Finance and Administration does its work in a spirit that we pray is cooperative and in keeping with the Baltimore-Washington Conference vision to "become fully alive in Christ and make a difference in a diverse and ever-changing world."

Respectfully Submitted,

Rev. Ann Laprade, President, Council on Finance and Administration
Paul J. Eichelberger, Conference Treasurer

Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation, Inc. (CC)

Investment Management, Endowments, Stewardship Education, Charitable Gift Annuities, and Planned Giving advice are some of the many services available for local churches and agencies through the Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation, Inc. The Foundation is an independent 501(c) nonprofit investment corporation established on July 1, 2010, by merger of the United Methodist Stewardship Foundation of the Baltimore-Washington Conference and the Eastern-Pennsylvania-Peninsula United Methodist Foundation.

The ministry of Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation focuses on being the primary resource for three Annual Conferences in five areas:

- 1) Investing long-term and endowment assets on behalf of churches and agencies.
- 2) Guidance in the creation, management and governance of endowment funds.

- 3) Assistance for individuals to plan gifts through donations, wills or life trusts.
- 4) Comprehensive Stewardship educational programs and materials.
- 5) Leadership training in area of financial education and fiduciary responsibility.

The Foundation provides numerous educational opportunities each year through classroom education and church visits. Comprehensive financial stewardship materials, books and website materials are available to all churches and agencies.

Our core business is to assist the church in adequately funding the process of making Christian Disciples. Our purpose is to help Churches become the best stewards possible of their financial resources and gifts received from God. Due to the continued high performance of our investment services, The Foundation has expanded the Genesis Funds (our investment platform) with additional socially screened investment options. The Foundation's motto remains "Mission-Driven Investing to Multiply Ministry resources". This is all part of the effort to continue as the investment manager of choice for all United Methodist Church assets.

The Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation advises individual churches/agencies on the purpose of establishing permanent endowment funds, effective stewardship programs, charitable gift annuity options, and crafting investment management policies. This process can often include creating and writing custom endowment and investment policies for a church based on specific need. Additional support is given by delivery of high quality seminars and sermons at both the District and church level to highlight the importance of stewardship in funding effective ministry. The Foundation is particularly pleased to continue sponsoring some of the best Financial Stewardship speakers.

Some highlights for this past year included:

- 1) The distribution of over $5.5 million in ministry funds to our client churches.
- 2) Matching grants of more than $30,000 were made to ministry and relief efforts.
- 3) The Foundation's Stewardship Committee committed to spend $50,000 in stewardship training in 2014.
- 4) The Foundation sponsored dynamic stewardship speaker, the Rev. Dr. Clif Christopher, for four different seminars of Stewardship Education.
- 5) Remained the fastest growing United Methodist Foundation in the United States for the past five years.
- 6) Our investment process continues to place us in the top 10% of United Methodist Church SRI investment managers.
- 7) 2015 brings the new 2-year Financial Leadership Academy (FLA) for educating and training United Methodist pastors for topics related to the financial health and well-being of churches and pastors. It is an opportunity for clergy to enhance their skills in stewardship and financial development through outstanding key presenters, coaching, an "Online" community and peer group.

One-hundred percent of assets invested through the Mid-Atlantic United Methodist Foundation are committed to be managed according to the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church as established in the Book of Discipline.

The Foundation is governed by a board of directors comprised of both clergy and lay members of all three Annual Conferences.

Joint Committee on Clergy Medical Leave (CC)

The Joint Committee on Clergy Medical Leave is comprised of nominees from the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Committee on Disability Concerns, and the Cabinet.

The normal duties of the Joint Committee include maintaining contact with clergy who are on medical leave and/or disability, participating in the process by which clergy enter and leave medical leave, and studying issues and recommending solutions with regard to clergy medical leave issues. The Committee has been grateful for the opportunity to undertake these activities during the year.

Report on Mental Illness Disparity issues

The 2012 United Methodist General Conference adopted Petition 20430 changing portions of the Clergy Comprehensive Protection Plan. One of these changes was to discontinue disability benefits on the June 30 next following 24 months of benefits when the disability is based on the diagnosis of a mental illness, except when the mental illness is “severe” and is not “returnable” based on generally accepted psychiatric standards. There were various explicit and implicit reasons for this action.

The Committee on Disability Concerns of the Conference introduced a resolution, adopted at the 2014 Annual Conference, calling attention to the apparent conflict between the General Conference action and United Methodist Social Principles. Paragraph 162X, for instance, states, “No person deserves to be stigmatized because of mental illness” and “when stigma happens within the church, mentally ill persons and their families are further victimized. Persons with mental illness and their families have a right to be treated with respect on the basis of common humanity and accurate information.”

The resolution called for the Joint Committee on Clergy Medical Leave to study the issue, which we have done, and to report back to Annual Conference in 2015 with our conclusions as well as any recommendations that might be appropriate.

The Joint Committee has met with representatives of the Conference Relations Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry, with those at the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits responsible for the Comprehensive Protection Program, and with staff of NAMI, the National Alliance on Mental Illness.

We are gratified to learn that the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits is drafting legislation for adoption by the 2016 General Conference which will eliminate the disparity in treatment between clergy with a disability based on mental illness and those with a disability based on other diagnoses.

We have been distressed, however, to discover in the course of our research on clergy disability, that disability insurance policies provided for lay employees of Annual Conferences and General Agencies are typically even more discriminatory, with a flat cessation of benefits after two years in the case of “mental-nervous conditions.” We have therefore proposed two petitions to General Conference 2016 which we ask the Annual Conference to submit. The first, if adopted by General Conference, would amend the Discipline to require that long term disability policies provided for laity or clergy be free from this discrimination. The second would comprise a resolution calling upon United Methodists globally to seek redress from this discrimination in the world outside the church.

During our study we were reminded again and again of the many ways issues of entering and returning from clergy medical leave are interwoven with issues of clergy effectiveness, clergy wellness and occupational stress, and clergy relationships with congregation, family, Board of Ordained Ministry, and district superintendents, topics which we will continue to review as appropriate.

Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary (CC)

Greetings from Garrett-Evangelical!

Early in the calendar year, I met with various constituencies of Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, including alums, faculty, staff, trustees and students regarding their hopes and concerns for the school. As a result, we began the 2014-2015 academic year with the following priorities:

- To prepare and equip our graduates as public theologians;
- To nurture a more diverse community at Garrett-Evangelical so that the entire community develops cultural competency;
- To value and promote inclusivity at Garrett-Evangelical; and
- To construct a sustainable model for theological education.

Public Theology

This year we launched a Public Theology Lecture Series to help the Garrett-Evangelical community understand more about the intersection of theological perspectives and shared values held in the public arena as persons in ministry work with others toward the common good and the wellbeing of all persons and creation. The lecture series included:

- October 15, 2014: Rev. Janet Wolf, Director of Haley Farm and Nonviolent Organizing for the Children's Defense Fund, lectured on various Children's Defense Fund programs including restorative justice, mass incarceration, cradle to prison pipeline, and freedom schools.
- December 3, 2014: Dr. Mark Lewis Taylor, Maxwell M. Upton Professor of Theology and Culture at Princeton Theological Seminary, considered structures of the global orders and everyday living which public theologians may claim to engage and where "the powers and principalities" are always in contestation in "public" life.

In the fall, we will offer a course, "Public Theology in the City," taught by Dr. David Frenchak, former president of Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education (SCUPE). The class will collaborate with the mayor's office in Evanston on an anti-violence initiative. Dr. Frenchak will also provide a Public Theology lecture this spring.

Cultural Competency & Inclusivity

As part of the commitment to nurturing a more diverse community, we welcomed a new Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Luis R. Rivera, our first Latino Academic Dean. Our current ethnic/racial profile is:

- 20% black; 6% Asian; 3% Hispanic/Latino; and 54% White; 14% International;
- More than 33 religious traditions, four continents, 15 countries and 36 states are represented in the student body;
- 232 students are United Methodist with 25 additional students from other Pan-Methodist denominations;
- 94 new students began their studies at Garrett-Evangelical this fall, raising total fall enrollment to 365 (FTE of 305);
- The average age of the entering Master of Divinity student is 31;
- 52% of the student body are women.

Consistent attention to issues of inclusivity, justice and grace within the seminary setting are critical for preparing future leaders to enter an increasingly diverse world. To respond to these concerns, Garrett-Evangelical will offer a number of Circle of Trust conversations this spring for trustees, faculty, staff, and students. Our goals are: 1) to provide safe space to discuss difficult topics, 2) to reduce any gap between stated values and actual behavior, both personally for participants and institutionally; and 3) to update our 1997 statements of inclusivity.

Sustainable Theological Education

Garrett-Evangelical is beginning work on a Sustainable Theological Education Model for the school. We are guided by a commitment to generational stewardship of our resources and to maintaining a thriving seminary for the future. We will attend to the areas of business, academic programs, and external programs.

Our priority continues to be making seminary education affordable. To this end, we award more than $2.5 million in scholarship aid to students each year and we lead all United Methodist seminaries in the Dollars for Scholars program with 45 recipients. In October, the seminary publicly launched The Final Lap of its $100 million Forging Our Future campaign, and announced that $88 million has been received to date. Much has already been accomplished, but more remains to be done (expanding the number of new leadership scholarships from 80 to 100, renovating Sherman apartments, endowing several more faculty positions, continuing to grow the unrestricted endowment), gifts for any of these goals are always welcome.

Thank you for your continued interest in our work. We are dedicated to serving The United Methodist Church and the church at large. For more information about Garrett-Evangelical and our work, I encourage you to visit our website, www.garrett.edu, and to visit us on campus.

Lallene J. Rector, President

About Us

Garrett-Evangelical is the result of the interweaving of three institutions:

- Garrett Biblical Institute, the first Methodist seminary in the Midwest, was established in 1853 by largely the same church people who founded Northwestern University.
- Chicago Training School, established in 1885, was an important force for women in ministry and for developing service agencies throughout Chicago. Chicago Training School merged with Garrett Biblical Institute in 1934.
- Evangelical Theological Seminary, located in Naperville and founded as a seminary of the Evangelical Church (later the Evangelical United Brethren) in 1873, joined with Garrett Theological Seminary in 1974 to form Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.

Wesley Theological Seminary (CC)

At Wesley, we are a church-based seminary committed to multiplying the number of people who love God and love their neighbor locally, nationally and globally. Our degrees and programs – traditional and new alike – reflect our dedication to the Great Commandment and Great Commission. We ask you to pray for us, hold us accountable, and join us in this Kingdom work.

Equipping Faith Leaders through Degree Programs

In fall 2015, our new master of divinity curriculum launches. We thoroughly redesigned the M.Div. to prepare leaders for both church and society. This 81-hour degree offers flexibility and an excellent core curriculum focused on empowering passionate, mission-focused leaders.

Wesley also offers a 36-hour Master of Arts and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies to equip those called to ordained deacon ministries or a wide range of ministries.

In our doctor of ministry program, we continue to offer the most practical and spiritually renewing tracks in theological education. These include leadership excellence, pastoral counseling, arts, and new mission-focused tracks. Wesley is accepting applications to two tracks based in Cambridge, England. These tracks, Transformative Leadership in Wesleyan Perspective and Creative Ministry for Church Renewal in a Changing World, are each limited to 20 students.

Wesley provides more than $2 million dollars annually in scholarships to our students thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations and friends of the seminary.

Talk to someone at (202) 885-8659 or admissions@wesleyseminary.edu about how Wesley's degree programs equip people to lead others to loving God and neighbor.

Providing Resources to Faith Communities and Leaders

Wesley's Lewis Center for Church Leadership continues to be the go-to resource for actionable best-practices for clergy and laity. The center's free Leading Ideas e-newsletter provides well-researched, discipleship-growing ideas to more than 15,000 people. Visit www.churchleadership.com for resources in: Taking Church to the Community, Doing Good Well, Funding Your Congregation's Vision, and Reaching New Disciples. Also, learn about the newest book by the Rev. Tom Berlin and the Rev. Dr. Lovett Weems Jr., "High Yield: Seven Disciplines of the Fruitful Leader".

In early 2015, we developed the Institute for Community Engagement at Wesley Downtown to help the church turn itself inside-out. The institute encompasses the existing Urban Ministry Program and the Missional Church Program, which includes Heal the Sick, an initiative to congregations for public health work in their parishes.

The third component of the Institute for Community Engagement is Wesley's emerging Center for Public Theology. Under the leadership of Distinguished Professor of Public Theology, Mike McCurry, we are developing this center to provide churches and their leaders, and seminary students tools to help navigate the connection between faith and public policy.

The Luce Center for Arts and Religion remains the only seminary-based program uniting arts and theology. The center celebrated the 25th anniversary of the Dadian Gallery in late 2014.

Wesley faculty members are continually developing resources to the faithful, including books by Drs. Carla Works, Deborah Sokolove, F. Douglas Powe Jr., Cedric Johnson, and Lovett H. Weems Jr.

Throughout the academic year, Wesley hosts Second Mondays – a series of lectures on campus and streaming live. This year we explored “Living Matthew 25 – Focusing on the Big Things.” In this chapter of Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus challenges us to heal the sick, feed the hungry and welcome the stranger. In their lectures, Wesley’s faculty unlocked the Holy Scriptures and the church’s history, traditions and theology to clarify these Gospel imperatives. These presentations are available at www.youtube.com/c/wesleyseminaryedu and via live stream at www.ustream.tv/channel/wesley-seminary. RECOMMENDATIONS

Recommendations from Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits

1. That BWC continue to provide retiree medical to all eligible participants – must be on our medical plan 5 consecutive years prior to retirement.
2. That in accordance with paragraph (e) of Supplement One (Pre-1982), the surviving spouse pension benefit shall continue to be 85% of the participant’s formula.
3. That the special grant for Madelyn Hoffman be continued. (Special grant previously provided to Dallas Beall ceased with his death on 3/22/2014).
4. Pre-1982 Service – Past Service Rate (PSR): That the Annual Conference shall approve the following pre-1982 prior service funding plan in compliance with the Disciplinary requirement listed in ¶1506.8: The Past Service Rate (PSR) for 2015 is confirmed at $615. The PSR for 2016 will be set at $640.
5. That the Annual Conference shall approve the following funding plans based on the receipt of a favorable opinion from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits in compliance with the Disciplinary requirement listed in ¶1506.6.

Funded status and contributions are based on actuarial valuations as of January 1, 2014.

Pre-82 Plan: By General Conference mandate, Pre-82 liabilities are to be fully funded by December 31, 2021. Baltimore-Washington Conference is already fully funded, with it’s assets with the Pre-82 Plan equal 171% of its liabilities.

Corridor Funding: Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP-DB) and Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities. The funded Ratio for this funding is the same for all Conferences.

Plan	Assets	Liabilities	Funded Ratio
CRSP-DB	$1.274	$1.105	115.3%
MPP Annuities	$3.345	$3.018	110.8%

Post-Retirement Medical: Based on the two-year actuarial report received in April 2013, the Post-Retirement Medical plan with a 20-year contribution of $1,500,000 annually from the apportionment budget shows a funding ratio of 102%.

The funding plan as of January 1, 2013, is summarized below.

Plan Liability	$43,539,928
Plan Funding, 1/1/14.....	$23,058,436
20-Yr Apportionments Present Value.....	$21,318,605
Funded Status, 1/1/14	$ 837,113

6. That the following resolution, as required for IRS compliance, shall be approved:

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the Baltimore-Washington Conference

The Baltimore-Washington Conference (the “Conference”) adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the Discipline), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (“GBOPHB”), during the years 2015-2016 by each active, retired, or disabled Clergy person who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergy person; and

THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergy person rendered to this Conference or that an active, retired or disabled Clergy person of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergy person to perform services related to the ministry of the Church or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergy person’s pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy person’s gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy person’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

Recommendation from the Commission on Equitable Compensation

The Commission on Equitable Compensation, in consultation with the Cabinet, is recommending that the minimum salary be increased 1.75%, or $713.30, which will make the minimum salary $41,473.30. The Commission is recommending for minimum housing remain unchanged at $19,866.

Rev. James Johnson, Chair, Commission on Equitable Compensation

Recommendation from the Council on Finance and Administration

1. The proposed budget of $17,160,466 shall be adopted for 2016, including an apportionment income budget of $14,330,827. This represents an increase of 1.1% in the apportionment asking compared to the 2015 budget.
2. The Benevolence Factor (BF) for 2016 is set at 17.75%, the same value that was established in the 2015 budget. The collection rate assumption for 2016 is set at 92.0%, the same rate as 2015.
3. As required by The Book of Discipline, the ratio for World Service and Conference Benevolences shall be set as follows: 33% for World Services and 67% for Conference Benevolences and other General Church Benevolences, with fine adjustments being made between Conference sessions by CFA.
4. The firm of Ellin & Tucker is approved as independent auditors to audit the Conference Treasurer’s financial records for 2015.
5. The date for the closing of the 2015 books shall be set at January 12, 2016, with all payments to be received by the Treasurer’s office not later than January 12, 2016.
6. The Baltimore-Washington Conference grants authority to the Council on Finance and Administration, in consultation with the Bishop and the Cabinet, to act on financial matters between sessions of the Annual Conference.

NARRATION OF 2016 PROPOSED BUDGET

Benevolence Factor – Proposed 2016: 17.75%

The benevolence factor is the percentage churches are apportioned based on their operating expenditures less exclusions. The percentage for 2016 is the same as the percentage used in 2015.

Apportionment Collection Rate - Proposed 2016: 92.0%

REVENUE

Apportionments: $14,330,827

A church's share of the local and global mission work and operating expenses of the Annual Conference as determined by the apportionment formula.

Grants: $123,800

This represents grants given directly to the conference for ministry and mission. For example, General Church grants to operate the Episcopal Office and residence.

Event Registration: $2,037,968

This includes Annual Conference registration, workshop registrations, camping and retreat registrations (majority of line item) and other conference events.

Publications: $19,176

This includes sales or rentals of publications, DVDs, paid UMConnection subscriptions, and other materials.

Individual Gifts: $0

Gifts from individuals for specific programs within the Conference. All gifts are dispersed according to the wishes of the donors. Therefore, individual gifts are unbudgeted sources of revenue.

Reimbursements: $119,783

The conference receives reimbursements from denominational agencies for specific operating programs. The Trustees are reimbursed for the expenses of property upkeep when that property is sold.

Other Income/Sources of Funds: $498,912

Miscellaneous income or sources of funds, such as the use of funds held from previous years, funding from agency reserve funds, etc.

Interest: $30,000

An estimate of the interest the conference will earn on operating funds in investment vehicles.

Total Operating Revenue: $17,160,466

EXPENSES

I. DISCIPLESHIP

- b. Camping Ministries, providing opportunities for spiritual growth and formation for children and adults.
- c. Campus Ministries includes activities of young adult ministry on area college campuses.
- d. Ministry of the Laity includes training on the interpretation of scriptures, doctrine, organization, and ministries of the church.

Focus on Missions & Advocacy:

- a. Conference Mission and Social Justice Programs: $538,928

Through Grants to specific Social Justice Ministries such as Action for the Homeless, Appalachian Development, and UM Community Services the conference seeks to grow mission and ministry. This ministry area also includes funds for our advocacy partnership ministries in other conferences, such as Zimbabwe, Korea, Latin America, and Eurasia. Funds are also devoted to the Hope for the City Initiative, Deaf Ministries, and Justice for Our Neighbors.

- b. General and Jurisdictional Apportionments: $3,491,262

The funds that the denomination and Northeast Jurisdiction request for ministry and programs, from each conference. The conference is proud of its track record of paying 100% of these apportionment askings consistently for over a decade. They include contributions to the specific funds listed below.

World Service To help our denomination to strengthen its evangelism efforts, stimulate church growth, expand Bible studies and enrich spiritual commitment. This fund allows us to share in a worldwide ministry, including support for missionaries.

Interdenominational Cooperation This fund allows United Methodists to have an effective presence in the activities of ecumenical organizations.

Africa University This fund supports the further development of the first private university for men and women in Africa.

Black College Fund This fund represents the denomination's support of the operation and capital funding of historically black colleges and medical schools.

Ministerial Education Fund This fund provides our church support for the recruitment and education of future pastors and bishops.

Episcopal Fund This fund pays the salaries and benefits of active bishops in the denomination and supports retired bishops.

General Administration This fund supports administrative areas of the church, such as the General Council on Finance and Administration, the General Conference session, and Archives and History.

Jurisdictional Administration This fund supports mission and ministry throughout the Northeastern Jurisdiction.

Congregation & Leadership Development: $295,199

Funds to operate the ministries and administrative aspects of the Congregation and Leadership Development (CLD) Team. Administrative expenses include salary, benefits, travel, and continuing education. Ministries funded by this area include a focus on church growth and church leaders.

Focus on Church Growth: $1,224,864

PETITIONS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE

The following petitions were sent to General Conference.

Petition to General Conference to Amend Paragraph 806 of The UMC Book of Discipline, Regarding Employee Disability Insurance in the United Methodist Church

Budget Implications: Nominal

Rationale: This resolution recommends that the BWC send a petition to General Conference regarding Employee Disability Insurance in the UMC. The petition seeks an amendment to paragraph 806 of the UMC Book of Discipline. The rationale is included below in the Petition (using the General Conference formatting.)

Submitted by: Jackson Day, on behalf of Joint Committee on Clergy Medical Leave; and Nancy Webb, on behalf of Commission on Disability Concerns

Co-Sponsors: Board of Ordained Ministry, Board of Pensions and Health Benefits

Resolution:

Be It Resolved that the 2015 session of the Baltimore Washington Annual Conference commend the attached Petition to amend by Paragraph 806, UMC Book of Discipline by adding a new paragraph, as described in the Petition below; and

Be It Further Resolved, that the Conference Secretary of the Baltimore Washington Annual Conference shall forward the said Petition to amend Paragraph 806, from the Baltimore Washington Annual Conference to the 2016 General Conference.

PETITION to General Conference 2016:

Total Number of Pages: 1

Suggested Title:

Discipline Paragraph: ¶806

General Church Budget Implications: Yes

Global Implications: None

Amend: ¶806 to add a new paragraph following paragraph 8.

It shall be responsible for ensuring that no United Methodist board, agency, or other entity shall provide to their own agency, other agencies or to annual conferences disability compensation insurance for clergy or laity which offers different levels of protection based on whether or not the diagnosis is for a mental-nervous condition.

Separate File (Rationale)

Disability insurance which restricts benefits for “nervous-mental conditions” – common practice -- unjustly discriminates against some employees compared to others, violates Social Principle ¶162X and is counter to the principles of Resolution 3303, Ministry in Mental Illness. GCFA is the appropriate agency to enforce non-use of UMC funds for such insurance.

The “industry-standard” in commercial disability insurance is to terminate disability compensation after two years when the disability is based on a mental or nervous diagnosis, regardless of the continuing presence of disability. Such a policy unjustly discriminates against some employees compared to others and violates the trust employees have that their employer will provide adequate assistance for them if they become disabled. Such a policy violates United Methodist Social Principle ¶162X and is counter to the principles of Resolution 3303, Ministry in Mental Illness. Some employers which object to this discrimination, however, have been able to negotiate non-discriminatory disability policies. The General Council on Finance and Administration is entrusted with many related matters and is the logical entity to enforce a policy of non-discrimination across the denomination. Currently, disability policies for General Agencies are provided by GCFA and policies for Annual Conferences and all clergy are offered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

Petition to the 2016 General Conference of The United Methodist Church regarding human sexuality

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: The 2014 Annual Conference of the Baltimore-Washington Conference (BWC) resolved to “empower our bishop and conference representatives, current and future, to work on behalf of the Baltimore-Washington Conference toward the eventual removal of all discriminatory references and policies in the Book of Discipline and Social Principles that are based on sexual identity.” In keeping with that resolution, the BWC should send this petition to the 2016 General Conference, seeking removal of the key discriminatory language contained in the Discipline.

Submitted by: Mittie T Quinn, BWAC Lay Member at Large; Member – Dumbarton UMC.

Resolution: Be it resolved that the Baltimore-Washington Conference of The United Methodist Church send a petition to the 2016 General Conference of The United Methodist Church, as follows:

Amend ¶161.F, as follows: We affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. All persons need the ministry of the Church in their struggles for human fulfillment, as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship that enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self. ~~The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching.~~ We affirm that God’s grace is available to all . . .

Petition to General Conference for Adoption and Placement in the Book of Resolutions Regarding Non-Discrimination in Disability Compensation

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: This resolution recommends that the BWC send a petition to General Conference for a new resolution to be included in the UMC Book of Resolutions. The proposed new resolution is regarding Non-Discrimination in Disability Compensation. The rationale is included below in the Petition (using the General Conference formatting.)

Submitted by: Jackson Day, on behalf of Joint Committee on Clergy Medical Leave; and Nancy Webb, on behalf of Commission on Disability Concerns

Co-sponsors: Board of Ordained Ministry, Board of Pensions and Health Benefits.

Resolution: Be It Resolved that the 2015 session of the Baltimore Washington Annual Conference commends the attached Petition to General Conference 2016, which seeks the adoption and placement of a new resolution in the UMC Book of Resolutions, regarding Non-Discrimination in Disability Compensation; and

Be It Further Resolved, that the Conference Secretary of the Baltimore Washington Annual Conference shall forward the said Petition for a new resolution in the Book of Resolutions, from the Baltimore Washington Annual Conference to the 2016 General Conference.

PETITION to General Conference 2016:

Total Number of Pages: 1

Suggested Title: Non-Discrimination in Disability Compensation

Resolution: (New)

General Church Budget Implications: None

Global Implications: Yes

Long term disability insurance protects employees around the world by providing continuing compensation in lieu of salary when an accident or illness prevents an employee from continuing their service to their employer. Ideally, such insurance provides for compensation based purely on the existence of a disability that prevents continuing employment, and continues for the duration of that disability.

In many countries such insurance is often subject to a limitation for disabilities based on “mental and nervous conditions.” The primary reason offered for such a discrimination between disabilities is the comparative difficulty of validating disabilities whose evidence relies on self-reporting. Other reasons may include the belief that mental and nervous conditions are more likely temporary in nature and therefore a time limitation, typically two years, is appropriate. The limitation therefore places the administrative needs of insurers over the wellbeing of the persons they are committed to insure. In the United States, courts have held that discrimination in disability insurance is not addressed by non-discrimination provisions of either the Americans with Disabilities Act or the Affordable Care Act. In the United States, disability insurance is generally regulated at the state level.

The United Methodist Church affirms its long standing support for persons with mental illness and their families. Jesus Christ made no distinctions in his healing ministry between persons with physical disabilities and those which we might today call mental illnesses. We call upon the General Board of Church and Society to advocate globally on behalf of non-discriminatory long-term disability insurance for workers, and to support and encourage the work of Annual Conference Boards of Church and Society in such advocacy at state and regional legislative bodies.

Resolution for the Baltimore-Washington Conference to submit to General Conference 2016 a Petition to Revise The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church: Resolution 1027. God's Creation and the Church Budget Implications: None for either Annual Conference or General Conference.

Rationale: (50 word max) This important Resolution that is used regularly by our Annual Conference is due to expire in 2016. The attached petition readopts the Resolution with added user friendliness of relevant Internet links.

Submitted by: Dr. Gary Sherman. Email: garybsherman@verizon.net, Phone: 301-476-8191 (h), 301-651-9639 (c), Church: Bethesda United Methodist Church, Bethesda, MD. Endorsed by Baltimore-Washington Conference Board of Church and Society, Michael Parker, Chair. Email: mparker.umc@gmail.com, Phone: (410) 900-3535 (c).

Resolution: Be it resolved that the Baltimore-Washington Conference submit the following Petition to General Conference 2016.

The Title of the Petition to General Conference 2016 shall be:

Petition to Revise The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church: Resolution 1027. God's Creation and the Church

The General Church Budget Implications to General Conference 2016 shall be: None.

The Global Implications to General Conference 2016 shall be: None.

The Rationale (50 word max) to General Conference 2016 shall be:

This petition adds Internet links – as is permitted and used in the Book of Resolutions – to several of the entities outside the United Methodist organization. It also readopts to prevent expiration of the Resolution.

The Desired Action to General Conference 2016 shall be:

Please add the Internet link seven places as shown. For both printed and electronic versions of the BoR show the link. For electronic versions make the link a Hyperlink while still showing the link (as done in this petition). Add the two notes and one reference at the bottom of the document. (additions are single underlined, deletions are strikeout).

The body of the petition to General Conference 2016 shall be:

This starts Resolution 1027. God's Creation and the Church

As disciples of Christ, we are called to be good stewards of God's creation. Accordingly, we call upon The United Methodist Church to adopt fresh ways to respond to the perils that now threaten the integrity of God's creation and the future of God's children.

Specifically, The United Methodist Church:

- designates one Sunday each year, preferably the Sunday closest to Earth Day (www.EarthDay.org), as a Festival of God's Creation, celebrating God's gracious work in creating the earth and all living things, incorporating it into the church's liturgical calendar, and developing appropriate ways for congregations to celebrate it;
- endorses The Clergy Letter Project (www.TheClergyLetterProject.org) and its reconciliatory programs between religion and science, and urges United Methodist clergy participation;
- endorses the work of the National Religious Partnership for the Environment (www.nrpe.org), and the World Council of Churches Climate Change Program (www.wcc-coe.org/wcc/what/jpc/ecearth-climatechange.html) and urges conferences and congregations to support their activities and programs;

- supports the annual observance of the United Nations' World Environment Day (www.unep.org/wed/) and encourages conferences and churches to participate in programs such as Environmental Sabbath (<http://earthministry.org/resources/worship-aids/sample-worship-services/the-united-nations-environmental-sabbath-service/>);
- recommends that annual conferences establish annual awards to honor prophetic defenders of God's creation from within their own constituencies;
- affirms the importance of nurturing, community-building approaches such as the Global Action Plan's Household Eco-Team Program (www.GlobalActionPlan.com) designed to foster resource efficient lifestyle practices;
- encourages a simplified and environmentally sound lifestyle throughout the church and requests that Church agencies, conferences, and congregations be stewards of God's creation by reducing levels of consumption and participating in programs that reuse and recycle goods; and
- encourages United Methodist institutions to perform energy audits, improve energy efficiency, and pursue use of alternative clean energy sources such as wind and solar power where available.

CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP

With all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said, "When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive; he gave gifts to his people." The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. -Ephesians 4:2-8; 11-13 (NRSV)

Notes: SO- Southern Region, BA-Baltimore Region, WA-Washington Region, WS-Western Region
Year and term of office: (16-1)-term expires 2016 and in first term; (16-2)-term expires 2016 and in second term; (1)-elected quadrennially and in first quadrennium; (2)-elected quadrennially and in second quadrennium. When persons are elected quadrennially, they serve a maximum of two terms except for the Board of Ordained Ministry which may serve a maximum of 3 terms by Discipline.

Inclusiveness: The nominations committee has sought to have regional, racial, gender, and lay/clergy inclusiveness in the groups and in the chairs. The committee also seeks to insure that 20-30% of the boards, committees, and councils are persons under the age of 40.

Recommendation: Groups should meet when most laity are available to increase lay participation.

CLERGY, CLERGY SPOUSES AND LAITY MEMOIRS

DANIEL ANDREWS | 1983-2014

The Rev. Daniel Andrews, pastor at the Cowenton/Chesaco Cooperative Parish in White Marsh, died June 15, 2014. His sister, the Rev. Sarah Schlieckert, and his mother, Patsy Andrews, issued a statement shortly after his death, which said, "It is with deep sadness that my family and I share with you that our beloved son and brother, Daniel Brooks Andrews, lost his battle with mental illness yesterday and passed into the loving arms of his loving and eternal Father."

Daniel was born Jan. 16, 1983, in Siler City, N. C., to the late Rev. Rick Andrews and Patricia (Brooks) Andrews. He was part of a clergy family, which included his great grandfather and his grandfather, the Rev. David Andrews, who died in November 2013.

He was a graduate of Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, Frostburg University and Drew Theological Seminary. He was commissioned a Provisional Elder in 2011 and served Doubs/Epworth UMC, Catocin UMC and Cowenton-Chesaco Cooperative Parish.

Daniel enjoyed music. He used his talent to sing and play guitar at his father's memorial service. He also liked hiking and kayaking, but most of all he liked helping those on the outside, those who had been burned by the church. He had a love of learning and discovering new ways of reaching people with the love and acceptance of Jesus Christ.

He was preceded in death by his father, Rick Andrews; and his grandfathers, David Andrews and Lt. Col. Kenneth Brooks.

Survivors include his mother; his sister Sarah, pastor of Arden UMC in Martinsburg, W. Va.; sister Elizabeth Andrews, and brother, Jordan Andrews, previous program director at Camp Manidokan, where his brother-in-law Chris Schlieckert is Camp Director. Survivors also are grandmothers, Anne Brooks and Grace Andrews; and two nieces, Anna and Mary Schlieckert, whom he loved to spend time with.

The family would like to remind those who serve the Lord in the Baltimore Washington Conference to reach out to others when you see a need and to also share with others in ministry when you need support.

LEA ELISABETH AUSTEN | 1943-2014

MERLE BARMOY | 1941-2015

RALPH BARRETT | 1922-2014

Ralph Grayson Barrett was born June 12, 1922, to the late Sherman Grayson Barrett and Anna Skipper Barrett in Baltimore County. He attended Towson State Teachers College before entering the U.S. Army Air Corps. He served from 1943-1946, teaching pilots how to navigate by the stars.

Barbara Jean McDowell was born May 4, 1926, in Asheville, N.C., the third child of Lora Gustava (Cross) and Harold Clinton McDowell. She attended public schools in LaPlata. After graduation in 1943, she received a degree in Home Economics from Western Maryland.

Ralph Barrett and Jean McDowell, who met at Western Maryland College while both were seniors, were married in 1948 in La Plata. She taught home economics in New Windsor while he attended seminary.

As a student, he had charges at Prospect and Marvin Chapel in Mt. Airy and a Susquehanna charge. Upon his ordination in 1951, he joined the chaplaincy in the U.S. Air Force. His assignments included Langley (Virginia), Iwo Jima and Kisaruzu, Japan. Jean and their son joined him in Japan.

Following discharge in 1955, he began his ministry in the Baltimore-Washington Conference. From 1955-1960, he was appointed to Jarrettsville, where their third child was born; from 1960-1964, he served Boundary in Baltimore. In 1964, he moved to Overlea UMC, where they stayed for 10 years. From 1974 to 1980, he was appointed to Dundalk UMC and 1980 to 1984 to Liberty Grove UMC in Burtonsville. In 1984, he became superintendent to the Hagerstown District, now the Cumberland-Hagerstown District, until he retired in 1987.

In each of their moves, Jean made the parsonages a welcoming place and supported Ralph throughout his ministry.

Ron and Jean Barrett moved to Golden Beach, Maryland, for a few years, then in 1996 became one of the first couples to move into the Asbury Solomon's Retirement Community. He served as interim pastor at many Southern Maryland United Methodist churches and Jean volunteered in many ways. They lived at Asbury-Solomons for more than 19 years.

Survivors include their son Ralph Barrett Jr. from Owings Mills; daughters Lora Jones and Martha McDowell who live in Middle River; eight grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

Rev. Ralph Barrett, a retired Elder, died July 21, 2014, from natural causes. The Rev. Charles Harrell officiated at a memorial service July 27 at the Asbury Solomon's Retirement Community. His wife, Jean Barrett, died less than a year later on June 13, 2015, with Harrell officiating at a memorial service in the same location July 11. Their marriage spanned 67 years.

CARROLL BROWN | 1925-2014

Carroll M. "Brownie" Brown was born March 19, 1925, in Baltimore, the son of Louis Edward Brown, a house painter, and Blanche Tuttle Brown, a homemaker. He was raised in Rockdale and attended Catonsville High School, which he left to enlist in the Army during World War II.

He fought in the infantry and participated in the Allied invasion of Normandy. He received the Purple Heart. When he returned, he worked in the construction industry around Pikesville, doing custom home building and light commercial work. He retired from Matthews Brown Contractors in 1965.

After retirement and coursework at American University, Brown became a pastor and served from 1996 for a year at Stablers-Vernon charge, then from 1997 to his retirement in 2001, at Wiseburg UMC in Parkton.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 50 years, Alice Lancaster Brown, who died in 1998.

Survivors include a son, Carroll M. Brown Jr. of Randallstown; a daughter, Joan Kines of Monkton; his companion, Audrey Wolfe of Mount Airy; 14 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and a great-great grandson.

Carroll M. Brown, a retired Local Pastor, died of heart disease March 30, 2015, shortly after his 90th birthday, at Gilchrist Hospice Care in Towson. A memorial service was held April 3, at Wiseburg UMC in Whitehall.

RONALD BROWN | 1943-2014

Ronald Brown was born Dec. 2, 1943, in Monongahela, Pa., to the late Mr. and Mrs. David Brown. He served as a part-time local pastor at Bryans Road Shiloh from 2003-2006.

Brown was predeceased by his wife Shirley Brown, who died in June 2013.

He is survived by his wife Mary Brown; his son Robert D. Brown of Huntingtown; step son Edward L. Fichtenmayer; and one step grandchild.

Pastor Ronald Brown died May 9, 2014, in Prince Frederick.

ELIZABETH PATE SMITH CARLSON | 1926 - 2015

Elizabeth Pate was born March 3, 1926, in Montezuma, Ga., the daughter of the late William Head and Elizabeth Rebecca (Bessie) Mitchell Pate. She graduated from Valdosta State College in Georgia with a degree in biology and earned a Master of Technology from Alabama Medical College in 1948.

She married the late William Eric Smith in 1948, and they moved to Washington, D.C., where she worked as a medical technologist before her children were born. They had four children. They were charter members of Concord-St. Andrew's UMC in Bethesda.

In 1984, Elizabeth Pate Smith earned a Master of Divinity from Wesley Theological Seminary and they moved to West Virginia after accepting a two-point charge at Gerrardstown and Ganotown United Methodist churches. In 1989 she was appointed to New Street UMC in Shepherdstown, W.Va. She retired from the ministry in 1996.

Her husband, Eric Smith, died in 1993 after 45 years of marriage. She moved to Quincy Village, Pa., after retiring, and in 2006 married Vernon Carlson. He died in 2008.

She was a lifelong artist who taught watercolor and collage and exhibited in three states. At the time of her death, she was a member of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Hagerstown.

Survivors include her children: Eric Alan Smith of Reva, Va., Lisa Smith of Columbus, Ohio, Melanie Dzwonchuk of Laurel, and Camille Smith of Waynesboro, Pa.; stepdaughter Pamela Wilson of Selbyville, Del.; 11 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Elizabeth Pate (Smith) Carlson died Jan. 15, 2015. A memorial service was held Jan. 31 at the Montessori Academy of Chambersburg, Pa. Interment was at Arlington National Cemetery.

RONALD CARR | 1933-2015

Ronald L. Carr was born Jan. 27, 1933, in Austin, Pa., to the late Milan Carr and Vida Earle Carr. He served in the Air Force for seven years.

He received an undergraduate degree from the then College of the Ozarks in Arkansas, and an MDiv from Methesco Theological Seminary in Delaware, Ohio. He held a Masters of Theological Studies degree from McGill University in Montreal then received his Doctor of Ministry from Boston University.

He and Arlene Chiapetta were married in 1973.

Carr began serving churches in 1977 in the North New York Conference. He came to the Baltimore-Washington Conference in 1981 and was appointed to Centenary UMC in Shady Side, where he served until 1987 when he was appointed to Messiah UMC in Glen Burnie. He retired 10 years later and moved to Martinsburg where his wife was serving St. Luke's UMC.

He continued part-time ministry with small churches in Pennsylvania for a few years until her retirement in 2002. They then became "snowbirds" and soon decided Florida was the place for them. They moved to Florida in 2010.

A son, Joel Carr, predeceased him.

Survivors, in addition to his wife of 40 years, include three children from a previous marriage: Sandra Mann, Ronald Carr Jr. from North Carolina and Mary Ross from Arkansas; a step-son, Erik Carr, from Florida; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Ronald Carr, a retired Elder and the husband of a retired Elder, the Rev. Arlene Carr, died from Alzheimer's Disease Dec. 18, 2014, in Melbourne, Florida.

DAVID CASEY | 1954 - 2015

David Charles Casey was born in Norfolk, Va., in 1954 to Jack Casey, an electrical engineer, and Rhoda Hunter, a bookkeeper. He was raised in Montgomery County and graduated in 1972 from Sherwood High school. After earning a bachelor's degree in environmental engineering from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in 1976, he worked for four years for the Maryland Environmental Service. He earned a master's degree in theology from Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington in 1980 and was ordained a United Methodist minister that year.

He and Nancy E. Newman, a clinical social worker, were married in 1981.

Casey pastored St. Matthew's UMC in Highlandtown from 1980 to 1990, and from 1991 to 1994 was pastor of St. John's of Baltimore City UMC. He took a Leave of Absence in 1994.

In 1990, he joined Jubilee Baltimore, a nonprofit development firm, serving as director of Jubilee Jobs, coordinator of the Southeast Baltimore Community Plan, and as a housing development project manager.

"David brought a spark and hope to places," said Charles B. Duff Jr., president of Jubilee Baltimore Inc. and executive director of Midtown Development Corp. in Baltimore. "When he was president of Southeast Community Organization, he took the tired old neighborhoods of Southeast Baltimore and gave them a big jolt of energy."

Casey "moved in two worlds," Duff said. "He moved in the world of community development and organized religion, and moved fully in both. There aren't many people who can do that."

In 1998, Casey won a U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Community Builder Fellowship to the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. He provided faith-based outreach for the Maryland HUD office until 2002, when he became the founding executive director of BRIDGE, an interfaith organization known as a catalyst for change and social justice in Baltimore and the Washington suburban region.

Casey was the primary researcher for the Baltimore Community Foundation's 2003 "Evaluation of Diversity in Baltimore City." He authored the "Baltimore White paper on Community-Based Economic Development," and co-authored "Reinventing CDC: Twenty-five Years of Community Planning and Development in Baltimore," published in 1996.

He received the Bryce W. Shoemaker Ecumenical Leadership Award for his work in inclusionary housing, education, equity financing, and access to jobs for low-income citizens.

Casey was an inveterate reader and collector of guitars, which he enjoyed playing. He loved old church sanctuaries and was a beer connoisseur. He joked that when he was retired, he could open a brew pub and entertainment center in a former church; that way he could bring together all the pieces of his life.

In addition to his wife, Casey is survived by two sons, Jesse Newman Casey and Spencer Newman Casey, both of Brooklyn, N.Y.

The Rev. David C. Casey, an extension pastor and community developer, died April 30, 2015, of colon cancer. A memorial service was held June 13, at Wayland Baptist Church, headquarters of the Baltimore Regional Initiative Developing Genuine Equality Inc. (BRIDGE), which he founded.

JOHN COURSEY | 1931 - 2015WALTER COX | 2015

Walter B. Cox Sr., a retired Local Pastor, died June 9, 2015, at Howard County General Hospital. His wife, Janet Cox, 93, died Feb. 13, 2015, four months earlier than her husband.

The Rev. Yvonne Mercer-Staten officiated at funeral services at Simpson-Hamline UMC in Washington, D.C., for both: Janet Cox on Feb. 19, Walter Cox on June 17.

Walter Cox served in the Baltimore-Washington Conference since 1968. His churches included Atholton UMC in Simpsonville from 1968-1974; Christ-Edmondson UMC in Baltimore from 1974 to 1981; then Brightwood UMC in Washington, from which he retired in 1988. After retirement he served at Locust UMC in Columbia during the 1990s.

Janet Cox was a homemaker and supported her husband throughout his ministry.

They were also preceded in death by a daughter Yvonne Cox High and a grandson, Keith-Sean Lindsey.

CHARLES DONOPHAN | 1933- 2014

Charles Austin Donophan was born in Frederica, Delaware, Feb. 17, 1933, the son of the late John Lewis Donophan and Geneva Austin Donophan. He graduated with a Masters Degree from the University of Delaware and attended seminary at Eastern Theological Seminary.

Donophan was a United States Navy veteran and served in the Korean War.

His ministerial career spanned 40 years, the early years in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. He came into the Baltimore-Washington Conference in 1983 and served for two years at Graceland UMC in Baltimore. From 1985-1989, he was appointed to Severn UMC; in 1989 he went to Piney Grove and in 1993 to Wesley Chapel in Lothian, from which he retired in 1995.

He was preceded in death by two children, B. Jay Donophan and Scot Donophan.

Survivors include his wife of 33 years, Paula Meland-Donophan; children, Mark Donophan, Laurie Donophan and Tom Adkins; 11 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; two brothers and a sister.

The Rev. Charles Donophan, a retired Elder, died Dec. 23, 2014, at a nursing home in Salisbury. A funeral service was held there Dec. 30 and one at Barretts Chapel in Frederica, Del., Dec. 31.

ERMA DYSON | 1951-2014

Erma Arlene Ambush was born Oct. 22, 1951, to the late Julia Virginia and George Thomas Ambush. She graduated from Frederick High School, attended Frederick Community College and completed courses at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C.

Prior to her pastoral service, she was employed at National Geographic, American Society of Health-System Pharmacists, and Krop-Vario and Associates.

Dyson served the Buckeystown Parish #80 from 2001 to 2007 as a part-time local pastor. She then pastored Hopehill UMC from 2010 until her retirement in early 2014. She was involved in a number of committees at the district and conference levels including the Buildings and Locations Committee, the Commission on Religion and Race, the Local Pastors Fellowship, the Frederick District Lay Speakers Committee and Kairos Prison Ministry.

Survivors include her husband, the Rev. Richard C. Dyson Sr.; son, Bobby Jermaine Ambush, two step-sons, Timothy Dyson and Richard Dyson Jr.; foster daughter Danielle Lincoln; five grandchildren; and three god-children.

Pastor Erma Dyson, whose husband was Pastor Richard C. Dyson Sr., died Dec. 24, 2014. A funeral was held Dec. 31, at Jackson Chapel UMC in Frederick.

PAUL L. GRANT | 1941-2015

Paul Grant was born in Baltimore, Feb. 6, 1941, to the late George “Bud” and Mary Myers. He was a retired colonel of the United States Army National Guard.

Grant served many congregations during his ministerial career. He began in 1963 at Emory, and two years later as associate pastor at Lanham. In 1966, he was appointed to Darlington UMC for four years. From 1970 to 1975, he served Fork-Waugh UMC. In 1975, he became chaplain to the US Army for three years. In 1978 he was appointed to Street UMC in North Harford County, where he stayed until 1984 when was appointed to Camp Chapel UMC. In 1989, he began serving Grace UMC in Aberdeen and remained until his retirement in 2002.

He was a member of the Mt. Moriah Masonic Lodge # 116 in Towson, and was also a Shriner. He was a former member of the Havre de Grace and Aberdeen Lions Clubs and was served in the Oak Crest Lions Club. He was a member of the Kingsville Fire Department and the Darlington Fire Department. He enjoyed traveling and history. He was an avid fan of the Orioles and Ravens.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Sally Ann Grant, who died in 2008.

Survivors include his sons Paul Douglas Grant and his wife Lisa of Bel Air; Andrew Lee Grant and his wife, Jennifer, of Aberdeen; daughter Cindy Denise Grant of Belcamp; and five grandchildren.

Paul L. Grant, a retired Elder, died at home March 1, 2015. The Revs. Jim Ditto and Bob Clipp officiated at a funeral service March 9, 2015, at Grace UMC in Aberdeen.

ANDREW GUNN | 1930-2015

Andrew Leigh Gunn was born April 22, 1930, in Washington, DC, to the late Ross and Gladys Gunn. He attended Woodrow Wilson High School, Oberlin College, and Yale Divinity School.

At Oberlin, he met and married Janet A. Ackerly who died in April 1995. They had five children who survive. In 1999 he married Mildred Warfield.

Beginning his ministerial career in 1955, Gunn was the pastor for three churches in Indian Head, which he served until 1962 when he was appointed to Grace UMC in Gaithersburg. For 15 years he led and grew the congregation at Grace during Gaithersburg’s transformation from rural farms to a commuter suburb of the nation’s capital.

In 1976, Gunn became the Executive Director of Americans United for Separation of Church and State in Washington, D.C., for three years. From 1979-1983, he served John Wesley UMC in Hagerstown. He then returned to Washington, DC, to Mount Vernon Place UMC until 1989 when he was appointed to St. Luke’s UMC in Washington. He remained there until he retired in 2000. At St. Luke’s he helped establish a shelter in the church for homeless men to provide support for learning new life skills.

Affectionately called “The Rev” by his family and friends, Gunn loved his churches and enjoyed giving Sunday sermons, counseling and comfort to his parishioners, championing social causes, and praying that Congress would help the poor, less fortunate people in our country. He stood against gambling and slot machines being reintroduced in Maryland. He advocated for an enlightened drug policy decriminalizing marijuana use. He also enjoyed favorite family gathering spots at Torch Lake, Michigan, Pleasant Valley, Connecticut, and in Ocean City. A former tree farm, Hemlock Hills Farm, near Bedford, Pa., provided a respite to enjoy nature and time with family and friends.

Surviving are his wife, Millie; five children: Phyllis Gunn, Andrew John Gunn, George Gunn, Leigh Bums Gunn and David Gunn; and 10 grandchildren.

Rev. Andrew Leigh Gunn died March 4, 2015. The Rev. Jim Dittmeyer officiated at a celebration of life service at Damascus UMC March 21.

JAMES HARRISON | 1920-2015

James H. Harrison Sr. was born Aug. 29, 1920. He and Ruth Cooper Harrison were married in 1945. Harrison was a veteran of World War II and the Korean War.

He served at Mount Zion UMC in Laurel for five years from 1986 until June 1991, then two more years as a retired local pastor. He was Pastor Emeritus of Mt. Zion.

The Rev. Vicki Starnes said, "I have known Rev. Harrison all of my ministry - what a sweet spirit and kind soul. He was always so thoughtful to me and interested in my ministry. ... I will miss that smiling face!"

He was preceded in death by his wife in 1998 and his only son, James Harrison Jr., in 1995.

Survivors include his wife, Cecelia Mishoe Harrison and six children.

James H. Harrison Sr., a local pastor, died Jan. 14, 2015. Services for him were held at Queens Chapel UMC Jan. 24.

LEONARD WALTER HILL | 2015

Wesley and Greensburg Churches.

LEWIS MCDONALD | 1937-2014

Lewis Norton McDonald was born March 30, 1937, in Waco, Texas. He graduated from Baylor University in 1960 and Southwest Seminary in 1963.

He and Patsy Lee Akridge, whom he met at Baylor, were married in 1958. They had three children who survive.

Following seminary, McDonald began a career in preaching that spanned more than 50 years, including pastoring at South Avenue Baptist in Texas, Oak Grove Baptist Church, Poolesville UMC (1991-2002), Chestertown Church of the Nazarene and Great Hope Bible Church.

During his ministry, he achieved many distinctions, including trustee of Southwest Seminary, president of the Baptist Convention of Maryland/Delaware, Who's Who in America, Personalities in America, Notable Americans, International Platform Association and International Men of Achievement.

He considered some highlights of his ministry to be ordaining seven full-time ministers, baptizing his three sons and publishing his book "Pieces" in 2011. It is a collection of 12 of his sermons on The Prodigal Son, of which he said, "I believe it is the greatest story ever."

McDonald will be remembered for his quick wit, story-telling and gift of preaching. He will also be remembered for his passion for sports; cheering for the Cowboys and Orioles, or pitching for the church softball team. He was a dedicated husband and father. One of his favorite sayings was “love is a four letter word spelled TIME.”

Survivors include his wife of 56 years, Patsy Lee McDonald; his three sons, Steven McDonald, David McDonald, and John Mark McDonald; and their wives; three grandsons and a granddaughter; and two great-granddaughters.

Rev. Lewis Newton McDonald died from cancer Dec. 11, 2014, at his Aberdeen home. A memorial service was held Dec. 28, at Oak Grove Baptist Church, a congregation he served for many years.

BUDDY PIPES | 1932-2015

Buddy Rogers Pipes was born June 15, 1931 in Marion, Virginia. He was the son of Fred James Pipes and Hattie Virginia Grinstead Pipes. He grew up in and around Sykesville, Maryland.

Beginning in 1948, Buddy Pipes assumed leadership positions in the Methodist Youth Fellowship. He also was Sunday School Superintendent in McKendree Methodist Church in West Friendship. His call to the ministry came in 1953 under the pastorate of Rev. Edison Amos at St. James United Methodist Church in Sykesville, Md. At the time he had worked on his father’s dairy farm for five years, and was building his own herd. Even before graduating from Western Maryland College in 1957, he served as a supply pastor at Pleasant Hill and Carroll’s Chapel Methodist churches.

After graduating, he married Grace Fletcher and they moved to Boston where he attended Boston University and served as associate pastor of St. John’s Methodist Church in Watertown, Massachusetts. In 1960, he and Grace joined other seminarians on a tour of the Holy Land, led by Dr. Harrell F. Beck, professor of Old Testament. In 1973 he guided a group of his (Pikesville) Ames United Methodist Church members on another tour of the Holy Land.

In his first church, Mt. Zion in Finksburg, he initiated building an educational addition. Also in the 1960’s, at Emmart’s Church in Woodlawn, he persuaded the congregation to purchase land and a house adjacent to the church, preparing for the church’s future growth. Here, he welcomed African American congregants and speakers for the first time. This was also when Buddy directed integrated youth camps at Manidokan and West River and worked with the Jurisdictional Youth Program at Lycoming College. For several years he directed the United Methodist Youth Fellowship assembly at Western Maryland College.

Buddy was a caring pastor. He enjoyed visiting and listening to his parishioners, encouraging them, and struggling with them to find meaning and hope in life. His sermons were thought-provoking and inspirational, based on scripture, on historical leaders, or on renowned theologians. Continuing his education throughout his ministry, he received his Doctor of Ministry degree from Drew University in 1982.

Buddy was kind and loving to Grace and their children, James David, Daniel Fletcher, and Miriam Janet. He especially enjoyed vacations with them in their rural Vermont log cabin. He and Grace retired there in 1994. Because of its remoteness, and foreseeing Buddy’s future medical needs, in 2011 they moved to The Woodlands, an independent residential facility for seniors in Lebanon, New Hampshire. In September 2014 Buddy, who suffered from symptoms of both Parkinson’s disease and Alzheimer’s disease, was admitted to the Hughes Continuing Care Unit on the Woodlands’ campus. He died there peacefully on February 28, 2015, with Grace at his side.

WILLIAM E. POLK, JR | 1925-2015

William E. Polk, Jr. was born in 1926. He entered the Navy during World War II, upon graduating from High School in 1943. He passed the Officer’s Candidate Exam and the Navy sent him first to Arkansas A and M, then to Tulane University in New Orleans and later to Harvard for a few months. He did graduate studies in Monterey, California. He also studied for a year at American University, graduating with a degree in business administration. While in the Navy he was always involved in the Chapel when on shore duty, or on ship board, where there might only be one chaplain for seven ships.

He retired as a Commander of the US Navy Supply Corps in order to enter the ministry, beginning with studies at Wesley Theological Seminary in 1962. He was ordained an Elder in 1967.

He served three churches during his ministerial career: Bowie UMC from 1965-1973, where he also conducted chapel services at Bowie State College; Greenmount UMC from 1973-1980, where he was the first ordained United Methodist pastor after the merger between the Evangelical United Brethren and United Methodist in 1968; and Bethesda UMC in Baltimore, 1980-1991, which merged with Lauraville UMC. He retired from there, but continued serving as visitation minister at Grace UMC.

“Serving his congregations was his real hobby,” said his wife, “but he always was interested in politics, both national and local”

He was preceded in death by a daughter Marcia Meyer.

Survivors include his wife of 60 years, Carol Polk; daughters Laura Siegel of Timonium, and Catrina Diem of Jarrettsville; son William Timothy “Tim” Polk of Bethesda; and nine grandchildren.

The Rev. William E. Polk, Jr., a retired Elder, died Jan. 11, 2015. A funeral service was held Jan. 17, at Grace UMC in Baltimore. The Rev. Amy McCullough officiated and the Revs. Emora Brannan, James McSavaney and Nancy Webb participated.

RAMON FREDERICK RENO | 1928 - 2014

Ramon Frederick “Ra”Reno was born to the late Elmer and Jeanne Reno May 30, 1928, in Cranford, N.J. As a child he lived in Chicago and later in Greenbelt, Md.

He graduated from high school in Washington, D.C., and enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1945 at the age of 17. Reno served again during the Korean War and during this time received a calling from God to become a clergyman.

When honorably discharged, Reno attended and graduated from Aurora College in Illinois, then worked for a year to earn money for seminary. It was during this time, in 1957, that he met and married Louise Grandmason.

He enrolled in Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C., and was assigned as student pastor to their first church, Faith UMC in Accokeek, where he served four years. In 1962, he was appointed to Catalpa in Hancock, and 1963-1968, to Park Place in Cumberland. From 1968 to 1979, he served Sudbrook UMC in Pikesville, then pastored Overlea UMC in Baltimore. In 1984, he moved to Community in Maryland City where he stayed until his retirement in 1990, serving a total of 33 years.

Not long before his retirement, he became a volunteer on the World War II Liberty Ship, S.S. John W. Brown, which was docked in Baltimore. This was a project of a group of dedicated men and women to restore this ship and be able to sail it again. He became the “official” dishwasher. Reno also became the first chaplain of the John W. Brown, where he served until 2004 and was then voted Chaplain Emeritus.

During these years Reno sailed with the ship on cruises, held worship in the chapel and, with permission, performed burials at sea. Survivors include his wife, Louise “Lou” Reno; daughters Amie Reno of Durham, N.C., and Tammy Tobey of Las Cruces; and three grandchildren.

Ramon Frederick “Ra” Reno died Aug. 21, 2014, under hospice care in Las Cruces, N.M. A memorial service was held at Morning Star UMC in Las Cruces, Aug. 23. His ashes were buried at sea in the spring of 2015.

BETTY LEE ROCHE | 2014HOLLY ELAINE SLAUGH | 1939-2014

Holly Elaine Slauch was born in Baltimore, the daughter of the late Theodore and Bess Mueller. She was a 1958 graduate from Western High School in Baltimore and attended the University of Maryland. Her first marriage to Samuel Willis ended in divorce.

Slauch served as a United Methodist local pastor at Union Bridge UMC in Johnsville from 2007 until she retired in 2011. She also assisted with her husband at Middleburg and Pipe Creek United Methodist churches from 2000 to 2007. Before entering the ministry she worked in graphic arts, most notably as a partner in M&S Graphics.

Her hobbies, in addition to her family, included ceramics and writing.

Survivors include her husband of 37 years; three children from her first marriage: Thomas Willis, Daniel Willis and Tiffany Craig; four grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Holly Elaine Slauch, 74, a retired local pastor, wife of Pastor Charles Slauch, died Sept. 4, 2014, at her home. A memorial service was held Sept. 13 at Riderwood Village in Silver Spring.

WILLIAM BELL SPITZER | 2015PAULETTE STEVENS | 1953-2015

Paulette Mary Elizabeth Stevens was born Oct. 10, 1953, in New York City to the late Joseph Stevens and Laura Stevens. She was educated in the New York City Public School system and is a three-time graduate of Howard University in Washington, DC, with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree, Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry in Pastoral Care.

Stevens was ordained an Elder in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church in 1994 and came into the Baltimore-Washington Conference in 2007. She served at Emory Grove UMC in Gaithersburg and went on a leave of absence in 2013. She served as pastor at two charge churches, Morris Chapel UMC and Saint Daniels UMC in South Carolina.

In 2001, Stevens became the first African American Staff Chaplain at Montgomery Hospice in Rockville, where she provided end-of-life spiritual care, outreach and education to individuals and their families in the culturally diverse community of Montgomery County and the Washington, DC, metropolitan area. She was promoted to Director of Pastoral Care Services in 2003 and in March 2006, was appointed Director of the newly created Office of Diversity and Multicultural Outreach.

She served on several advisory boards and organizations including, My Sisters Place, The National Capitol Area Alzheimer's Association, Rockville Ministerial Alliance, and the Gaithersburg Inter-Faith Association. She was a member of Leadership Montgomery Class of 2006 and past President of The Black Minister's Conference of Montgomery County.

Stevens was a certified life coach. She created a worldwide ministry called Blessed and Bodacious... Be Your Best Life Now, where she inspired many women across the country to become all that God called them to be. Facebook was a tool she used to minister to the people of God by inspirational words.

Survivors include her mother Laura Stevens, who is in a nursing home in Beaufort, South Carolina; a brother, Robert Stevens in Sanford, Florida; an uncle and three nieces and a nephew.

Rev. Paulette Stevens died March 3, 2015, from an aneurysm at the Medical University of South Carolina in Charleston. She had collapsed in the pulpit while preaching. A funeral service was held March 9 at Ebenezer Baptist Church on St. Helena Island, South Carolina, where she had lived since 2013 as caregiver for her mother.

MARION ROCHELLE SUGGS | 1954-2014

Marion Rochelle Suggs, sometimes known as Miriam, was born Oct. 8, 1954, in Stantonsburg, N.C., to Flora Artis Suggs and the late Aaron Suggs, the third child and oldest girl of six children.

She graduated from the Wilson County public school system and attended Wilson Technical Community College. She received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Columbia Union College in Takoma Park in 1996. In 1998, Suggs received a Masters of Science Degree in Organization Development from American University in Washington, D.C. In 2009, she received a Masters of Divinity Degree from Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington.

Suggs ministered most of her life in one way or another. After accepting her call to ministry, she was licensed in March 2007 by the Rev. Dr. Frank D. Tucker of the First Baptist Church in Washington, D.C. She was pastor of Franklin P. Nash UMC from 2012 until her death in 2014.

Her ministry also encompassed the Carolinas, Oklahoma and Washington State. From Aug. 2010 to 2011, she was a Resident Chaplain in Clinical Pastoral Education at Integris Baptist Medical Center in Oklahoma City, Okla. This experience gave her the opportunity to minister to people of various faiths as well as those of no faith. From March 200 –Aug. 2010, she served as Protestant Chaplain at Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Washington, D.C., for LIVE (Lifestyle Interventions for Veterans); a program to benefit veterans with diabetes. From September 2006 to August 2010, she was associate minister, at McKendree-Simms-Brookland UMC. She was office manager at Woodside UMC from July 2006 to Aug. 2009. Prior to that, she was an office specialist and corporate accounts coordinator for several businesses.

Suggs enjoyed jogging, cooking and spending time with family and friends, she was a devoted Dallas Cowboys fan and had a passion for teaching the Bible. One of her favorite Scriptures is from I Corinthians 9:27, “But I punish my body and subdue it, so that after proclaiming to others, I myself should not be disqualified.” She sought to live the life she taught. She was an active member of the Sister Clergy Group of Washington, and was a member of First Baptist Mass Choir.

Survivors include her parents, Eddie and Flora Smith of Stantonsburg, N.C., three brothers, Calvin Suggs of Upper Marlboro, Jimmie Suggs of Temple Hills and Aaron Suggs of Raleigh, NC; two sisters, Vivian Atkinson and Dawn Woodard of Wilson, N.C.; and numerous aunts, nephews and nieces.

The Rev. Lewis E. Wise, a retired Elder, died Feb. 3, 2015. A memorial service was held Feb. 16 at First UMC in Hyattsville, the Rev. Robert Walker officiating. The Rev. Denise Walker and Father John Mudd participated. The St. Augustine Gospel Choir sang.

L. CARROLL YINGLING, JR | 1930-2014

L. Carroll Yingling, Jr. was born in Baltimore May 5, 1930. He was called to the Christian ministry while a member of the Walbrook Methodist Youth Fellowship, confirming that call while a student at Johns Hopkins University. He then attended Duke Divinity School where he earned a Masters of Divinity Degree.

Upon graduation in June 1954, he was ordained Elder in the Baltimore Conference and was appointed to the Patapsco-Freedom Charge in Eldersburg. That same month he married Phyllis Stuckey of Martinsburg, W. Va.

His next appointment was to Pleasant Hill in Owings Mills. From 1963- 69 he served at St. Mark's in Baltimore where he became involved in urban ministry and the civil rights movement. He was then appointed to Christ Church UMC in southwest Washington, DC. During those years Carroll earned a Doctor of Ministry degree at Wesley Theological Seminary. In 1974 he was appointed Superintendent of the Baltimore Northwest District and served until 1980 when he re-entered parish ministry at Catonsville UMC, retiring in 1992.

During his 40 years as an active member of the BW Conference, Carroll served on several boards including the Boards of Missions, Church and Society, Status and Role of Women and Ordained Ministry. He was elected a delegate to six Jurisdictional and General Conferences. He was an early advocate of the ordination of women as well as the full inclusion of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) persons in the life and ministry of The United Methodist Church.

A strong supporter of the ecumenical and global outreach of the church, Carroll spent a sabbatical semester at the Ecumenical Institute at Bossey, Switzerland, participated in spiritual retreats at the Community of Taize in France, and attended five World Methodist Conferences. He also served two exchange pastorates in England,

In 1983, Carroll was invited to serve on the Board of the newly formed Charlestown Retirement Community and eventually worked with the board of National Senior Campuses. In 2006, he and Phyllis made their home at Charlestown. He was Adjunct Faculty to the Community Colleges of Baltimore County, teaching courses in World Religions and Contemporary Issues

As an artist, he created mobiles made of wire and glass and sculptures made of wood. He was an avid lacrosse fan, enjoyed camping, sailing on the Chesapeake Bay and traveling with family and friends. At age 70, he walked the 500-mile Pilgrimage Way of Santiago de Compostela across Spain. He hiked the C & O Canal towpath in preparation. At 80, he and Phyllis walked the Hadrian's Wall Path across northern England.

With the Latin phrase, "Carpe Diem" (Seize the Day) as his motto, Carroll lived life exuberantly and shared his enthusiasm for God's gifts with those around him.

In addition to Phyllis, his wife of 60 years, he is survived by a daughter, Beth Yingling, of Falls Church, Va.; son, Lewis Yingling, of Unityville, Pa., four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Rev. Carroll Yingling died of cancer at his home, surrounded by his family, Aug.23, 2014. A memorial service was held at Our Lady of the Angels Chapel at Charlestown Sept. 20.

CLERGY SPOUSES

BARBARA MCDOWELL BARRETT | 1926-2015

Barbara Jean McDowell was born May 4, 1926, in Asheville, N.C., the third child of Lora Gustava (Cross) and Harold Clinton McDowell. She attended public schools in LaPlata. After graduation in 1943, she received a degree in Home Economics from Western Maryland.

Ralph Barrett and Jean McDowell, who met at Western Maryland College while both were seniors, were married in 1948 in La Plata. She taught home economics in New Windsor while he attended seminary.

Upon Ralph's ordination in 1951, he joined the chaplaincy in the U.S. Air Force. His assignments included Langley (Virginia), Iwo Jima and Kisaruzo, Japan. Jean and their son joined him in Japan.

Ralph and Jean Barrett moved to Golden Beach, Maryland, for a few years following Ralph's retirement, then in 1996 became one of the first couples to move into the Asbury Solomon's Retirement Community. While he served as interim pastor at many Southern Maryland United Methodist Churches, Jean volunteered in many ways. They lived at Asbury-Solomons for more than 19 years.

Survivors include their son Ralph Barrett Jr. from Owings Mills; daughters Lora Jones and Martha McDowell who live in Middle River; eight grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

Jean Barrett, died less than a year after her husband on June 13, 2015, with Harrell officiating at a memorial service in the same location July 11. Their marriage spanned 67 years.

FRANK M. CONAWAY, SR | 1933-2015

Frank M. Conaway Sr. was born in Baltimore City to the late George Vernon Conaway and Helen Hortense (nee Blackwell), March 16, 1933. He began his early education in Baltimore City public schools, graduating from Frederick Douglass High School in 1951.

In 1953, he was drafted into the Army and was honorably discharged in 1955. After discharge, he entered Morgan State College and graduated in 1961, with a Bachelor of Arts in history and political science.

He began working at age 7, collecting and reselling wire hangers and at age 11 was a delivery boy for Hauswald's Bakery. These experiences helped to define him as a future leader, honing his leadership skills in various groups as the Meritocrats and the Esquires, a group of young intelligent men known for being impeccably dressed, from which he never deviated.

Frank's Christian experience began at an early age at Shiloh Baptist Church, Gillis Memorial Christian Community Church and Strawbridge United Methodist Church, where he was a lay leader/speaker. He married his wife Mary in 1975.

He embarked upon many professions, including bus driver, teacher, social worker and insurance broker, but none satisfied his love for people and service like politics. His political aspirations became evident in 1966, when he was elected to the House of Delegates in the 40th District for five years.

In 1979, he was re-elected and served as the Chairman of the Maryland Legislative Black Caucus. In 1998, he was elected to serve as the second African-American Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City and served there until his death Feb. 15, 2015. He was lovingly called the Clerk of the World.

Frank had a plethora of accomplishments that are unmatched. Additionally, he received numerous awards, and an honorary Doctorate of Humanity from Eastern Theological Seminary in Lynchburg, Virginia.

What people know and loved about him was his winning personality and his remarkable ability to remember and recall people, places and events. He was witty and enjoyed talking to people and having humorous exchanges. He always spoke his mind, whether people liked it or not, and was always prepared to defend his position. People enjoyed being in his company and looked forward to hearing him speak or participate in political debates. His acumen, wisdom, and love for social issues proved to be a winning recipe for his radio show where residents would tune in for political news and information sprinkled with humor every Friday. Frank was a consummate chef and devout family man.

grandchildren.

Frank Conaway died Feb. 15, 2015. A memorial service was held at Morgan State University's Murphy Fine Arts Center Feb. 23.

ZELAH HALL CONLEY | 1916-2015

Zelah Hall was born Feb. 13, 1916. She and Paul Conley, a teacher, married in 1936 and had 57 years together before his death in 1993.

The marriage went through a lot of changes with her husband's 15-year teaching career before he entered the ministry, then in 1953 he served a nine-point charge in West Virginia. During and after seminary, he served from 1959-1961 at St. Andrew's in Hagerstown; St. John's in Baltimore (1962-1967); then settling at Brooklyn UMC in Baltimore from 1968-1982.

The Rev. Paul Conley retired in 1982 and the Conleys moved to Asbury Methodist Village in Gaithersburg. He died there in 1993. A chapel at Asbury is named in his honor.

In addition to her husband, she was predeceased by a son, David Conley in 2014. Survivors include a son, Henry Conley of Lusby; a daughter-in-law Polly Conley of Asbury; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Zelah Hall Conley, the wife of the late Rev. Paul Conley, died Jan. 15, 2015, at Asbury Methodist Village. A funeral service was held Jan. 22 at the DeVol Funeral Home.

JANET COX | 2015

Walter B. Cox Sr., a retired Local Pastor, died June 9, 2015, at Howard County General Hospital. His wife, Janet Cox, 93, died Feb. 13, 2015, four months earlier than her husband.

The Rev. Yvonne Mercer-Staten officiated at funeral services at Simpson-Hamline UMC in Washington, D.C., for both: Janet Cox on Feb. 19, Walter Cox on June 17.

Walter Cox served in the Baltimore-Washington Conference since 1968. His churches included Atholton UMC in Simpsonville from 1968-1974; Christ-Edmondson UMC in Baltimore from 1974 to 1981; then Brightwood UMC in Washington, from which he retired in 1988. After retirement he served at Locust UMC in Columbia during the 1990s.

Janet Cox was a homemaker and supported her husband throughout his ministry.

They were also preceded in death by a daughter Yvonne Cox High and a grandson, Keith-Sean Lindsey.

Survivors include their children: Mildred Cox Bishop, Keitha Cox Lindsey and Walter "Tony" Cox, Jr., two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

MARIA DASILVA | 1939-2014

MARY ALICE DOUTY EDWARDS | 1913-2014

Mary Alice Douty Edwards, Professor Emerita of Christian Education at her beloved Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C., was born Oct. 26, 1913, in Rochester, N.Y. At age five she moved to the family home in Baltimore, with her late parents James F. and Mary Anna Taylor Douty and her brothers.

Mary Alice wrote, "I think I really began to live when I joined the Girl Scouts, where as a Scout, camper, and camp leader, I became myself." She was one of the early recipients of the highest award in Girl Scouting — the Gold Award.

Later, she earned her B.A. from Goucher College in Baltimore and graduate degrees from Union Theological Seminary (M.A.) and Columbia University (Ed.D.) in New York.

After several years of service in local churches as Director of Christian Education and then five years of public school teaching, Mary Alice received a call in 1939 from the then Baltimore Conference of The United Methodist Church to serve as the Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education.

In 1957, she was invited to become a member of the faculty of the old Westminster Seminary. In 1958, the Seminary moved to become the Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C., where she continued on the faculty, developing and teaching innovative courses in Human Development, Ministry with the Aging, Children and Religion, Outdoor Ministries, Religious Drama and Family Worship, as well as writing several books and many professional articles. She was the last surviving faculty member who taught in Westminster before the seminary moved to Washington.

She and the Rev. Philip Edwards, a widower, were married in 1960. He died in 2000 at the age of 97.

It is said that this “humble pioneer” put her head through the glass ceiling on many occasions without complaint on behalf of all civil rights, serving as a “launching ground” for inspiration that otherwise would not have reached those who needed to hear the liberating Word of Christ’s Gospel. Hers was a formidable voice teaching that Christian love is the only way to dispel intolerance, ignorance and fear.

When preparing to retire in 1983 she was requested to serve as Interim Dean of Wesley Seminary; she retired, as planned, that same year after which she continued her faithful walk with God in a life filled with loving service to others.

Her presence was a well-recognized and respected one, never missing a year of Annual Conference, serving as local church Lay Member as well as a member of numerous Conference Boards and Committees.

Mary Alice and her close friend and “chosen family,” Rev. Jeanne Klauda, purchased and shared a home in which they lived for the past 15 years on the Magothy River in Annapolis.

As was her wish she remained home with Jeanne until she passed from this earth to full reunion with her Precious Lord, July 9, 2014, at the age of 100. What a great blessing it has been to have been given 51 years of Christian example from one who was mentor, companion, family and most faithful of friends. Never once did Mary Alice lose her love or care for others. Never once did she lose her faith in God. She will be missed more than can be written or said.

“Live: always loving always curious. Rejoice as an outreaching instrument of God’s grace.”

BETTY AGNES JETT | 2015

ALICE KNIGHT | 1916-2014

Alice Kingston was born Nov. 19, 1916, in Beverly, NJ.

She and John L. Knight married in 1941. They had grown up together in Beverly, NJ, in the then Methodist Episcopal church and were married 60 years before his death in 2001.

They lived in several states as he served in churches in Central New York, Ohio, North East Ohio, Nebraska and Tennessee conferences and pursued a ministry in higher education. He was president of Baldwin Wallace College in Ohio, and of Wesleyan College in Nebraska. In 1967, they moved to the Baltimore-Washington Conference area where he became president of Wesley Theological Seminary during a turbulent time.

When he retired from there in 1982, the Knights moved to Arizona to be near family, but they retained a vacation home on the New Jersey shore, where family gatherings provided many happy memories.

Survivors include two daughters: Merrie Crawford of Arizona, and Wendy Baker of Ohio, five grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren.

Alice Knight, the widow of the late Rev. John L. Knight, died May 11, 2014, in Sun Lakes, Ariz. She was cremated and a memorial service was held June 12 at Beverly UMC in Beverly, NJ.

JO ANN LESLIE | 1934-2014

Jo Ann Nolder Leslie was born Oct. 6, 1934, in Brackenridge, Pa., to the late Jesse and Florence Nolder. She graduated from Har Brack High in Natrona Heights, Pa., and continued her education at Shepherd University.

She and Frank Leslie were married in 1955. They had four children. One son predeceased her.

She was a lifelong, active member of the United Methodist church and served alongside her husband in his various appointments. He began his ministry in 1968 in the W. Pa. Conference and transferred to the Baltimore-Washington Conference in 1982. He was appointed to Hughes UMC in Wheaton for two years. From 1984-1990, he served Ager Road UMC, then was appointed to Arbutus UMC, which he pastored until his retirement in 1995.

Jo Ann Leslie had a beautiful voice and blessed many church choirs and congregations with her gift. She was active in United Methodist Women. She was also known for her cooking and was especially appreciated by family and friends around holidays for her nut rolls. She enjoyed playing cards and was a fiercely competitive game player.

She was predeceased by her parents, a brother and a son.

Besides her husband, Leslie is survived by her daughter, Kim Haring of Columbus, Ohio; two sons, Kevin Leslie of Lambertville, N.J., and Kyle Leslie of Baltimore; six grandchildren and one great grandchild. Two stepsisters also survive.

The family would like to thank all of the “angels”, the staff at Twin Pines Rehabilitation Center and Hospice of South Texas in Victoria, Texas, who helped care for their mother.

CONSTANCE MILLIAN | 1932-2014

LOUISE PHELPS | 1917-2014

Louise Sweeney Phelps was born Sept. 6, 1917, in Washington, DC. After high school she worked as a cashier at an insurance company and later as a substitute teacher.

She and Bailey Phelps were married in 1941, and with him, began a long career in ministry. While still a student, he served at Deer Park from 1942-1948. The churches he served included Graceland Park, 1948-1954; Forrestville, 1955-1963; 12 years at Grace in Takoma Park, from 1964 to 1976; then at Glenmont in Wheaton from 1976-1981, from which he retired. However, he spent the next five years as Minister of Visitation at Woodside UMC.

She was active in the churches during his years of appointments and when he was a visiting pastor at Woodside UMC. Mary Ebinger, the widow of the late Rev. Warren Ebinger who was senior pastor at Woodside in those years, especially remembered her activity. The Phelps moved into Asbury Village in 1998. He died in October, 1999.

She was a poet of note, said Tom Kaylor. Two of her poems were shared at her memorial service, one as a prayer.

We ask for a grain of sand, you give us a beach.

We ask for a cup of water, you give us an ocean.

We ask for a loaf of bread, you give us a feast.

We ask for love, you give us friendship and understanding.

We ask for time, you give us life eternal.

May we not so love the gifts, that we forget the giver. Amen.

Survivors include sons Franklin Phelps of Chevy Chase and Paul Phelps in Alexandria, Va, and two grandchildren.

Louise Phelps, the widow of the late Rev. Franklin “Bailey” Phelps, died Dec. 25, 2014, at Asbury Village in Gaithersburg. The Rev. Harold “Chip” Wright officiated at a service in Jefferson Funeral Chapel Dec. 30, and the Rev. James Miller officiated at a memorial service Jan. 17 at Grace UMC in Gaithersburg.

JUDITH ANN RIFE | 1941-2014

Judith “Judy” Ann Snowberger was born June 6, 1941, in Blue Knob, Pa., the daughter of the late Cletus W. and M. Jean (Long) Snowberger. She was a 1959 graduate of Central York High School and a 1963 graduate of Lebanon Valley College with a BS in Elementary Education

She and Carl Rife married in 1963. They had two sons who survive.

She was active in the churches her husband served. They were at Memorial Church in Silver Spring, from 1966-1968, then Grace in Lemoyne, Pennsylvania, until 1970 when her husband attended school. In 1971, he was appointed to Brook Hill UMC in Frederick, and 10 years later to Grace UMC in Baltimore. In 1981 to 1984, he was on the staff of United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio. From 1987 to 1994, they were at Milford Mill UMC in Pikesville. And from 1994 until Carl retired in 1999, at Hughes UMC in Wheaton.

She didn't like the phrase, "the preacher's wife." She was Carl's wife who happened to be a minister. In all the places they served she always got involved on her own terms. And she got very involved.

Judy Rife taught school at the beginning of her marriage. After serving as secretary at the General Council on Ministries of the United Methodist while in Dayton, she later became Special Projects Director of that body, where she put her organizational skills to work out of a home office at three different locations. The job also required her to travel throughout the United States and the world. She was in Norway, Switzerland, and Zimbabwe. For a brief period of time between these two jobs she worked as a secretary in the provost's office of Johns Hopkins University. Later she served as special representative of United Theological Seminary of Dayton, Ohio.

She was a very active member of Bethlehem UMC in Dallastown, Pennsylvania, where she worked with the youth of the church, the drama and worship team, the Meals and More program, and served on the hospitality team for funerals. She was an avid gardener and quilter.

She lived these words of Mother Theresa: "Spread love everywhere you go. Let no one ever come to you without leaving happier."

Survivors include her husband of 51 years; two sons, Mark Rife of Seattle, Wash., and Stephen Rife of Boston, Mass.; and a granddaughter. Two sisters also survive.

Judith Ann Rife, 73, the wife of retired Elder, Carl B. Rife, died Oct. 20, 2014, at her residence in York, Pa. A memorial service was held Nov. 1 at the Bethlehem UMC in Dallastown, Pa. with the Rev. Rodger H. Mentzer officiating.

MARGARET SAMPSON | 1919-2014

Margaret "Peggy" Gambrell Sampson was born June 13, 1919, in Greenwood, South Carolina. She had a degree from Winthrop College.

She and Paul Sampson, a widower, were married in 1975. He was an ordained Elder and served a number of churches before his retirement in 1973. After retirement, from 1976-1981, he served Cranberry UMC in Perryman as supply pastor. In 1979, the 50th year of his ministry, Cranberry and all his previous parishes celebrated the occasion. He died in 1984.

Peggy Sampson was a very active member of Grace UMC in Aberdeen. She also volunteered for Meals on Wheels and the American Cancer Society. She had been a mathematician at Aberdeen Proving Grounds from the early 1940s until her marriage. She enjoyed travelling overseas.

Survivors include her daughter, Anne S. Morrison of Deerfield Beach, Florida; his children from his earlier marriage, Doris Lee Baer of Memphis, Tenn., and Michael Sampson of Washington, D.C.; and one grandchild.

Margaret "Peggy" Sampson, wife of the late Rev. Paul J. Sampson, died June 16, 2014, three days after her 96th birthday, at home in Havre de Grace. A graveside service in Baker Cemetery was held June 20, officiated by the Rev. Robert T. Clipp.

JOAN COBB SAMPSELLE | 1926-2014

Joan Cobb was born in 1926 in rural Oklahoma to the late Wilmer Cobb and Tura Bee Harmon Cobb, but after the deaths of her parents she was raised in Takoma Park, Md., by her aunt and uncle, Mary Olive and Daniel Rennick.

She married the Rev. William Sampsel in 1946 and they were married 65 years before his death in 2011. They had five children who survive.

She supported his ministry as church organist, Sunday school teacher, secretary, cook, usher, and do-it-all in the many churches he served for 40 years. These included, in 1946 at Indian Head. In 1949, he moved to Mt. Oak for a year, followed by Reisterstown where he served four years. In 1954, he was appointed to Prince Frederick, in 1959 to Ward's Chapel and in 1962 to Havre de Grace. From 1965 to 1974, he served St. Paul's UMC in Sykesville. Then from 1974 to 1980, his appointment was to New Windsor Parish. In 1980, he moved to First UMC in Cumberland, and in 1982, First UMC in Brunswick. In 1984, he went on disability leave and retired in 1986.

Joan Sampsel was a teacher in Carroll County Public Schools for three decades, and was an award-winning music teacher at Frederick Christian Academy for 15 years. Even during her final days in a nursing home, she played Christian songs and hymns for her neighbors. Throughout her life, her deep faith encircled and comforted everyone she knew.

Survivors include her children: Joy Sampsel, David Sampsel, Alane Haynes, Bonnie Meeks and Melodie Sampsel; six grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren. Three sisters also survive.

Joan Cobb Sampsel, wife of the late Rev. William Sampsel, died Aug. 25, 2014, at Frederick Memorial Hospital. A celebration of her life was held at the Stauffer funeral home in Frederick Aug. 31, with Dr. Larry Eubanks officiating.

CHRISTINE SHARPE | 2015

Christine Umstead Sharpe was born Nov. 16, 1912, in Durham, N.C., the daughter of the late Otie Black and Sallie Hamlin Umstead.

She was a graduate of Duke University and taught in the North Carolina, Washington, Baltimore and Frederick School districts for 22 years. She and Ralph married at Duke's Chapel in 1934, the year he was ordained an Elder. She served with him at his many churches. He began his ministry in 1932 in Langley, Va. From 1934-36, he was at Trinity Church in Frederick, then 1936-40 at Marvin in Washington, D.C. From 1940 to 1946, he was appointed to Calvary in Mt Airy; and 1946-54 to Overlea in Baltimore; 1954-60 to Francis Asbury; and 1960-69 to Calvary in Frederick. In 1969 he went on disability leave and retired in 1970. He died in 1988.

Christine Sharpe was active in Sunday school, the United Methodist Women, Bible Study, the XYZs, and served on numerous committees. She regularly visited the sick, shut-in and lonely.

In her younger years, Sharpe was active in a number of organizations, including the Daughters of the American Revolution, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, the Rose Hill Garden Club, the Frederick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, the American Association of University Women, the Retired Teachers of Frederick County, and the Maryland State Retired Teachers Association. She was well known in the community for her loving and caring qualities.

Survivors include her son Ralph M. Sharpe Jr., of Houston, Texas, and daughter Christine S. Strosnider of Berkeley Springs, W. Va.; four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by three brothers. She was the last of her immediate family.

Christine Umstead Sharpe, the widow of the late Rev. Ralph M. Sharpe, died April 20, 2015, at Homewood of Crumland Farms in Frederick. A memorial service was held April 26 at Calvary UMC in Frederick, with the Rev. Harry C. Cole officiating. Interment is at Mt. Olivet Cemetery where her husband was interred.

CORDELLA FUNK SNYDER | 2014

Cordella Funk was born May 3, 1917, in Baltimore, and all her life had been a devoted member of the now closed Olive Branch UMC, where she was baptized. She was a graduate of Towson and Johns Hopkins universities.

She and William Snyder married in 1940, a 62-year marriage that ended in his death in 2002. He had been ordained in the Evangelical United Brethren Church and served in Pennsylvania, then for 10 years at Dorsey in Elkridge and six years at Olive Branch UMC, before he left the ministry to serve as a social worker for the Baltimore City Department of Social Services' protective juvenile division. He became director of Harford County Social Services in the 1960s.

Cordella Snyder was a third grade school teacher in Randallstown for many years. Susan Koontz-Laber, one of her students, wrote: "What fun memories I have of Mrs. Snyder, my 3rd grade teacher in the late 1950s. ... I learned to love learning, so much so, that I became a teacher myself (and served) for 38 years. How many lives (Mrs. Snyder) touched!"

She was a lifelong member of Olive Branch UMC where she served on committees, sang in the choir and held monthly senior citizen luncheons. She was also a devoted member of Delta Kappa Gamma, a professional educators' sorority, the Teachers Association of Baltimore County and a retired member of Women Educators of Baltimore County.

She is survived by her twin daughters, Karen Ullman of Boynton Beach, Fla., with whom she lived her last nine years, and Sandra Berkenfeld of North Palm Beach, Fla.; two grandchildren and a great-grandson.

NETTIE WRIGHT | 1917-2015

Nettie Lawson Wright was born Sept. 16, 1917, in Washington, D.C., to the late Irving E. and Alice V. Orem Lawson. She and Harold Wright who had just begun his career as a United Methodist pastor, met in his father's church, and it was love at first sight. They married in 1942.

After serving at Friendship Church for a year, in 1943, he joined the U.S. Army as a Chaplain stationed in Germany. After the war, he returned to local church ministry and was appointed to Laytons-ville in 1946.

She was busy as a new mother, helpful clergy spouse and with what is today called United Methodist Women, but the Korean War intervened and in 1950, her husband returned to two years as a Chaplain, this time stationed in Japan.

After his return, he was appointed to start a new congregation in Wheaton and Millian Memorial UMC was begun. Then began years of changing appointments, homemaking and support and participation in each of the churches: Vier's Mill (1952), Reisterstown (1954), Deer Park, and Frostburg (1962). In 1966 he began serving at Linthicum Heights and the family had years of stability. She was remembered as "a very special person and charming pastor's wife, (who) knew how to welcome people and make them feel included," said a member of Linthicum Heights UMC.

After her husband's retirement in 1981, they moved to The Woods near Hedgesville, W. Va., and lived in their dream cabin until 1987 when they moved to Ravenwood Lutheran Village in Williamsport. He died in early 1995. She loved traveling and they made many trips around the world by plane, ship, train and car.

She was a member of John Wesley UMC in Hagerstown and the United Methodist Women.

She is survived by a daughter, Linda Wright Donovan; and a son, the Rev. Harold "Chip" B. Wright II, pastor of Calvary UMC in Annapolis; five grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Nettie Wright, 97, wife of the late Rev. Harold B. Wright, died Jan. 4, 2015, in Hagerstown. The Rev. Ken Dunnington officiated at a memorial service Jan. 24, at Reisterstown UMC

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration of The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying combined financial statements of The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and The United Methodist Church, Washington Area Episcopal Office (collectively referred to as the Conference) which comprise the Combined Statements of Financial Position as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the related Combined Statements of Activities and Cash Flows for the years then ended and the related notes to the combined financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Combined Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these combined financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of combined financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the combined financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the combined financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the combined financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined financial statements.

We believe the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

As more fully described in Note 8 to the combined financial statements, the Conference accounts for post-retirement health benefit obligations on a pay-as-you-go basis. In our opinion, accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the funded status of the post-retirement health benefit obligations be recorded in the Combined Statements of Financial Position and changes in the funded status be recognized as changes in net assets in the year the change occurs. The effects on the combined financial statements of the preceding practice are not reasonably determinable.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matter discussed in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the combined financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Conference as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC., SUBSIDIARY AND AFFILIATE
NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Activities

The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. (BWC) was formed to provide for the promotion of the Christian faith, missionary, and benevolent causes.

BWC Borrower, LLC was formed to finance, manage, and maintain property and operate a management business for this purpose. BWC is the sole member of BWC Borrower, LLC.

The United Methodist Church, Washington Area Episcopal Office (Episcopal Office) was formed to manage many aspects of BWC, including presiding over sessions, overseeing fiscal and program operations, and ensuring fair process.

Principles of Combination

The combined financial statements include the accounts of BWC, BWC Borrower, LLC and the Episcopal Office (collectively referred to as the Conference). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

Accounting Standards Codification

All references in the combined financial statements to the Codification refer to the Accounting Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. The Codification is the single source of authoritative GAAP in the United States.

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying combined financial statements are presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America on the accrual basis of accounting, whereby revenue is recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Basis of Presentation

Under the Codification, the Conference is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted.

Unrestricted net assets are assets that are neither permanently restricted nor temporarily restricted by donor-imposed stipulations. These resources include:

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE
NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, CONTINUED

- Operating – to support operations
- Property – restricted for property acquisitions
- Medical Benefits – designated by the Board to fund medical premiums
- Designated for Loans – to fund low interest loans to the United Methodist Churches
- Designated for Post-Retirement Health Benefits – to fund post-retirement health benefits

Temporarily restricted net assets are contributions whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that either expire by the passage of time or can be fulfilled by use for specified purposes.

Permanently restricted net assets are contributions whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire by the passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by the Conference's actions.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of combined financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the combined financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

The Conference maintains its cash in financial institutions which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Conference believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Funds Due to Others

Amounts represent proceeds from the sale of a church property, which is due to the Greater Washington District.

Investments

Under the Codification, investments are recorded at fair value. Investments received as gifts and bequests are recorded at fair value at the gift date. To adjust

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

the carrying value of the investments, realized and unrealized gains and losses are reported in the Combined Statements of Activities. See Note 3 for further discussion of the valuation of investments.

The Conference invests in a professionally managed portfolio that contains stocks and bonds of publicly traded companies, mutual funds, and pooled investments. Such investments are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit. Due to the level of risk associated with such investments and the level of uncertainty related to the changes in value of such investments, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near-term would materially affect investment balances and the amounts reported in the combined financial statements.

Other Receivables

Other receivables include amounts due from individuals and organizations related to the Conference for pension and medical costs. At December 31, 2014 and 2013, management recorded an allowance for uncollectible accounts of $678,008 and $597,439, respectively.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment greater than $2,500 are recorded at cost if purchased or fair value at the date of the donation if gifted. Lesser amounts are expensed. Depreciation is determined using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets.

Apportionments

The Conference receives a significant portion of its revenue in the form of apportionments from local churches that are members of the Conference. Apportionments are accepted from the local churches; however, they are not a legal obligation. As such, apportionments are recognized as revenue when received, since the amount to be received is undeterminable until paid by the local churches. The Conference's apportionment policy is to include apportionments received by Tuesday following the second Sunday subsequent to the date of the accompanying Combined Statements of Financial Position. Apportionments are used to fund mission and ministries of the Conference and General Church World Services.

Medical Payments

The Conference receives premiums from local churches that are members of the Conference. These premiums are used to pay for medical insurance for clergy and lay employees of the Conference.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

Contributions

In accordance with the Not-for-Profit Entities Revenue Recognition Topic of the Codification, contributions received are recorded as either unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support. All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted, either temporarily or permanently, by the donor. The Conference's policy is to utilize temporarily restricted support against qualifying expenses as they are incurred.

Camping Registration and Events

The Conference receives registration fees for camps owned and operated by the Conference. The Conference also hosts numerous seminars and conferences throughout the year, for which registration fees are collected by the Conference. Revenue is recognized in the year such services and events occur.

Program Expense

Apportioned funds categories represent the following:

- Discipleship – All department staffing costs for the Councils on Ministries and Human Resource Development as well as the activities of the ministries, missions performed within the Conference, establishing new churches, growth of existing churches, activities and programs undertaken to develop both clergy and lay religious education, and spiritual enrichment of all clergy and lay persons within the Conference
- Stewardship - All financial and administrative components of the Conference, including the treasury function, trustees, pension and health benefits for clergy and lay employees and costs of the Conference Center offices
- Episcopal Office – Costs for departments linked directly to the Bishop's office
- General Church and Jurisdictional Apportionment – Funds collected by the Conference from local churches and designated by the Conference to send to General Church and World Services

Subsequent Events

The Conference has evaluated subsequent events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure in the combined financial statements through May 11, 2015, the date the combined financial statements were available to be issued.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

2. INCOME TAXES

The Conference is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Income which is not related to exempt purposes, less applicable deductions, is subject to federal and state corporate income taxes. The Conference had no material amounts of unrelated business income for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013.

The Conference follows the provisions of Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes under the Income Taxes Topic of the Codification. The Codification requires the evaluation of tax positions, which include maintaining its tax-exempt status and the taxability of any unrelated business income, and does not allow recognition of tax positions which do not meet a "more-likely-than-not" threshold of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Management does not believe it has taken any tax positions that would not meet this threshold.

3. VALUATION OF INVESTMENTS

Investments at December 31, 2014 and 2013 consisted of the following:

	2014	2013
Common Stocks	$ 1,419,657	$ 1,277,291
Nonpublic Mutual Funds	5,443,818	4,983,772

Pooled Investments	27,583,107	24,107,402
Total	$ 34,665,512	$ 30,576,101

Investment income for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 consisted of the following:

	2014	2013
Interest and Dividends (Net of $59,812 and $52,869 of Investment Fees, Respectively)	$ 163,978	$ 149,018

Unrealized Gain on Investments	3,874,211	3,645,686
Total	$ 4,485,842	$ 4,211,502

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of the Codification establishes a hierarchal disclosure framework, which prioritizes and ranks the level of market price observability used in measuring investments and other financial instruments at fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 – Quoted prices are available in active markets for identical investments as of the reporting date. The Conference considers its investments in common stocks and mutual funds to be Level 1 investments.

Level 2 – Pricing inputs are other than quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date, and fair value is determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies. The Conference considers corporate bonds, government securities, certain nonpublic mutual funds, and pooled investments to be Level 2 investments.

Level 3 – Pricing inputs are unobservable for the investment and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the investment. The Conference does not currently hold any Level 3 investments.

In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may be categorized into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, an investment's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Conference's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the investment. There were no changes in these methodologies during the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Common Stock and Bond Mutual Funds: Valued at quoted prices in an active market

Nonpublic Mutual Funds: Valued at the net asset value per share that may be redeemed at the date of the Combined Statements of Financial Position

Corporate Bonds: Valued based on stated interest rates and quality rating

Pooled Investments: Investments through the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church (General Board), which consist of diversified nonpublic mutual funds and are valued using the net asset value per share that may be redeemed at the date of the Combined Statements of Financial Position

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

The methods described above produce a fair value that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The table below presents the balances of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the hierarchy as of December 31, 2014:

4. NOTES AND MORTGAGE RECEIVABLE

Notes receivable of $1,061,541 and $1,233,991 in 2014 and 2013, respectively, represent the net amount of loans issued at interest rates ranging up to 4.5%.

Future maturities of these notes at December 31, 2014 are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	2015	$ 252,958
	2016	116,776
	2017	108,510
	2018	96,940
	2019	73,382
	Thereafter	1,044,446
		1,693,012
Less: Allowance for Doubtful Notes Receivable		631,471
		$ 1,061,541

Two mortgage receivables bear interest at fixed rates between 6% and 7% and require monthly payments of principal and interest between $1,899 and $13,254 through December 2019. A lump-sum payment of the remaining balance for each mortgage receivable is due in August 2018 and January 2020, respectively.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

5. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment as of December 31, 2014 and 2013 consisted of the following:

	2014	2013
Land	$ 1,641,316	$ 1,613,701
Building and Improvements	16,475,109	16,412,371

	$ 12,857,348	$ 13,444,979

The Conference owns approximately 570 acres of land used by the Outdoor Ministries. The land was donated to the Conference during the period 1948 through 1960 for which no value was determined and, therefore, no amount is included in the Combined Statements of Financial Position.

Depreciation expense was $706,388 and $716,835 for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

6. NOTES PAYABLE

The Conference had a note payable to a bank which bore interest equal to the five-year treasury rate plus 300 basis points, with principal and interest payments due monthly through November 2014. A lump-sum payment of the remaining principal balance was due in December 2014. The note was collateralized by the West River Methodist Center property. During November 2014, the Conference repaid the note with the proceeds of the refinancing below.

The Conference also had a note payable to the Board of Childcare of the United Methodist Church which bore interest at 5.25%, subject to adjustment at specified dates. The note required quarterly principal and interest payments through December 31, 2035. The balance of this note was $5,200,000 at December 31, 2013. On July 31, 2014, this note was refinanced with the Board of Childcare of the United Methodist Church. Borrowings now bear interest at 3.25%, subject to adjustment at specified dates. The new note requires quarterly principal and interest payments through June 30, 2029. The note is collateralized by the conference center in Maple Lawn, Maryland and the West River Methodist Center property. The balance on this note was $6,096,333 and $5,200,000 at December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Future maturities at December 31, 2014 are as follows:

Year Ending December 31, 2015	$ 413,333
2016	413,333
2017	413,333
2018	413,333
2019	413,333
Thereafter	4,029,668
	$ 6,096,333

7. PENSION EXPENSE

The Conference participates in three multi-employer pension plans which are administered by the General Board. The Conference provides pension benefits for members of the clergy under the three plans. Services provided prior to January 1, 1982 are covered by a defined benefit plan (Pre-82 Plan). The General Board estimated the Conference's portion of the Pre-82 Plan assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $24,000,000, and the total plan assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $127,000,000.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

Services provided subsequent to December 31, 1981 are covered by the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), which has components of both a defined benefit and defined contribution plan. The Conference did not contribute any funds to MPP during 2014 or 2013. The General Board estimated MPP assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $101,000,000.

Services provided subsequent to December 31, 2006 are covered under the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), which has components of both a defined benefit and defined contribution plan. The Conference contributed approximately $3,125,000 and $3,946,000 to CRSP for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The General Board estimated CRSP assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $7,000,000.

The risks of participating in a multi-employer plan are different from a single-employer plan in the following aspects:

- a. Assets contributed to the multi-employer plan by one employer may be used to provide benefits to employees of other participating employers.
- b. If a participating employer stops contributing to the plan, the unfunded obligations of the plan may be borne by the remaining participating employers.
- c. If the Conference chooses to stop participating in its multi-employer plan, the Conference may be required to pay the plan an amount based on the underfunded status of the plan, referred to as a withdrawal liability.

Lay employees of the Conference are covered by a defined contribution plan (Plan). The level and funding of retirement benefits to individual participants of the Plan are determined annually by the Conference within certain guidelines established by the General Board. The Conference contributed approximately $313,000 and $271,000 to the Plan for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

8. POST-RETIREMENT HEALTH BENEFITS

Post-retirement health benefits for all retired personnel and their spouses, widows, and widowers are provided under a discretionary plan administered by the General Board. The Conference accounts for the obligation on a pay-as-you-go basis, and the cost of post-retirement health benefits was approximately $1,264,000 and $1,175,000 for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. GAAP requires the funded status of post-retirement obligations, representing the difference between plan assets and accumulated post-retirement obligations, be recorded in the Combined Statements of Financial Position and changes in the funded status be recognized as changes in net assets in the year the change occurs. At December 31, 2014, using the most recent actuarial report available, the accumulated benefit obligation for post-retirement health benefits is approximately $38,000,000, at an assumed discount rate of 3.8%. For 2014, the assumed annual rate of increase in the cost of covered health care benefits is 7%. It is assumed to decrease gradually to 5% in 2019 and remain at that level thereafter. A one percentage point increase or decrease in the assumed health care cost trend rate would have an approximate 12% to 15% effect on the accumulated benefit obligation.

9. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Conference leases office space in Washington, D.C. and Hagerstown, Maryland under leases which expire through July 2017.

Year Ending December 31, 2015	$ 58,015
2016	53,327
2017	31,821
	$ 143,163

Rent expense was $69,312 and $66,463 for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

The Conference subleases space in Fulton, Maryland and Baltimore, Maryland under leases which expire through June 2018. At December 31, 2014, the future minimum rental amounts to be received are as follows:

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

Year Ending December 31, 2015		$ 83,886
	2016	62,455
	2017	64,329
	2018	32,640
		$ 243,310

The Conference has approximately $4,000,000 of contingent receivables. These contingent receivables are conditional donations made by the Conference to churches that are members of the Conference and are required to be repaid only if the church ceases to be a member.

10. TEMPORARILY AND PERMANENTLY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS

Temporarily restricted net assets are available for the following purposes:

	2014	2013

11. ENDOWMENT FUNDS

The Conference's permanent endowment consists of various donor restricted funds established to provide a source of income for ongoing donor advised program expenses. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Interpretation of Relevant Law

The Conference has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA), enacted in Maryland on April 14, 2009, as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund, and (c) the change in unrealized gains and losses of invested endowments to the extent allocations do not reduce the endowment value below the original corpus. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets, until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the donor's stipulations or unrestricted net assets.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters

The Conference's investment policy is to provide a common investment vehicle, which will generate a stable and continuously growing income stream to support operations. The overall investment goal is to preserve the purchasing power of the future stream of endowment payout for those funds. Other goals include maximizing return within reasonable and prudent levels of risk and maximizing the value of the endowment while maintaining liquidity needed to support spending in prolonged down markets. The Conference seeks a return on investment consistent with levels of investment risk that are prudent and reasonable given medium- to long-term capital market conditions and investment objectives.

Endowment Spending Policy

The Conference follows the specific spending requirements of each endowment and, if there are no donor stipulations, the income is used for the purpose and mission of the Conference.

12. DONATED SERVICES

No amounts have been reflected in the combined financial statements for donated services, as no objective basis is available to measure the value of such services. However, a substantial number of volunteers donate significant amounts of time to the Conference's program services, fund-raising campaigns, and general administration.

CORRECTION FORM, 2015 JOURNAL

Much of the information in this Journal, including addresses and phone numbers are pulled from Arena, the online database of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. If you find your personal or church contact information is incorrect, please follow the instructions below. Each person is responsible for keeping their own information up to date.

Logging into Arena:

1. In your browser, go to www.bwcumc.org and click on "Sign In" at the top of the page.
2. If you know your username and password, type them in the fields provided.
3. If you've forgotten your username or password, click on "Forgot your Password" in the body of that page. Follow the instructions to request your username and password. This information will be sent to the e-mail address linked to your record.
4. We highly recommend you change your user name and password to something that's easy to remember. You may do so by clicking on "My Contact Info" on the left navigation and following the instructions below.

Changing your contact information:

1. Follow the instructions above to log in.
2. Once logged in, on the left navigation, click on "My Contact Info."
3. Click the "Edit" box at the top of the page.
4. Type changed information into the appropriate fields.

Errors in appointment history or church relationships may be reported to Office of Communications AND your Regional Administrator by July 15, 2016.
