

Featured Speaker

PRESTON CENTUOLO

A dynamically engaging and Spirit-filled communicator, Preston naturally speaks right to the heart of youth, helping them see beyond pressing obstacles to seize their own unique God-given purpose. For over two decades, Preston has tirelessly shared his inspiring story with young people around the world. His words resonate with youth struggling to find balance in an increasingly chaotic, high pressure, information-overload age. A masterful storyteller, Preston's message offers a fresh outlook, helping youth find renewed hope and direction in spite of pressing circumstances. He expertly addresses common issues facing youth and demystifies confusing, mixed messages that come from all directions in today's technological era. Preston's vision is to reignite hope for a bright future in the lives of young people. Preston wants every young person to recognize they have immeasurable, irrevocable purpose and value no matter what their past or present circumstances.

SIDEWALK PROPHETS

Sidewalk Prophets, winner of the Dove Awards' new artist of the year. This contemporary Christian rock band has many top of the chart hits such as "Live Like That". "Help Me Find It" and "You Love Me Anyway". The band's goal is to break down that wall between the guys on stage and the audience. "This is our prayerful attempt to remind fans, friends, strangers and enemies that we're all brothers and sisters. Our hope is that each person who comes leaves feeling like they are loved, that they have a purpose and that they are a vitally important part of God's family."

URBAN STREET LEVEL

Back by popular demand!!!

Urban Street Level is a high energy, up tempo contemporary music group whose objective is to engage audiences wherever they perform. USL was started with a vision of Elwood Jones to reach teens all over the United States and in foreign countries. The purpose for doing this type of ministry became clear from observing teens in urban communities that are disconnected from God. Simply put, Elwood found youth bored with the things of God. It was that frustration that formed a group with the vision & purpose to evangelize the youth of America with Hip-Hop, R&B and a Jazzy sound filled with lyrics of praise.
