The Baltimore-Washington Conference is looking for student leaders who are willing to step up and serve their peers as Members at Large (MAL) to Annual Conference, 2018.

- Youth MAL commit to attending the 234th annual session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference from May 30–June 1, 2018, at the Baltimore Marriott Waterfront Hotel. A Preconference Session will be held Saturday, April 21, at two locations, to be announced soon.
- Youth MAL commit a great deal of time to this ministry, but they also benefit in many ways. To learn more about the work of the Annual Conference, go to the conference website: www.bwcumc.org and hover over “EVENTS”, to see a list. Then click on the “Annual Conference” link. Information about the 2018 Annual Conference will be posted on this page, plus there is a link under “Quick Links” called “Annual Conference Primer” where you will find additional information about voting and procedures at Annual Conference.
- The Youth MAL stay together as a group during Annual Conference. They attend all Annual Conference Sessions, share meals and stay overnight in the hotel. At all times, the youth will be chaperoned following all Safe Sanctuaries rules

Youth Members at Large:

- Must have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Must be an active member of a United Methodist Church in the Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church
- Must attend the 234th annual session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference from May 30–June 1, 2018, at the Baltimore Marriott Waterfront Hotel
- Must be a student in grades 6-12 during the 2017-2018 academic year.
- Must have the permission and support of his/her parent(s).

Make no mistake, this is a big commitment and will require missing days at school! If you're still interested, please talk it over with God and with your parents and then complete the application and return it to Cheryl Cook by April 10th. All applicants will be notified by May 1st.
